

"KING OF JAZZ" TO PLAY HERE FRIDAY

The tantalizing rhythms of the "king of jazz," alias the "dean of modern American dance music," alias Paul Whiteman, will provide entertainment for homecoming crowds on the University of Oregon campus Friday.

The maestro will direct his 30-piece orchestra in an hour concert in McArthur court, beginning at 8:30. At 10 o'clock and continuing until 1 a. m. he will play in the court for the university's gala homecoming dance.

An abundance of featured artists will be heard with the orchestra. Whiteman's hobby of discovering new talent keeps his troupe liberally sprinkled with coming stars.

With him on his tour through Eugene he brings Jimmy Brerly, handsome tenor; Marian Manners, southern soprano; Al Gallodoro, ace saxophonist; Roy Barty, outstanding pianist; the "Swing Wing" of Teagarden, La Vere and Teagarden, and Mike Pingatore, banjo marvel.

Seats for the hour's concert preceding the dance are priced at 75 cents and 35 cents for high school students. Tickets for the dance are $2 per couple. Reservations may be made with the educational activities office on the University of Oregon campus.

THURSDAY BILLS
McDONALD: "Life Begins in College" and "Bulldog Drummond Comes Back."
HEILIG: "Saturday's Heroes" and "Two Fisted Sheriff."

At the Heilig theatre Thursday starts one of the better football pictures of the year—"Saturday's Heroes." Taken from a story by Francis Wallace about football and big business, the picture retains all the excitement of the book. Also at the Heilig is "Two Fisted Sheriff."

"Life Begins in College" is the title of the film starring the Ritz brothers and now playing at the McDonald. It's a laugh riot, with the looney lads even trying to play football in coonskin coats. Also on the bill is "Bulldog Drummond Comes Back," starring John Barrymore.

"Silent Barriers" is the title of the State's main feature to run through Saturday. Also on the double program is "Hopalong Cassidy Returns," with Bill Boyd once more the terror of western outlaws.

The Mayflower theatre's Thursday attraction is "Turn Off the Moon" and stars Charlie Ruggles, Eleanor Whitney and Johnny Downs. It's a gay and clever comedy romance, with Ruggles as good as ever in a different sort of part.

PLAN LUNCHEON The Women of the Friendly Bible class of the First Methodist Episcopal church will have a one o'clock potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Lucy Eminger, 1944 Lincoln street on Friday afternoon. The afternoon will be spent in tying comforts.

60 Auxiliary Members At Meeting

About sixty members of the American Legion auxiliary attended the Willamette district council meeting in the Moose hall in Eugene Wednesday evening. A number of guests were in attendance, and among auxiliary officials were Mrs. E. P. Dorris, Mrs. S. S. George, Mrs. Della Borin of Eugene, past department president; Mrs. Lewis of Reedsport, department legislative chairman; Mrs. Frazier, department chaplain, Mrs. Mable McTurff of Marshfield, department secretary; Mrs. Myrtle Raven of Corvallis, district president; and Mrs. Hattie Connell of Albany, department junior activities chairman.

Installation of council officers was held, with Mrs. Ada Cox of Florence, president; Mrs. Elmer Geiger of Eugene, vice-president, and Mrs. Zoe Heath of Newport, secretary-treasurer.

At the close of the meeting, the group joined with the American Legion for refreshments. The next meeting is to be November 17.

Star Club

A covered dish luncheon will be held Friday afternoon at one-fifteen o'clock in the McKenzie River temple by the Blue River Star club, Order of Eastern Star. Guest day will be observed, and cards will be in play during the afternoon. All Eastern Star members are invited. The committee for arrangements is Mrs. Ben Brown, chairman, Mrs. C. M. Marshall, Mrs. Calvin Bryan, Mrs. R. L. Robertson, Mrs. R. W. Rundlett and Mrs. C. R. Clark.

Sewing Club

At the meeting of the American Legion auxiliary sewing circle Wednesday afternoon, held at the home of Mrs. C. S. Dillon, fifteen members were present and three visitors. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Elmer Geiger, on November 17.

District Aid Meet Interests Many

COBURG, Oct. 21.—(Special)—Ninety-two members and guests of the sub-district No. 4 Ladies Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church were present for the covered dish luncheon at Wendling Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred E. Chambers, Eugene, president, presided. Devotions were conducted by Rev. Earl Cotton of the Wendling church. Minutes of the last meeting were read and standing committees reported. Ten districts reported on work for the past year, and plans for future year, roll call followed. Special songs were sung by Mrs. W. J. Landess, a reading was given by Mrs. D. R. Fullerton, Springfield.

Luncheon Held After the nominating and resolution committees were selected the group adjourned for luncheon. The afternoon session opened by singing. Dr. B. Earle Parker of the Eugene church brought a message, "Faith by Love." A reading was given by Mrs. Hester Reed, Cottage Grove, and a song by Mrs. J. I. Kent, Creswell.

Mrs. Coffey of Eugene gave three readings. Special song was given by the Wendling group. Dr. Louis Magin gave an address on the woman's place in church.

Election Held The nominating committee reported and Mrs. Fred E. Chambers was unanimously re-elected president for two years, and Mrs. Ganz of Springfield was re-elected treasurer.

The courtesy committee expressed appreciation for entertainment. Oakridge invited the Aid to meet with them next year. An offering was taken and presented to the Wendling church.

Many Represented Aids represented at the rally were Coburg, Cottage Grove, Creswell, Junction City, Marcola, Wendling, Oakridge, Riverview, Springfield, Westfir. Dr. Magin dismissed the group with singing.

Auxiliary Event

The Typographical Union auxiliary held its monthly meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. S. Russell. Those attending the meeting were Mrs. A. F. Bremer, Mrs. Gilbert Barber, Mrs. Harry C. Farley, Mrs. Robert C. Hall, Miss Cora Kreamer, Mrs. Oliver Spies, Mrs. Stuart A. McDonald, Mrs. Ralph C. Thomson, Mrs. Charles M. Rolens, Mrs. H. S. Russell. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Spies on November 9.

Dinner Arranged

The Women's Alliance of the Community Liberal church is in charge of arrangements for a Friday evening dinner scheduled at the church. The program for the evening is being arranged by Dr. Ralph C. Crow, and the dinner committee includes Mrs. Belle Lydick and Mrs. H. L. Woodhouse. Mrs. E. F. Judkins and Mrs. Herbert Higginbotham are on the decorations committee.

FREE FISH FRISH

BEND, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Scores of men, women and children scooped fish from irrigation canals today in response to an appeal from state and game officials for central Oregon residents to aid in salvaging the fish facing death in dry pools.

Although a night driver meets fewer cars, it's four times more likely that an accident, if he has one, will be a bad one.
