Butter And Butterfat Higher Here

ADVANCE OF ONE CENT PER POUND IS NOTED TUESDAY

Butter and butterfat advanced a cent a pound in the Eugene market Tuesday, the wholesale price of butter being quoted at 39 and 38 cents a pound and the buying price of butterfat 37 cents, 36 cents and 31 cents. There was also a change in the buying price of poultry, a cent rise being quoted in several different grades.

Wheat remained at 86 cents and was steady.

Wool and mohair were unchanged and there was little doing in hides and cascara bark.

STOCKS MOVE UP FEW POINTS FOR SLIGHT RECOVERY

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Stocks crawled into a recovery move for 1 to 3 or more points in today's early market dealings but a late selling push unsettled leaders at the finish.

Rails held the play from the start, with most other groups taking part. Lack of volume however, dampened buying courage in the final hour and traders were quick to take profits.

Lightness of dealings was said to have been caused partially by absence of numerous boardroom customers who were either participating or witnessing the huge American Legion parade.

Transfers were around 1,000,000 shares.

TUESDAY BILLS

McDONALD: "Thin Ice" and "Sophie Lang Goes West."

HEILIG: "The Devil Is Driving" and "Hideaway."

STATE: "Thanks a Million" and "Valiant Is the Word for Carrie."

MAYFLOWER: "Chan at the Opera" and "Meet the Missus."

REX: "Handy Andy" and "When Thief Meets Thief."

PLAYMORE: "Big Business."

It's a new Sonja Henie that you'll see at the McDonald in "Thin Ice." She's not so buxom, is more plausible-looking, and all in all, turns in a swell performance. Tyrone Power is adequate in this story of the Swiss Alps. "Sophie Lang Goes West" stars Gertrude Michael.

* * *

A great moral lesson is propounded in "The Devil Is Driving," a yarn at the Heilig about traffic accidents and drunken driving. Richard Dix is the hard-fisted lad in this one. A more amusing story is "Hideaway," in which the old trouper, Fred Stone, plays the part of a lovable, shiftless farmer.

* * *

A new bill opens at the Mayflower Tuesday. No. 1 feature is "Chan at the Opera," another in the long list of Chan stories. In addition to Warner Oland you will see Keye Luke and Katherine DeMille. "Meet the Missus" has Victor Moore and Helen Broderick in a plot of domestic difficulties.

* * *

One of the best double bills to be found anyplace is at the State. "Thanks a Million" is a trifle old, but Dick Powell's singing and the music are too good to hold back. It's all about a politician, of course, with Dick finally getting into the race. "Valiant Is the Word for Carrie" vaulted Gladys George to fame in the adaptation of the famous story.

* * *

Continuing at the Rex theatre are "Handy Andy" and "When Thief Meets Thief." Former is a Will Rogers opus, typical Rogers plot and all. Latter, if not so freshening, is more complicated and interesting. Doug Fairbanks Jr. and Valerie Hobson head the cast as the two thieves. (Ali Babi and the other five quit the film in a huff.)

* * *

At the Playmore for one day is "Big Business." Jed Prouty is prominently featured in this story of the Jones family, with its many amusing situations of family life. Recommended for those who like a little comedy of the homelier variety.
