

STANARD TO HEAD HUNT CLUB

new president of the Eugene Hunt club. Elaine Goodell is vice president, Margaret Thompson, secretary, and S. H. Seashore, treasurer. Elections were held at the club's meeting Thursday evening, the first of the fall season. In addition to the four officers, five members of the group were elected to act with them as the board of directors, as follows: Dean Wayne L. Morse, Mrs. J. E. Hayward, Raymond Rushlight, Dr. J. M. Bradley, William A. McLean.

Dr. Stanard appointed the following standing committee heads: Public relations, Paul R. Washke; social activities, Mrs. John B. Bell; programs, (temporary), Dr. J. M. Bradley; publicity, Margaret Thompson.

Retiring officers were: Paul R. Washke, president; Mrs. J. M. Bradley, vice president; Raymond Rushlight, secretary; Mrs. Gilson A. Ross, treasurer.

Members are particularly requested to attend the next meeting, Thursday evening, Oct. 14, or send a written vote of preference if unable to attend, as the question of changing the meeting night is to be decided, with many preferring Wednesday meetings in the future.

Despite the counter-attraction of the Pacific International livestock exposition in Portland, which claimed a number of members, a record crowd of 25 riders enjoyed the new enlarged riding building.

TREASURY TO AVOID
INCREASE IN DEBT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The treasury has disclosed it will draw down its billion-dollar working balance to pay government expenses during October and November rather than boost the public debt by additional borrowing. Secretary Morgenthau has said in the past the cash balance was being held at the billion-dollar level because of unsettled conditions abroad.
