Wedding Held at Andreason Home

The marriage of Miss Lorene Humphrey to Cecil Atkins was solemnized Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Andreason, 1944 Lincoln street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Clark of near Corvallis, about thirty relatives and friends attending.

For the wedding music, Miss Maxine Humphrey sang "O Promise Me," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "Rain in September."

The couple stood beneath an arch formed by four large baskets of pink gladioli and an overhanging bower of pink and white asters with white bells suspended from the bower.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of black velvet and for her flowers carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas.

Miss Viola Atkins, sister of Mr. Atkins, attended the bride. She wore a dress of black taffeta and for her flowers carried a spray of pink and yellow roses.

Dale Atkins was best man and Louise Andreason, flower girl. A wedding breakfast was served following the ceremony.

The couple is to live in Eugene. Both came about two years ago from South Dakota.
