

City News Notes :-

Exhibit Show Good—
The Pacific International Livestock exposition in Portland is up to standard in most respects, according to O. S. Fletcher, county agricultural agent, who returned to Eugene Wednesday night from there. He said that showing of dairy cattle, beef cattle, hogs and draft horses is not up to normal because season has been backward and show began earlier than usual. The horse show at night is the county agent said. Ben and Sons of Creswell have a showing of their Holstein cattle at the exposition.

Sunflowers Shown—
Two huge sunflowers are on exhibition at the office of the Oregon flax association on Eighth street west. One was sent in by Maddaugh of Veneta. The other was 21½ feet tall and Maddaugh declares it was cut down by a double-bitted axe. The other was sent in from Eugene R. D. 3. The flower is 21 inches diameter and 50 inches in circumference.

Crusher Closes Down—
The county rock crusher that has been in operation at Mapleton some time past will be closed down immediately for the winter, according to Cal M. Young, county commissioner. The rock produced the plant has been used on the Yalle creek, Maple creek and West creek roads.

Is Saturday—
The rummage sale being sponsored by the Condon P-T. A., will be held Saturday at 24 Sixth avenue west, instead of 628 Willamette street, as previously announced. Proceeds of the sale will go toward the hot lunch project, which started at the school on Monday.

Well Sets Meeting—
The Lowell grange is to have its "oyster night" program Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the high school gymnasium. State Senator C. Wheeler is to be the speaker for the program. Ira Hyland to give the address of welcome.

Crusher To Be Moved—
