SAWMILL OWNERS COMPLAIN OF TAX
Owners of eight sawmill properties in Lane county who have complained that the tax assessment on their holdings is too high will be given a hearing before the county board of equalization at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, it was announced at the office of Wally Stevens, county assessor, Wednesday. Members of the board will go to Cottage Grove Friday to hold a hearing at 10:30 a. m. at the city hall to hear general assessment complaints. A large number have been filed from that city, appealing from the valuations set by the state tax commission which made a special survey of property there.

Assessor Stevens and County Clerk Dillard, members of the board of equalization, have been in the field all week, investigating complaints of assessment. Wednesday they were in the territory immediately south of Eugene.

Dean, Rowe To Hurl In Exhibition Tilt
MARSHALL, Tex., Aug. 25.—(AP)—It's a sure bet baseball fans will pack the ball park here tonight. Opposing pitchers in the East Texas League exhibition game will be no less than Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe and Paul "Daffy" Dean, who last faced each other in the world series of 1934.
