LIONS CLUB TO LAUNCH 6TH TOY DRIVE ON MONDAY

The big barrels will be out on the city streets, bright and early Monday morning ready for Eugeneans' contributions, announces Will R. Robertson, chairman of the Lions club toy drive committee. The drive opening Monday is the sixth annual one conducted by the club to get Christmas toys for the needy children of Lane county.

On the committee with Mr. Robertson from the Lions club are Hugh P. Currin, Stanley Summers, George Bushman, and Joe Wise. In planning for the drive, Mr. Robertson made the following statement:

"As the Eugene Lions club launches its sixth annual drive for Christmas toys for the children of Lane county I wish to express for the Lions club sincere thanks to all who have cooperated so wonderfully in past years to make this work the success it has been. The barrels for collection of the toys will be placed on the streets Monday morning and it is hoped that the collecting work may be finished by the fifteenth of December so that the Eugene firemen, who condition the toys each year, will have time to make all needed repairs; also that the Welfare League, who attend to the wrapping of toys, have time for this work so that all will be in readiness by Christmas eve. Let us all get busy and make this drive the best one yet."

On the committee from the Welfare League to work with the Lions club are Mrs. Frank Riggs and Mrs. Emma Drain.

"Kitchen Trailer" Will Be Shown At Pomona Grange Meet

A model farm kitchen will be exhibited at the meeting of the Lane county Pomona grange at Junction City Saturday, November 27, it is announced by Miss Lois Lutz, county home demonstration agent.
