

SPORT PARADE

By HENRY McLEMORE
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Strange people these Chinese...

The big game, to this city and this state, was California versus Stanford...

Not all the persons who would be liked to be there at the kick-off time, because today's papers carried final lists of those who were injured in the spirited playing of last night and the night before.

Before I left for Palo Alto I went down there—to pick up a messy little Ming vase I wanted for my kitchenette...

But I could not think of such things in San Francisco Saturday. The game at Palo Alto was my business, and Chinatown and the Ming vase, which aroused my suspicions of its antiquity when...

Coach Replaces Numerical Signals With Dance Titles

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 20.—(AP)—Because some of his lads are not mathematically inclined, Coach E. A. "Hack" Applequist, of Sacramento Junior college football team, is using the more popular dance terms and slogans for his signals.

Duck Boxers In Debut Wednesday

The newly-formed University of Oregon boxing team makes its debut Wednesday night when the Webfoots meet a five-man team representing the Elks club. The matches will be held in the lodge gym under the direction of Wallace Rowland.

Harvard Defeats Yale 13-6 On Snowswept Field

CRIMSON CAPTURES FIRST 'BIG-THREE' TITLE SINCE 1915

By ALAN GOULD
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 20.—(AP)—Harvard shook off its inferiority complex on the gridiron today, turned loose a powerhouse attack for the first time in years, and broke the spell of Yale's superiority with a thrilling 13-6 victory on a snowswept field.

The Crimson's smartly drilled team countered Yale's tying rally in the third period with a smashing 80-yard drive that clinched the game in the last quarter, when repulsed the Yale's desperate aerial bid as the Elis sought to avert their first defeat of the 1937 season.

Frank Foley, Harvard signal caller, sprinted 10 yards around Yale's left end for the decisive score, after passing to Ray Daughters on a 19-yard play that produced the Crimson's first score in the second period.

A capacity crowd of 58,000 jammed Harvard's stadium for the first time in six years.

The Crimson, in ending Yale's three-year winning streak, captured the classic "Big Three" championship for the first time since 1915.

VERNON STRUCK, Harvard fullback, who Saturday led the Harvard to a 13-6 victory over Yale to win the "Ivy League" title for the first time since 1915.

Mad Dog Murdock Promises Beating to Otis Clingman

Otis Clingman, middleweight champion of the Pacific coast, is in for one of the next beatings of his long career next Thursday night at the armory, according to a statement made Saturday by one, Frankie "Mad Dog" Murdock, alias the Altamont Abattoir.

The two grapplers, incidentally, have signed to meet in the headline attraction of Promoter Herb Owen's annual Thanksgiving day feast.

"This fellow Clingman will be a push-over for me. How he ever got to be a champion is one of the seven wonders of the universe to me. I beat him the last time we met, but the referee didn't think so and gave the decision to the so-called ex-champion of the U. S. Navy. If that fat slob was ever in the navy there's something wrong with our government," Murdock said Saturday.

Murdock also requested Owen to split the main-event purse on a 60-40 basis. "Then it'll be worth working for. The belt isn't worth it because its value must be very little with a guy like Clingman wearing it. The fact is I'll be doing the commission a favor by becoming champion—the real champion," Murdock concluded in his statement.

The "Mad Dog" earned his second crack at the title last Thursday by winning a "Battle Royal"

Trap, Target Shoot At Dexter Sunday

The second of a series of trap and target shooting meets will be held at 10 a. m. Sunday by the Upper Willamette Rod and Gun club.

Gunners will compete for turkeys and merchandise awards. The clubs traps are located near Dexter, Ore.

Panthers Down Penn State 28 to 7

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Pitt's raring Panthers, playing their last home game, kept their undefeated record intact today by bowing over their long-time rival, Penn State, 28 to 7. The Nittany Lions smothered Pittsburgh's power in one period, the third, to get their only score.

HOLY CROSS TIED, 0-0

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 20.—(AP)—Carnegie Tech wound up its season today by playing undefeated Holy Cross to a scoreless tie, before 15,000 persons who sat through a snow storm. Holy Cross three times drove to within few yards of a score, while Carnegie twice attempted field goals.

ARMY WINS 47-6

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 20.—(AP)—Army defeated St. John's College here this afternoon, 47 to 6. Army confined all its scoring to the first half while St. John's scored in the second half as a result of two long passes by Buck to MacMillen. Army used second and third string players throughout the game.

DARTMOUTH WINS 27-0

BAKER FIELD, New York, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Dartmouth finished its season unbeaten and clinched the Ivy League football title today by crushing Columbia, 27 to 0. The Indians scored 21 points within a space of 5 1/2 minutes in the second and third periods.

SYRACUSE DEFEATED

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 20.—(AP)—Colgate outplayed and outfought Syracuse to win 7 to 0, over the Orange today, before 35,000 fans, in the midst of a heavy snowfall.

Huskies to Re-turf Washington Stadium

SEATTLE, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Plans were announced by University of Washington officials for the complete re-turfing of the Washington stadium gridiron at the end of the current season.

'B' Leagues Choose Basketball Referees

Ten basketball referees were chosen Saturday by the Lane County "B" high school principals' association to officiate in the first three series of league games on a trial basis, according to an announcement made by Virgil G. Kingsley, president.

SAYS AMBERS RAN OUT

CHICAGO—Mickey Farr, Chicago Stadium matchmaker, says that Lou Ambers repudiated an agreement to meet Davey Day, Dec. 10.

WASHINGTON BEATS OREGON 14-0 WITH DAZZLING OFFENSE

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

blocking and tackling departments. Graybeal Stars

The defensive play of Ted Gebhardt and Hank Nilsen for Oregon was outstanding, both men rivalling the inspiring work of Erickson, Washington's great roving center.

Little Jay Graybeal covered himself with mud and a large portion of glory before he was injured and taken from the game in the middle of the last period. It was Graybeal who sparked one of Oregon's two short drives into Husky territory.

Capt. Fritz Waskowitz was the outstanding Husky. He did everything well—run, kick and pass—and it was his fiery leadership which gave the Washington eleven its well-deserved victory.

How well-deserved it was is told in the statistic chart. Washington rolled up 9 first downs to Oregon's 5—four of which were made via the air route. The Huskies made 262 yards from scrimmage to Oregon's net 10. It was only in the air that the Ducks were superior. They completed 4 of 17 attempted for a total gain of 49 yards. Washington completed none all day.

MERLE MILLER

It was a "fits-and-spurts" brand of football game. For many minutes at a time the game would be just another game—with both elevens battling it out on a gridiron several inches deep in goo—and then something would happen to change the whole show. And it was the Huskies who were changing the sides of the gridiron picture.

The Webfoots, who battled futilely most of the game well inside their own territory, never did get started. A belated passing attack, with Sophomores Bob Smith, Steve Anderson and Jay Graybeal doing most of the work, took them to the Washington 33 just as the first half ended. It was the farthest down the field that the Webfoots were destined to get the entire afternoon.

Gebhardt Stops Miller The game started off with Anderson kicking off for Oregon. Waskowitz returned the ball 22 yards to the Huskies' 27. Then came the sensational and surprising run of Miller's. Taking the ball from Waskowitz on a reverse, he scampered past Oregon's right wing, paused momentarily, and then took off down the north sidelines behind beautiful interference. He stumbled once on the Oregon 40, but managed to keep his feet despite the soft going and plunged on to the Oregon five before Ted Gebhardt dragged him down with a vicious tackle.

The Huskies paused in their scoring surge to make two yard-less smashes at Bill Finkett and Joe Huston. Then Miller took another reverse from Waskowitz to crash over for the initial score. The kick was good, but a Washington offside cancelled the extra point.

Miller's run was made possible by blocking which experts classified in the same bracket with California. Oregon tacklers were mowed down with hard, clean blocks and the shifty right half did the rest.

The Husky's punted a 13-yard "fozler" out of bounds on the Ducks' 44, but Oregon couldn't do anything with the ball once they got it.

Throw Away Chance On the third down the Webfoots elected to punt, and it was on this

Irish Luck, Chuck Sweeney Gives Notre Dame 7-0 Win

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 20.—(AP)—Sweeney—Charles Aloysius Sweeney—told it to Northwestern today. The fighting Irish of Notre Dame conquered their Big Ten arch rival, Northwestern, 7 to 0, in freezing, windswept Dycie stadium, and it was Sweeney, hero of Notre Dame's triumph over Navy and Minnesota, who scored the single touchdown, result of a second quarter "break." It was Sweeney also who contributed defensive gems which helped keep the desperate Wildcats, playing their final game of the season, from scoring.

The bit of Irish good fortune which led to the only score of a bitterly fought battle that kept the greater part of a crowd of 45,000 seated until the finish, came when a Northwestern lineman was guilty of holding as Bernie Jefferson, negro halfback star, attempted to punt from deep in his own territory. The first kick went out of bounds on his 40 but the play was called back, and Northwestern penalized 15 yards to its seven.

Again Jefferson attempted to punt, but it was blocked and Sweeney snatched the ball and stepped over the goal line. Andy Pupils placekicked the point.

The Irish opened up with a passing attack late in the third period and after missing three in a row, McCarthy tossed to Arbut for 11 and 16 yards for a first down on the Wildcat 10. Four shots at the line failed to get the ball over, Northwestern taking it on downs on its own four yard mark as the period ended.

McCarthy took the ball to Northwestern's 14 in the fourth period, but four tries gained only seven yards. Heap passed to Swisher for a first down on the 17, but two more shots failed and he kicked.

Neat kicking by Stevenson kept Northwestern penned up in its own territory the rest of the game.

On the next play he slipped the ball to Krywicki, who tossed it out to Joe Wolkoski, running in the clear. It was an easy counter. The attempted placement was fumbled.

Graybeal were incomplete before Smith finally connected for another 18-yard gain. The Ducks were on the Huskies' 38.

There was time for one more pass before the halftime gun, but it fell incomplete.

Oregon got another chance after that, however, for a Husky was offside—but their fifth pass in the series was also incomplete.

Ducks Get Breaks The second half was a much more even ball game. Oregon was pepped up from their intermission "fireside" with the coaching staff and threatened to do things. Yerby recovered Waskowitz' fumble shortly after the third period opened, but Oregon couldn't do much with this break.

Another break came two minutes later when Waskowitz, following an exchange of punts which gave Oregon the ball on the Husky 43, intercepted Gebhardt's pass, intended for Graybeal on the Huskies' 20. He galloped 67 yards to Oregon 13-yard stripe with it before Gebhardt nailed him.

The run was nullified—a Washington lineman did a little defensive holding, and Oregon got five yards hadded to them as a gift.

Oregon found themselves back in their own territory a few minutes later as Cruver, Miller and Waskowitz again started the big Washington team rolling. They rattled off three first downs before Waskowitz had to kick from the Oregon 28, the ball rolling out of bounds on the Webfoot 10.

Smith picked up 10 on a man-in-motion play, with five more thrown in for good measure from a Washington offside penalty.

Three plays later, however, they were back on their 17—as the Huskies started to pour on power.

Huskies Score Again Reginato kicked out on the first play of the fourth quarter to Waskowitz, who was downed on the Huskies' 47-yard line.

The big purple-and-gold clad eleven then stepped into high, and in exactly eight plays were over for its second touchdown. Cruver and Waskowitz aided the cause with 21 and 20 yards dashes, respectively. Cruver's try for point was wide and the score was: Washington 14, Oregon 5.

That's the way the game ended ten minutes later, although the Webfoots were having more success against the Washington second team. A veritable barrage of passes, with Steve Anderson on the tossing end of the attempts, fell incomplete as the Ducks tried vainly for a score of some kind.

Lineups: Oregon (9) Pos (14) Wash. Yerby (9) LE Markov Huston LG Mattes Moore C Erickson Amato RG Silivinski Jensen RT Kindred Robertson RE Peters Bentley Q Newton Anderson LH Waskowitz Gebhardt RH Miller Emmons F Cruver

Scores by periods: Oregon 0 0 0 0—Q Washington 6 2 0 6—14 Washington scoring: touchdowns—Miller 2. Safety—Erickson (blocked punt).

FORDHAM TURNS ON HEAT TO EDGE OUT ST. MARY'S 6 TO 0

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Showing a wealth of offensive power in midfield by slight scoring punch, the Fordham Rams only partially pleased their Rose Bowl boosters today as they downed the scarlet-pantied St. Mary's, 6 to 0, at the Polo Grounds.

The way they tore up the sodden turf between the 20-yard lines the Rams might have scored six touchdowns instead of the lone marker that rewarded a 68-yard drive in the third period.

John Lock, a substitute fullback, was the lad who saved the bacon for the Rams. He went in at the start of the third quarter and began tearing yawning holes through the St. Mary's line. Without letting go of the leather he fought his way from his own 37 to St. Mary's 12.

On the next play he slipped the ball to Krywicki, who tossed it out to Joe Wolkoski, running in the clear. It was an easy counter. The attempted placement was fumbled.

Graybeal were incomplete before Smith finally connected for another 18-yard gain. The Ducks were on the Huskies' 38.

There was time for one more pass before the halftime gun, but it fell incomplete.

Oregon got another chance after that, however, for a Husky was offside—but their fifth pass in the series was also incomplete.

Ducks Get Breaks The second half was a much more even ball game. Oregon was pepped up from their intermission "fireside" with the coaching staff and threatened to do things. Yerby recovered Waskowitz' fumble shortly after the third period opened, but Oregon couldn't do much with this break.

Another break came two minutes later when Waskowitz, following an exchange of punts which gave Oregon the ball on the Husky 43, intercepted Gebhardt's pass, intended for Graybeal on the Huskies' 20. He galloped 67 yards to Oregon 13-yard stripe with it before Gebhardt nailed him.

The run was nullified—a Washington lineman did a little defensive holding, and Oregon got five yards hadded to them as a gift.

Oregon found themselves back in their own territory a few minutes later as Cruver, Miller and Waskowitz again started the big Washington team rolling. They rattled off three first downs before Waskowitz had to kick from the Oregon 28, the ball rolling out of bounds on the Webfoot 10.

Smith picked up 10 on a man-in-motion play, with five more thrown in for good measure from a Washington offside penalty.

Three plays later, however, they were back on their 17—as the Huskies started to pour on power.

Huskies Score Again Reginato kicked out on the first play of the fourth quarter to Waskowitz, who was downed on the Huskies' 47-yard line.

The big purple-and-gold clad eleven then stepped into high, and in exactly eight plays were over for its second touchdown. Cruver and Waskowitz aided the cause with 21 and 20 yards dashes, respectively. Cruver's try for point was wide and the score was: Washington 14, Oregon 5.

That's the way the game ended ten minutes later, although the Webfoots were having more success against the Washington second team. A veritable barrage of passes, with Steve Anderson on the tossing end of the attempts, fell incomplete as the Ducks tried vainly for a score of some kind.

Lineups: Oregon (9) Pos (14) Wash. Yerby (9) LE Markov Huston LG Mattes Moore C Erickson Amato RG Silivinski Jensen RT Kindred Robertson RE Peters Bentley Q Newton Anderson LH Waskowitz Gebhardt RH Miller Emmons F Cruver

Scores by periods: Oregon 0 0 0 0—Q Washington 6 2 0 6—14 Washington scoring: touchdowns—Miller 2. Safety—Erickson (blocked punt).

Willamette Whips Missionaries 20 to 6

WALLA WALLA, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Willamette university won its fourth consecutive Northwest conference football title today, beating Whitman college, 20-6. Its record for shutting out conference opponents was halted after 13 games when the Missionaries marched 44 yards in the third quarter to score.

Welsgerber, Bearcat fullback contributed 14 points with two touchdowns and two conversions. Beard scored the third touchdown in the final period on a 17-yard dash off tackle.

Morrill, fullback, drove through the Bearcat first line for the first touchdown. A Borleske team has scored since Whitman beat Willamette in 1931. Sharing offensive honors with Morrill was little Karl Schneidmiller, quarterback, who returned a Bearcat kickoff 71 yards in the third period, Beard, safety, catching him.

ROSENBLUM IN BUSINESS

LOS ANGELES.—Maxie Rosenbloom is using a $1000 advance from Promoter Jack Kearns for a return bout with Jimmy Adamek in Detroit to equip a Hollywood cocktail lounge.

WILDCAT IN RING, TOO

EVANSTON—John Goldak, Northwestern sophomore guard, won the St. Louis light-heavyweight Golden Gloves championship in 1935.

Lineups: Oregon (9) Pos (14) Wash. Yerby (9) LE Markov Huston LG Mattes Moore C Erickson Amato RG Silivinski Jensen RT Kindred Robertson RE Peters Bentley Q Newton Anderson LH Waskowitz Gebhardt RH Miller Emmons F Cruver

Scores by periods: Oregon 0 0 0 0—Q Washington 6 2 0 6—14 Washington scoring: touchdowns—Miller 2. Safety—Erickson (blocked punt).

Advertisement for Frank Rust Hudson and Terraplane Service, featuring woolens and clothing.