A NEWSPAPERMAN always is resourceful when it comes to digging up stories, chasing pictures or hunting a good soft spot in which to rest between assignments. Charlie Ruggles, star reporter in Para-mount's "Exclusive," with Fred MacMurray and Frances Farmer, is no exception. Here he is reading a picture magazine, cool as a cucumber, inside a Frigidaire. In the picture, directed by Alexander Hall, Charlie and Fred MacMurray take turns getting inside to see if the interior light really goes out when the doors are closed. Washburne's are the local dealers.

EUGENE MEN GO
TO LEGION MEET

opens Thursday. Delegates from the Eugene post are: Wallace N. Wintler, retiring commander, Ben F. Dorris, N. B. Sleeper, incoming commander, and Carlton E. Spencer.
 Alternates are: W. R. Gard, Lawrence Jensen, Ed Rinde, and W. H.
 Pohlman.

The Legion parade comes Thursday evening; the colorful drum corps competition, Friday evening. The Eugene corps is not entering competition this year but is to stage an exhibition. Clarence V. Simon is manager for the corps.

For the first time at the convention there is to be a rifle match this year, plan 1 for 3 p. m. Friday. On the local team are: Carlton E. Spencer, Lawrence Jensen, John Kalk-hoven, Fred Chitty, and Henry Halversen. Also on Friday afternoon there will be a pistol match. Mr.
 Spencer and probably others from here will enter this event.

The local post held its regular meeting Tuesday evening in the new quarters at the new Moose hall on West Broadway. A visiting delegation from Medford stopped en route to Albany. The local post's installation comes in September.

BOARD MEETS
 SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 11.—(Special)—The Sunday school board of the Methodist church met for a general business session Monday night.
 Plans were made for the church school for the coming year.

CARS DAMAGED
 SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 11.—(Special)—Cars driven by Alice Barnhart and William Engle were slightly damaged Tuesday afternoon at 3:40 when they collided at Second and Main streets in Springfield.

Mrs. Tomseth is Struck by Train
 SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 11.—(Special)—When her car was struck by a Southern Pacific freight train at the South Second street crossing Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. John Tomseth of Goshen received severe bruises on her legs and minor injuries to her arm.
 Although the warning bell was ringing, Mrs. Tomseth assumed it was for an engine standing on the track, and did not see the freight train approaching. The impact threw Mrs. Tomseth against the cow. The side of the car
