meeting, Osburn hotel.
 8 p. m.—Democratic meeting, Moose hall.

P-T. A. Meeting—
 The Bailey Hill P-T. A. is to meet Friday at 8 p. m. at the grade school building. The nominating committee will report, and music, games, and songs will make up the entertainment. Each family is asked to take candy or peanuts for refreshments. All of the community are invited.

Injured In Garden—
 Injuries sustained from a tractor accident at Monroe occurred to Fred Harr while working in a garden near the Monroe Brick and Tile Works instead of in the clay pit belonging to the tile works as was announced Monday. Harr is in the Sacred Heart hospital.

Grange Plans Event—
 The Four Oaks grange is to have a play festival night Saturday at the grange hall at 8 o'clock. The Goshen, Jasper and Four Oaks granges each will give a play. Between plays, popcorn, ice cream, candy, and punch will be sold. All of the community are invited to attend.

To Give Play—
 An Easter play, "Easter Garden," will be presented at the River Road school building next Sunday morning at the regular Bible school hour, 10 o'clock, by a group of young people from the Northwest Christian college. The public is invited.

Auto Is Prowled—
 Dr. James Flannigan, 739 High street, reported that sometime Tuesday his car was broken into and two motor robes stolen. Also missing, reports indicated, was a hypodermic syringe and needles.

Hens Stolen—
 M. B. Harris, Sixth and Polk, has reported the loss of two white Leghorn hens from his chicken house Monday night. The thief apparently unlocked the door, took the chickens, and locked the door again.

Equipment Makes Run—City fire engines answered an alarm from 892 East Twentieth avenue at 7:45 p. m. Tuesday. Fire in an oil stove had backed up into the fuel tank. There was no damage, however.

Meeting at Mosby Creek—
 The Mosby Creek home extension unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Faye Taylor Thursday at 10 a. m. Miss Lois Lutz, county home demonstration agent, will be present.

To Hold Services—
 St. Mary's Episcopal church will hold a three-hour service, from 12 o'clock to 3 p. m., on Good Friday.
 There will be addresses on the Seven Last Words.

Townsend Club to Meet—
 Townsend club No. 6 will meet at the home of Miss Gladys Ankeney, 212 Pearl, Friday at 7:30 p. m. Dr. W. H. Dale will speak.
 Refreshments will be served.

Study Club Meets—
 The Progressive Psychic Society will hold its regular meeting and study period on Thursday evening at 8 p. m. at 1195 Moss. The public is invited.

Picnic Planned—
 Students and alumni of the Eugene Business college are planning a trip to the coast this Friday, leaving the Miner building at 6 a.
 m. to spend the day on the beach.

Recover Stolen Car—
 H. E. Riggs, 1251 Lincoln, reported Tuesday that his car had been stolen sometime Sunday or Monday. Police recovered the car a few hours later, it was reported.

Drunk Sentenced—
 Martin Conway was arrested on drunkenness charges Tuesday and was sentenced to spend a few days in the county jail, police reports stated.

Tire, Wheel Stolen—
 Mrs. W. D. Wright, Florence apartments, reported to city police that a wheel and tire had been stolen from her car Tuesday.

Bike Stolen, Recovered—Harold Faunt, 713 East Thirteenth avenue, reported the theft of his bicycle Tuesday. It was later recovered.

New Bridge Going In—
 A county bridge crew is at work on a new bridge over the Long Tom at the north end of the Knight road four miles north of Noti.

W. C. Washburne Here—
