Chamber Music Concert and
VLT Guest Event Today;
A. A. U. W. Busy Tuesday

By MARIAN LOWRY

FOR variety of activity, few weeks bring as interesting a calendar as that filled out for the coming week. Of importance to a large group today are the season's first concert of the Eugene Chamber Music society at three-thirty o'clock this afternoon, and the guest night of the Very Little Theatre this evening with a "preview" of the organization's play, "The Fox Laughs," which is to be presented Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

The mid-week's larger affair will be the reception and program of the American Association of University Women, Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frederick M. Hunter. And for those active in club work there is something doing every afternoon and evening of this week, with considerable informal entertaining sandwiched in between.

Concert Interests

The concert of the Chamber Music group will be in the Gerling hall at the university, presenting the Portland Chamber Music trio in program. Immediately following the concert, there will be a tea, arranged by the society's board members, to honor the visiting musicians, other guests to include members of the board and their wives or husbands. Mrs. Howard Middleton is chairman for the tea and pouring will be Mrs. Rex Underwood and Mrs. Ivan Ware.

Guest Night Event

The Very Little Theatre's guest night will be at seven-thirty o'clock in the organization's playhouse at the fairgrounds, as a "dress occasion."

Reversing their usual procedure members will not serve coffee between acts, but will serve after the play is over. At that time, too, the stage and the back-stage set-up will be thrown open for the guests to view, and members of the cast and their director, Mrs. Michael Mikulak, will come out to greet the visitors.

Invited as guests are: Mayor and Mrs. Elisha Large, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Bergman, Judge and Mrs. G. F. Skipworth, Judge and Mrs. Fred Fisk, Mr. and Mrs. Cal M. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Kuehner, Mr. and Mrs. T. Q. Green, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Fischer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Archie Holeman and several guests from the River Road dramatic group; Mr. and Mrs. Truman A. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Russell, William Russell, Miss Florence Alden; and invitations have been sent to twenty-four individuals or firms who have made it possible for the Little Theatre to use the fairgrounds playhouse.

Mrs. E. R. Knollin is to have charge of the social hour following the play.

A. A. U. W. Reception

Special guests for the reception and program planned by the American Association of University Women Tuesday afternoon at the Hunter home will be Mrs. L. T. Merwin, Portland, regional director of the organization, and Mrs. Kate W. Jameson, Corvallis, state A. A. U. W. president.

Miss Elizabeth Barnes, head of the drama department at Oregon State college, is to present comments on the Broadway play, "Id Rather Be Right" as the program feature.

Mrs. Wallace Potter and Mrs. William M. Tugman are in charge of arrangements for the reception. Mrs. C. L. Schwering is program chairman.

In the receiving line for the reception will be Mrs. Violet B. Cressman, Mrs. Frederick M. Hunter, Mrs. L. T. Merwin, Mrs. Kate W. Jameson.

Pouring will be Mrs. Nelson F. Macduff and Mrs. Virgil D. Earl. Assisting Mrs. Tugman with the serving will be Mrs. Elisha Large, Mrs. Herman Kehrl, Mrs. Everett E. Harpham, Mrs. Edna Brockman.

Two Hostesses for Bridge Parties

Mrs. E. A. Stacks and Mrs. Elmer Little were hostesses for two dessert and bridge parties Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Stacks.

For the afternoon the two invited as guests: Mrs. S. A. Connor, Mrs. Harry S. Bartow, Mrs. F. G. Weinick, Mrs. H. S. Grindell, Mrs. R. L. Collins, Mrs. Henry Burch, Mrs. Claude B. Swango, Mrs. T. E. Furnish, Mrs. J. P. Christie, Mrs. E. C. Hall, Mrs. C. O. Elliott, Mrs. Kathryn Wilkins, Mrs. B. F. Brown, Mrs. C. B. Ruth, Mrs. R. E. Glass, Mrs. A. C. Schnellbacher, Mrs. Ella Stark, Mrs. W. S. Jost, Mrs. Max Ruff, Mrs. Charles Emery, Mrs. J. L. Hillingsworth, Mrs. Wayne Montandon, Mrs. O. S. Bundy.
