

LEGION COUNCIL ELECTS OFFICERS

The American Legion elected officers of its Willamette council Wednesday night when 115 members of the legion and legion auxiliary met in Moose hall. Initiation ceremonies and a "big feed" were included on the evening's program.

Officers elected were Frank Southard, Lebanon, council commander; Neil Sleeper, Eugene, vice-commander; Carl Schloeman, Corvallis, treasurer; C. V. Heath, Newport, sergeant-at-arms; Ralph Hargett, Lebanon, district chaplain.

The session decided to hold the district conference, annual political meeting, at Lebanon next year, probably about the time of the big strawberry festival there.

At the meeting were representatives of Eugene, Corvallis, Cottage Grove, Oakridge, Monroe, Florence, Newport, Toledo, Albany, Junction City, and Lebanon posts, all of which are in Lane, Benton and Linn counties.

The Legion auxiliary officers named are Mrs. Ada Cox, Florence, president; Mrs. Jewell Geiger, Eugene, vice-president; and Mrs. Zoe Heath, Newport, secretary-treasurer.

Informal initiation ceremonies were staged following the elections, with refreshments being served at the close of the meeting.

GALLI-CURCI WILL SING HERE SUNDAY

Audiences in all parts of the globe are in agreement in praising the "new Galli-Curci," who will be heard in Eugene next Sunday afternoon. From Australia, South Africa, New Zealand, Japan and the Philippines, as well as from Europe and America come accounts of ovations tendered the operatic soprano during her concert tour.

Critics hail the diva as a "new Galli-Curci," pointing out that while she retains the vivacity and superb technique that delighted audiences in the past, she now has a lovely lyric quality to her voice.

Mme. Galli-Curci will sing here in McArthur court in the second concert of the series presented by the associated students of the University of Oregon. She will begin her program at 3:15 p. m.

Reservations for the event may be made at McArthur court, on the campus. Seats are priced at 50 cents, $1 and $1.25.
