

ZONTA CLUB PLANNING BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR FIRST ANNIVERSARY, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3

Dinner and Program Planned at Hotel In Evening

The Eugene Zonta club is to celebrate its first birthday anniversary, Friday, December 3, with a dinner meeting and program that evening at the Osburn hotel.

Plans for the event were made at the regular luncheon meeting of the group, Friday noon.

The dinner is to be a guest affair, each member to ask a guest. The committee for the event will be announced later.

Miss Sorensen Wed On Thursday

On Thursday evening, November 18, a wedding ceremony took place at the Danebo Lutheran church, when Miss Anna Sorensen was married to Nicholas Bertelsen, son of Samuel J. Hansen officiating.

The bridal couple entered the church as the wedding march from Lohengrin was played and gave their vows before the altar, which was beautifully decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums and lighted candles.

Mrs. Herman Hansen played softly during the ceremony, and also played the wedding march.

The bride wore a gown of silver-brocaded satin and her flowers were a corsage of gardenias. She also wore a coronet of gardenias. There were no attendants.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Marie H. Sorensen, for members of the immediate families and a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Bertelsen will make their home west of Eugene on the Crow Stage route.

Party Given Friday For Visitor

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Grindell entertained Friday evening to honor Mrs. Daisy Nelson, who has been visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Colonel and Mrs. J. H. Tierney.

Guests included Mrs. Nelson, Colonel and Mrs. Tierney, Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sellick, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sander, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Scobert, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O. Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Hosts Saturday

For the Harvard-Yale game, Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Wright entertained at their home on Birch lane to receive the radio reports on the picturesque battle which gave Harvard its first victory in several years. Guests were Dr. and Mrs. Orville Waller, whose son, Frederick, is now a student at Harvard, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tugman and Dean and Mrs. Wayne L. Morse.

P.-T. A. Benefit Is Event of Week

The Lincoln P.-T. A. benefit card club held its second meeting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Johnson. Nine tables of bridge were in play and two of pinocle. High honors at cards went to E. G. Boehnke, low to Mrs. William Gay, at bridge; and to C. Hastings and Mrs. L. Reed at pinocle. Hostesses at the party were Mrs. H. V. Johnson, Mrs. W. M. Ransom, Mrs. Stanley Jarvis, and Mrs. J. E. Bradley. The entire proceeds will go to the school's hot lunch project. The time and place for the next benefit will be announced later.

Mrs. J. C. Halsey to Entertain Study Club

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—The study club of the Springfield Parent-Teachers association will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. C. Halsey, 945 E. street.

Because Thanksgiving comes on the regular meeting day, the third Thursday in the month, Wednesday was decided upon. Dr. Milton T. Walker, Springfield physician, will speak on "Social Diseases." Mrs. Jim MacManiman, county study club chairman, will lead a discussion on "Understanding Our Children." A nursery will be provided.

TO LEAD SINGING

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—Charles Devereaux, director of the young people's choir, will lead in the hymn singing at the evening services Sunday at the Springfield Methodist Episcopal church. Special music will be furnished by the Phi Beta trio consisting of Charlotte Cherry, cello, Audrey Asson, violin, and Dorothy Davis, piano.

SPECIAL PERMANENT $1.50
Others $2.00 and up

Shampoo and Fingerwave... 50c

La Verne WAVE SHOP
772 Willamette

MRS. WILLIAM N. WILDER

THE marriage of Mrs. William N. Wilder (Seclora Bond), above, was solemnized on November 11. (Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving).

S. S. CLASSES ARE GUESTS THIS WEEK

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—The Ergathea class and Women's Bible class of the Springfield Baptist church were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eugene McElhaney. Thirty-five attended.

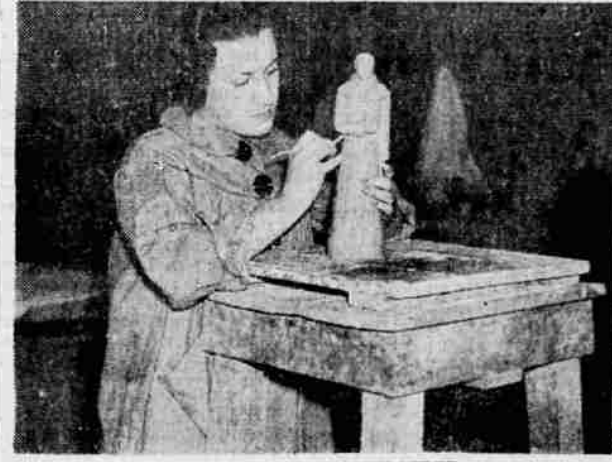

Following a one o'clock luncheon, there was a business and social meeting and group singing, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. John Radmore. Each member responded to the roll call with an item pertaining to Thanksgiving.

Speakers were Mrs. Roy Palmer, Ergathea teacher, Mrs. R. L. Drury, Mrs. Ida Wooley, and Mrs. F. B. Whitney, who talked about trips from which they all have recently returned. Rev. and Mrs. J. D. McCormick were guests of honor.

The group decided to send a "cheer" basket to Mrs. Viola Staun, class mother. Several shut-ins were cited to whom cards and flowers will be sent. The next meeting of the group will be a Christmas party and gift exchange to be held December 15 at the home of Mrs. E. G. Privat. Mrs. Ida Holverson, assistant hostess.

MASONS TO MEET

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—Liberty lodge, No. 171, A. F. and A. M., will hold a regular meeting Tuesday night at 7:30 in

MISS CATHERINE SCHROEDER

MISS CATHERINE SCHROEDER, freshman art student at the University of Oregon, pictured with one of her sculptures. She hails from San Francisco, was in charge of one division of "mum" sales, made posters and pictures for the campus "iron lung" drive, and headed the ticket sale committee for the Paul Whiteman dance. She is a pledge to Alpha Omicron Pi, is 19 years old, and incidentally this is her first trip to Oregon. Her father is R. F. Schroeder of San Francisco. (Register-Guard photos—Wiltshire engraving)

Good eyesight is indeed something to be thankful for... and we should also be thankful for the help modern optical science affords those whose eyesight is below normal.

Dr. Ella C. Meade
OPTOMETRIST

Phone 330 14 West 8th

City Federation's Meeting Event Of Week

THE City Federation of Women's Organizations held its meeting Friday afternoon at the Osburn hotel. Mrs. A. E. Edblom reported on the recent district conference held in Albany.

The federation voted to postpone its benefit until after the first of the year.

The next meeting will be December 17 as a tea and musical program at the Osburn hotel at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, hostesses to be the four officers, Mrs. Duane Himber, Mrs. John Casteel, Mrs. Marvin T. Warlick, and Mrs. E. F. Judkins.

Mrs. Ballah of Norfolk, Nebraska, visited the Friday meeting and reported on the work of the Nebraska state club federation.

Miss Schrader and Mr. Tracey to Wed

The engagement of Miss Abby Schrader, daughter of Mrs. Etta Schrader, to Daniel Tracey, Washington, was announced Thursday evening at a party for which Mrs. Jim Wilkinson and Miss Dorothy Wilkinson entertained at their home.

Miss Schrader is a graduate of Eugene high school and attended the Behnke-Walker Business college of Portland.

The wedding was announced to be sometime in the near future.

The guest list for Thursday included Miss Schrader, Mrs. Etta Clara Nasholm, Miss Dorothy Wilkinson, Miss Adeline Hargreaves, Miss Gwendolyn Mickelson, Miss Melus Hill, Miss Grace Lundstrom, Miss Gertrude Foreman, Miss Marie Gage, Miss Doyle Mabrey, Miss Doris Zham, Miss Lila McMillan, Mrs. R. J. Copping, Mrs. Dewey McAlpin, Mrs. E. Field, Mrs. Gladys Moddy, Mrs. Elsie Elmore, Mrs. Joe Steinmetz, Mrs. Lorene Buley, Mrs. Jim Wilkinson.

Missionary Group to Take Over Services

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—The Needlecraft club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Montie Sein. Mrs. Elvin May was assisting hostess.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Lawrence May, Mrs. Maude T. Bryan, Mrs. H. L. Lauderdale and Mrs. Jack Henderer. During the business session, Mrs. Paul Potter was elected secretary-treasurer to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. Harold Santee. In a game played during the social following the business, Mrs. Laurence Moffitt won a prize.

The next meeting of the club will be held December 2 at the home of Mrs. W. H. Pollard.

TO CONDUCT SERVICES

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—A special delegation consisting of five students and one faculty member from Linfield college will conduct evening services at the Springfield Baptist church Sunday. On the program are numbers by a violin duet, a girls' trio and three speakers.

DISCUSSING "THANKSGIVING"

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—"Thanksgiving" is the topic to be discussed at weekly church night at the Springfield Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. A meeting of the official Brotherhood will follow.

N. O. W. TO MEET

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge will hold a "Homecoming" meeting Wednesday night in the I. O. O. F. hall. The meeting will begin with a potluck dinner at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Glenn Stone is chairman of the entertainment committee.

EYE IS HURT

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—Mrs. Franklin Warley received medical attention at the office of a local physician Friday afternoon for the removal of a piece of steel from an eye.

REBEKAHS TO MEET

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—The Juanita Rebekah lodge will meet for a regular business session to be followed by a program Monday night at 8 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. hall. The F-L club is in charge of entertaining.

Mole and Gopher Trapping Planned

Methods of trapping moles and poisoning and trapping gophers will be demonstrated on the Harry Robertson farm in the vicinity of Blachly on Tuesday, November 24, beginning at 2 p. m. It was announced Saturday by O. S. Fletcher, county agricultural agent. Mr. Fletcher will be assisted by Arthur Crews, district agent of the United States biological survey. The demonstration is being sponsored by the Blachly grange.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE M. DILLARD

Springfield IOOF Has Election of Officers

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—Springfield Odd Fellows lodge met this week and elected officers for the coming term. Election results follow:

Noble grand, Harold Poole; vice grand, Everett Strunk; secretary, Oswald Olson; treasurer, Raleigh Morris; trustee, Duane Crabtree; cemetery committee, Fred Hinson, three-year term, and Elmer Pyne, one-year term.

The officers will be installed at the first meeting in January. Charles Poole, past grand master of Eugene, was special guest. Other visitors were present from Oregon City, Kansas, and North Dakota.

Camp Cookery Club Postpones Social

LOWELL, Nov. 20.—(Special)—Because of conflicting dates, the pie social and free dance to be given by the Camp Cookery club will not be held this Saturday evening as planned but will be next Saturday night, November 27, at Downing hall.

Mrs. John Campbell invited Jerry Walker, manual training teacher, for a surprise dinner on her husband's birthday Thursday evening.

AT HORTON

HORTON, Nov. 20.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Willie Morris and children are spending the weekend at Leaburg with Mr. Morris' parents.

Mrs. Ida Benninger, who has been ill in a hospital in Eugene, is now at the home of her son Claud.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cox and family moved to a vacant house on the Congdon place and the house vacated by them has been bought and occupied by the Lloyd Herbert family.

AT DEERHORN

DEERHORN, Nov. 20.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Phelps, residents of Deerhorn during the past several months, collided with another car on their way to Portland this week. No one was injured seriously, but both cars were damaged.

School children and teachers are making plans for a two day holiday next week with Thursday and Friday off for Thanksgiving.

ON Saturday Mr. and Mrs. George M. Dillard celebrated their sixty-ninth wedding anniversary and were honored at a family dinner given at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Patterson. (Wiltshire engravings)

Amaranth to Honor Grand Officers At Meeting

WILLAMETTE Court No. 2, Order of Amaranth, will honor their grand officers at their regular lodge meeting Monday evening at eight o'clock in the Masonic temple.

To be honored are Mrs. Frank W. Scobert, grand conductor; Mrs. Edith Thornton, grand commissioner; A. P. McKinley, grand trustee; A. H. Houck, grand representative to New Jersey; William Klusman, supreme royal patron to West Virginia. Guests from Portland are expected.

A social hour and refreshments are planned. Mrs. Ed Liddell is to be in charge of arrangements.

Potluck Supper of Club Planned

A potluck supper for members of the Readers' club and their husbands will be held December 17 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ormiston, 1889 Alder.

The club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Roberts. Mrs. C. B. Dalton conducted the meeting. Mrs. Carl V. Newbill reviewed "The Rolling Years," by Agnes Turnbull. Mrs. Gertrude Skillern gave a sketch of the author.

W. C. T. U. TO MEET

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—The Springfield W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nettleton on Mill street.

Amaranth to Honor Grand Officers At Meeting

WILLAMETTE Court No. 2, Order of Amaranth, will honor their grand officers at their regular lodge meeting Monday evening at eight o'clock in the Masonic temple.

To be honored are Mrs. Frank W. Scobert, grand conductor; Mrs. Edith Thornton, grand commissioner; A. P. McKinley, grand trustee; A. H. Houck, grand representative to New Jersey; William Klusman, supreme royal patron to West Virginia. Guests from Portland are expected.

A social hour and refreshments are planned. Mrs. Ed Liddell is to be in charge of arrangements.

Potluck Supper of Club Planned

A potluck supper for members of the Readers' club and their husbands will be held December 17 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ormiston, 1889 Alder.

The club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Roberts. Mrs. C. B. Dalton conducted the meeting. Mrs. Carl V. Newbill reviewed "The Rolling Years," by Agnes Turnbull. Mrs. Gertrude Skillern gave a sketch of the author.

W. C. T. U. TO MEET

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20.—(Special)—The Springfield W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nettleton on Mill street.

Not A Gift For A Day-- But A Delight For Years

The ring pictured above is made of platinum, designed and made by the foremost craftsmen of today. The center stone is flawless, or rare beauty and color, weighing 85-100 carat. The setting is studded with two boguettes and 14 smaller diamonds.

Moderately Price at $395.00

★ MAY BE PURCHASED ON OUR EASY PAYMENT PLAN

SKIES Jewelry Store
EUGENE, ORE.

HADLEY Week

Continued Until Thanksgiving

The Best Values In Town... By Comparison

★★ Coats
★★ Dresses
★★ Suits

We could use lots of adjectives about this sale—but this tells the story... fine quality merchandise, drastically reduced to make marvelous early season values!

USE YOUR CREDIT

Shop around the Town—Then come in and compare our prices and our quality.

HADLEY'S
McDonald Theatre Bldg. 10th & Willamette

"I Wouldn't Give Up My Electric Range for Anything."

Electricity for Perfect Baking and Roasting

The modern electric ranges, as shown at your electric dealers, have an accurate, perfectly controlled oven heat. The exact temperature you need for any type of baking or roasting can be maintained automatically. An electric range is clean, fast, less tiring to use... and so economical in Eugene.

FREE THANKSGIVING BULLETIN

Anne Chaney, our home service expert, has prepared a bulletin giving all sorts of information on buying, preparing and cooking holiday meals. This bulletin is free. Just call at our office.

Eugene Water Board