

Numerous Weddings Attract Attention Of Eugeneans During The Week

Parties Of Week
Arranged For
The Gools

SINCE the announcement that Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Gool are leaving for Tacoma to reside, where Mr. Gool is to be superintendent of the Tacoma, there has been much interest in Eugene in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Gool are leaving for the north on Monday.

Today Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Gool are entertaining at a family party at which the Gools are in the guest of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Gool will be present at the party at the home of Mrs. P. J. Bartle, given by the Kary Korner club.

On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Mehl of Mabel invited Mr. and Mrs. Gool and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Tillman to dinner at their home, preceding the party at the Tillmans in Eugene. Twenty guests were invited there for the evening to honor the Gools.

Mr. Gool was guest of honor at the garden party on Friday at the home of Mrs. P. J. Bartle, given by the Kary Korner club.

For Mrs. Gool
Mrs. Percy Brown and Mrs. A. L. Lums were hostess at a luncheon the past Tuesday for Mrs. Gool and members of division five of the Women's union of the First Methodist Episcopal church entertained at the same day for her. A dessert party, given at the home of Mrs. R. T. Burnett, was arranged for Tuesday evening by Chapter H. P. E. O., of which she is a member.

Florence Davis Is
Wed. Portland

Mrs. Florence Davis, of Eugene, daughter of Mrs. E. D. Davis of Portland, and Richard E. Stanton of Portland, son of Mrs. Carrie Stanton of that city, were united in marriage at a one-thirty o'clock service last Sunday at Mount Tabor Presbyterian church in Portland, with Rev. John Beard officiating.

The bride was attired in a tan Palm Beach suit with saddle brown accessories, and her flowers were Tulips and lilies-of-the-valley.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Peck of Portland.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Stanton, sixteen guests being present. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kingsley and daughter, Miss Lois Kingsley of Eugene, were among the out-of-town guests.

The couple will make their home in Portland.

MRS. LEWIS RUSSELL

An event of Friday evening was the marriage of Mrs. Lewis Russell (Jean Young), above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young, at a home ceremony. (Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving.)

IN ASHLAND
Mrs. Hazel Rader of this city is spending the week-end in Ashland.

Margison-Dennis
Wedding Here
On Sunday

AT the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Dennis of this city, the marriage of Miss Mary F. Dennis and Victor Margison of San Francisco was solemnized last Sunday afternoon, at four o'clock.

Summer flowers were arranged about the room, and the service was read before an improvised altar of banded flowers. Dr. A. J. Harms, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She was attired in white silk crepe and lace, with a spray of white flowers in her hair. She carried a bouquet of salmon-colored gladioli with heather and lilies-of-the-valley.

Sister Is Attendant
Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Ruth Dennis, whose dress was white, contrasted with blue. Paul Dennis, brother of the bride, was Mr. Margison's best man.

Out-of-town guests for the ceremony were Mrs. E. B. Barrett of Bellingham, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Dennis, Jr., of Albany.

Following the wedding trip to Seattle, the couple will reside in San Francisco.

Wedding Ceremony
At Perry Home

Only immediate members of the family, and a few close friends were in attendance at the wedding Friday morning of Miss Maxine Perry, daughter of Mrs. Max Perry and Maurice Osburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Osburn, at which Rev. Henry W. Davis officiated.

The bride wore a white wool suit with white accessories, and her carriage was gardenias. Her attendant, Mrs. Day Foster, also wore white. Attending Mr. Osburn was his brother, Richard Osburn.

After the ceremony, breakfast was served on the lawn at the Perry home, with Mrs. Foster and Miss Dorothy Donovan presiding at the table.

Following a trip to San Francisco, the couple will reside in Eugene.

Executive Meeting

Eighteen representatives of various women's clubs in Lane county met Friday at the Crockett club house for an executive board meeting. Each representative spoke on the full plan for the organization she represented and the work being carried on by the group. A committee was appointed to arrange for the October meeting.

MRS. SWOFFORD LEAVES
Mrs. Lydia Swofford of Melrose, Minn., who spent the summer in Eugene as the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Swofford, has returned to her home in Melrose.

Ceremonies Of Week Include
Jacobs-Anderson, Also
Russell-Young Rites

CHOOSING the same day and hour for their weddings this past week, were Miss Marie Anderson, bride of Edward Jacobs, and Miss Jean Young, whose marriage to Lewis Russell was solemnized on Friday. Both services were read at eight o'clock in the evening.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hathaway, Miss Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Anderson, was married to Mr. Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacobs of Reedsport, with Dr. Victor P. Morris officiating.

The ceremony was performed before an arrangement of gladioli in shades of peach and white.

Dress of Lace
The bride wore a full length dress of peach lace, trimmed in the same shade of tulle fluting above the neckline. She wore a tiara headpiece and long peach-colored gloves. Her bouquet was colonial, with roses of the same shade as the dress, surrounded by gardenias. Miss Ruth Tupper, maid of honor, wore blue lace, and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Thomas Jacobs, of Reedsport, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Throughout the service, Mrs. Charles Purdie played the violin, her selections being "O Promise Me," "I Love You Truly," the Lohengrin "Wedding March" and "The End of a Perfect Day."

Reception Held
Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Hathaway home, with Mrs. Everett Cook and Mrs. Wayne Hurd presiding.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception were Mrs. Laura Day and daughter Miss Doris, Miss Jeanne Forstrom, and E. J. Anderson, all of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson of Longview, Wash.

For her going-away ensemble, Mrs. Jacobs wore a brown knit dress, with antique accessories. Following a wedding trip to Seattle, the couple will reside in Portland.

Miss Young Wed
The marriage of Miss Jean Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young, to Lewis Russell, son of Mrs. Wade Palmer, was solemnized at the Young home Friday evening, before members of the immediate families and a few close friends. Rev. R. E. Clark officiated at the service.

The bride's dress was blue lace over matching tulle, her high-brimmed hat being of the same material. She carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses. Attending the bride was Mrs. Elton Owen, who wore a dress of yellow lace over the same shade of tulle. Her head-dress was a coronet of the tulle and she carried a nosegay.

Mr. Russell was attended by Elton Owen.

Play at Ceremony
Music for the service was played by Mrs. Louis Waldorf, violin, and Mrs. A. C. Dreyman, piano, the numbers being "Will You Remember," and the "Wedding March" from Lohengrin.

Following a trip to San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Russell will be at home in Eugene, at 1616 Nineteenth avenue east.

Former Resident Is
Wed In Colorado
On Thursday

Of interest in Eugene, is the marriage at Greeley, Colo., last Thursday of Miss Dorothea Wycoff of that city, to Wilbur C. Bushnell, formerly of Eugene. The wedding ceremony took place at the Park Congregational church at eight o'clock in the evening. Rev. Alfred Wycoff, brother of the bride officiating.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Faculty club, to which a number of their friends were invited.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Wycoff of Greeley, and received her education in New York, later instructing at the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland.

Mr. Bushnell, the son of Edwin T. Bushnell of this city, was graduated from the University of Oregon, and for the past six years has resided in Ashland, where the couple will make their home.

Miss Loretta Mason
Weds Mr. Johnson

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mason of this city have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Loretta, to Chester Johnson on Monday, August 16 at Vancouver, Wash.

Miss Johnson was graduated from the University of Oregon, and Mr. Johnson, from Oregon State college. They will make their home in California.

Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Johnson of Tacoma.

Miss Shelley Will
Wed Mr. Jessen

Miss Hazel Shelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Shelley, and Carl Jessen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jessen will be married this morning at a nine o'clock ceremony, in the study at the First Christian church, with Dr. Victor P. Morris officiating.

Only members of the immediate families will attend the wedding. Following a short wedding trip, the couple will reside at their new home on Route two.

IN HOLLYWOOD
In Hollywood during the past week, were Mr. and Mrs. N. S. South of Eugene, who were guests at the Hollywood Ruckerbucker Hotel.

Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Schewering are on a week's vacation trip to Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., having left Eugene on Friday.

LEAVES FOR SOUTH

Mrs. Carl Raesler of Burbank, Calif., who has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Bartle in Eugene, has returned to her home in the south.

THOMASES RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Thomas arrived in Eugene Saturday afternoon, having visited in Portland, Salem and Newport. Before leaving for Lafayette, Ind., they plan to remain here for about ten days with Mrs. Thomas' parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hunt.

FROM MONTANA

House guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George DeBar, are their daughter, Mrs. Harvey Stackpole and her daughter Patty of Butte, Mont.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. David M. Graham, who has been spending two weeks at Gearhart and Portland, returned to Eugene this past week.

KETO CLUB

The Keto club held an all day meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Tyson on the McKenzie. Twelve members were in attendance.

RETURNS HERE

Mrs. Alberta S. McMurphy has returned from the quadrennial session in Portland of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, of which she is a past grand officer. During the memorial service, she placed a wreath on the altar in

SEE SOCIAL NOTES
PAGE 10

Mrs. David Reid
Honored Here
On Visit

IN compliment to Mrs. David Reid of South Haven Mich., who is visiting in Eugene, Mrs. A. A. Reid entertained at her home Tuesday afternoon for her sister-in-law.

Guests invited for the afternoon were Mrs. E. L. Lewis, Mrs. C. I. Collins, Mrs. I. T. Loomis, Mrs. R. B. Wilcox, Mrs. E. U. Lee, Mrs. E. A. Dronke, Mrs. J. B. Gierhart, Mrs. L. J. Temple, Mrs. W. O. Heckart, Mrs. C. A. McClain, Mrs. M. M. Hollis and Mrs. Wayne Reid.

Miss Moritz, Bride
At Ceremony On Saturday

Miss Agnes Moritz, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moritz, and Frederick Hoffstad, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hoffstad of Bandon, were married at a Saturday morning ceremony, performed at the St. Mary's Catholic church, with Rev. Francis P. Leipzig officiating.

The bride's costume was a redingote of navy blue chiffon over navy blue satin, and she wore a small off-the-face hat of the same shade. Her flowers were an old-fashioned nosegay.

Wears Powder Blue

Attendant to the bride, Miss Gretta Wilhelm, wore a dress of powder-blue triple sheer. Her hat was navy blue, with a broad brim, and she carried a nosegay of sweetpeas and roses. Howard Straub Stafford of Grants Pass was Mr. Hoffstad's attendant.

Pipe organ music for the ceremony was played by Mrs. Dale Cooley.

Following the ceremony, breakfast was served at the Osburn hotel to fifteen guests, including the following from out-of-town: Mr. and Mrs. Stafford of Grants Pass, Mrs. F. J. Hoffstad of Bandon, mother of Mr. Hoffstad, and Mr. and Mrs. James P. Moritz of Portland.

Aloha Club

Mrs. Dudley Holland of College Crest was hostess on Thursday afternoon to members of the Aloha club, at her home. Prizes went to Mrs. Seth Laraway and Mrs. Russell Coleman.

Only A Few Days Left In
Callahan's August Sale

The OLYMPIC

EXTRA
BIG FUEL
DOOR

Check All Points of

Heater Value

A—The Olympic Circulating Heater heats all corners of the room—except with 100% fuel. Trade in your old heater.

B—Extra big feed door for big wood—all cast—holds heat all night.

C—Wonderful draft regulation and easy to keep clean.

D—Olympic products "always have been good products" for 60 years continuous service.

$1 deposit will hold any heater. Come in, select the one most suited for you — have it delivered later—$5 a month on the balance. Bring in your old heater!

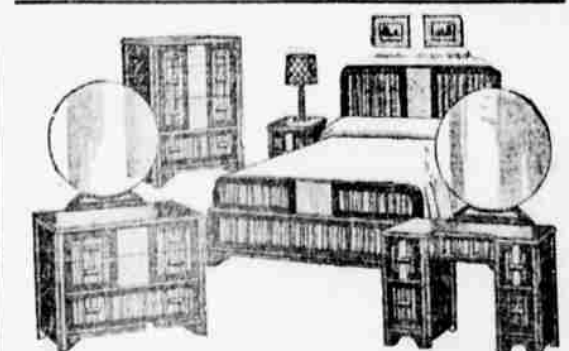

Olympic Range Is a Wonderful Baker
$5 a Month

CALLAHAN'S
Furniture Store
880-672 WILLAMETTE-HEILIG THEATRE BLDG.

BECAUSE IT feels
SO GOOD

There are many reasons why you will find Spring-Air the most economical mattress to buy — but the reason you wouldn't give it up for anything is because it feels so good. Let us show you this nationally famous line of mattresses.

$24.50 to $45.00—Other Mattresses $5.95

A full size bed, vanity with mirrors, and bench with chest to match and only $44.75. To appreciate values see these at Callahan's.

Other 4-piece Suites at $49.75, $59.75, $69.75 and you can buy on reasonable terms—say $10 a month.

Office Desks
$19.75
Used Oak

Office Chairs
$15.75
Swivel