MRS. ROBERT P. BOOTH

MRS. EMMA DRAIN

AMONG committee workers busy with arrangements for the annual bazaar of the Welfare League, December 4, are Mrs. Robert P. Booth (above) and Mrs. Emma Drain (below). The bazaar is to be held at the Osburn hotel followed by a benefit dance in the evening. (Kennell-Ellis photos—Wiltshire engravings)

Additional Plans Announced For Welfare League Bazaar To Be Held Dec. 4

OF first importance among early December benefits will be the annual bazaar of the Welfare League, December 4, additional plans for which are announced this week-end. The bazaar is to be at the Osburn hotel and will open at eleven o'clock in the morning and continue through the day. The benefit dance planned in connection with the bazaar will be held at the hotel at nine o'clock in the evening.

Booths Announced

Five booths have been arranged for this year's bazaar, including the sewing, doll and toy, candy, white elephant, and cooked food booths, members of the League proposing in committees to take charge of each event.

Holiday Interests

Much of the coming week's entertainment centers around Thanksgiving day, Thursday. Many groups have postponed their meetings and programs until after the holiday. Eugeneans will be hosts for many dinner gatherings for relatives or friends, Thursday, while a large group, too, will be away for the holiday with relatives elsewhere.

Judge and Mrs. G. F. Skipworth will be in Portland for the holiday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cleland Wallinger.

Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Burnett are to entertain for a family dinner at their home, guests to include Dr. and Mrs. Foster Burnett and the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Firebaugh of Portland, Miss Patricia Murray of Olympia, niece of Mrs. R. T. Burnett, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dahlberg.

Portland Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Smith will have as their Thanksgiving dinner guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bain of Portland, and Henry A. Tromp.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester L. Stevenson will have as holiday dinner guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gail D. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Holden and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Griggs of Cottage Grove, and Miss Barbara Holden.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Chambers will entertain at a family dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Chambers, the Charles Chambers family, Mrs. Elizabeth Kerns, and Miss Maude Kerns.

Mr. and Mrs. David M. Graham and family will be in Salem for Thanksgiving day and the weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Spears.

From Canby

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davis are to entertain at dinner for Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Browne, and Mrs. Davis' niece, Miss Vivian Mae Leffingwell, all of Canby.

Holiday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. King will include a family group, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. King, Roy Loomis, Miss Eilla Loomis, and Mrs. Jessie Loomis Glick of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Turnbull will have as Thanksgiving dinner guests a group of visitors to be here to attend the conference of journalism professors.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hulten likewise will entertain at dinner for some of the visiting journalism professors.

Holiday dinner guests of Mrs. O. S. Bundy will be Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stacks and Mrs. Stacks' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Davenport, visitors from Sacramento, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hollingsworth.

Silver Anniversary Is Honored

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Perry A. Thompson on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, the staff of the Willamette forest office gave a surprise dinner party Saturday evening at the Anchorage. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson's anniversary will be next Tuesday. Smith L. Taylor presided as toastmaster and presented Mr. and Mrs. Thompson with a silver tea service from the group. Dancing and bridge followed the dinner, about seventy from Eugene and out-of-town enjoying the evening.

Social Notes

AMONG parties planned for this week will be a buffet supper for twenty-four for which Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nebergall and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clubb are to entertain next Sunday evening at the home of the former.
