Silverton suffered its first loss of the 1938 State league season Sunday at Albany when Don McFadden, former Oregon hurler, held the league-leaders to eight hits and won a 10-5 decision.

In the meantime, Portland's Babes and Albany went into a two-way tie for second place, the Babes smashing the Eugene Drakes here in Eugene, 7 to 1.

Hills Creek's "Hardluck" Hillbillies dropped a 2-1 verdict to the Toledo Mud Hens on the coast diamond despite the four-hit pitching of Bob Wiltshire and the losers' 10 blows off Pillette. Bend was idle Sunday.

Manager Bill Greene's Drakes, weakened by the loss of Elmer Mallory, Bart Goldbar and Ronnie McIntyre, and strengthened by Pete Igoe and Jack Gordon, didn't have a prayer against the hustling bunch of youngsters from Portland Sunday afternoon on the fairgrounds diamond.

Fenter allowed the Drakes but eight hits—all singles—and struck out 11, while the Babes were landing on Igoe for 12 blows, including a pair of triples by Bauer and a pair of doubles by W. Levey.

Igoe got off to a bad start when an initial walk to Walcott figured into a run without a single hit, scoring on Cameron's long fly to centerfield. The Babes one run in each the second, third and fourth innings before the Drakes scored their lone tally in the sixth.

After Keating's single had scored Houck with the one Eugene run, the Portland team added another in the seventh and two in the eighth. Bauer and Levey each collected singles in addition to their extra-base blows to pace the hitters. Houck and Skeens, with two hits apiece, paced the Eugene attack.

It was a heartbreaker for the Hillbillies to lose at Toledo, but it was a lot tougher on Wiltshire who worked his best game in several years.

Both teams played errorless ball, but a bit of strategy that went the wrong way gave the Mud Hens their first victory of the season and cost the Hills Creek nine a chance for the first-half crown.

After the Hillbillies had scored the first run in the seventh—on consecutive singles by Howard Parks and Dick Wright, Wiltshire's sacrifice and Bun Kelsay's centerfield fly—the winners pushed across two in the eighth.

Pillette opened the inning with a free base and both men were safe on Sauer's fielder's choice. Martin sacrificed the runners to second and third and Mebesius was purposely walked, filling the bases. Then S. Hoover came through with a single that scored the tieing and winning runs.

The Hillbillies hammered Pillette at will, but none of the 11 hits went for extra bases. As one fan remarked, "if it hadn't been for the fine fielding of Sauer in center the Hills team would have scored 12 runs."

The invaders made a bid to tie the score in the ninth when "Cocky" Brewer pinch singled, but Baxter, running for Brewer, died on the bags.

Wagner, Sherman to Meet in Second Half Of Double Main Event

George Wagner and Pete Sherman will meet in the second part of a "double main-event" at the armory Thursday night, according to an announcement made Monday by Promoter Herb Owen.

The headline attraction will bring together George Becker, sensational newcomer, against Jack Lipscomb, returned king of meanies and former coast middleweight champion.

The grappler who makes the best showing, between Becker, Lipscomb and Sherman, will be given a championship match with Wagner next week, according to Owen.

The 30-minute preliminary will be announced later in the week.

Bing Crosby Wins Movie Golf Crown

HOLLYWOOD, June 13.—(AP)—Bing Crosby, whose drives go bo-bo-boom like his songs, is champion today of the first annual motion picture tournament.

He captured the title from 156 rivals yesterday with an 18-hole score of 72. Richard Arlen finished second with 73.

Springfield's rejuvenated Townies had a tougher time defeating Veneta than the 7-1 score indicates, but the victory kept the Millers within striking distance of the idle Drain nine in the Cascade league pennant race. Westfir also remained in the running Sunday by scoring a 3-2 upset victory over Red Mauney and the Lewis Lumber Co. team at Swimmers' Delight. Coburg blanked the Thurston Pansies, 10 to 0, in the other league game behind the four-hit flinging of Thunemann.

Ronnie McIntyre, who limited Veneta to five hits, virtually won his own game by pounding for the circuit with a mate aboard in the third. From then on the Springfield team coasted the victory despite the credible seven hit flinging of Kabler, heavy-hitting catcher-pitcher.

Veneta scored its lone run in the sixth when H. Holland was safe on McIntyre's error, advanced to third and scored on F. Holland's single.

Stauffer, Westfir third baseman, romped home with the winning run in the ninth inning when Wheeler, Lewis catcher, made an overthrow to third. And that was the story of a tight battle that saw Westfir nose out the favored Lewis Lumber team.

Red Mauney allowed the winners but five hits while his teammates were collecting eight off Gardner, two by Younger. Mauney struck out 15. Four Lewis errors proved costly.

Laurelwood Golf Team Beats Roseburg, 44-16

Laurelwood's golf team, defending Willamette Valley champions, scored its second victory of the season over Roseburg Country club here Sunday by a 44 to 16 score.

Bert Prescott, local veteran, and Bob Noyes, Roseburg ace, tied for medal honors, each with sub-par 71's for the par 72 course.

Eugene Third In State Shoot

BEND, June 13.—(AP)—Breaking 241 out of a possible 250 targets, Dr. C. G. Robertson, Salem, captured the all-around trapshooting championship of Oregon Sunday, edging out the veteran Frank Troeh, Portland, by three birds.

The all-around title was based on performances in the singles, handicap and doubles. Troeh won the title in the 16-yard division after a shootoff with A. G. Gower, La Grande, and O. G. Hilderbrand, Wasco. They ended the regular shooting tied at 198 each but Troeh ran out a 25-bird string, Gower getting 24 for second place.

In the handicap contest, D. C. Fish, Portland, won with 97 targets from the 22-yard line, with A. R. Parrott, Portland, second. H. Carlisle had the high gun but his Salt Lake City residence made him eligible for the award.

Cal Ray, Coos county, won the doubles with Dr. Robertson second.

In the 16-yard, 100-bird event, seven tied with perfect scores of 100. Among them were Troeh, F. G. Mauser, Seaside, and C. C. Follette, Cottage Grove, while Dr. Robertson, J. B. Troeh, Eugene, and W. Waln, Salem, each scored 99.

The junior championship went to Clair Miller, Corvallis, who shot 97 out of a possible 100.

In a business session following the championships, Dr. J. C. Vandervert was elected president of the Oregon State Trapshooting association and the 1939 shoot was awarded to Portland. Among directors chosen were C. J. Hiltibrand, Salem, S. G. Mendenhall, Grants Pass, Ray Glass, Eugene, and Angus McAllister, La Grande.

The Portland club captured the finals of the Oregonian telegraphic tournament with 487 out of a possible 500. Medford was second with 484 and Eugene third with 483.

Elwood Cooke Captures Eastern Tennis Title

NEW YORK, June 13.—(AP)—Portland's ace tennis player, Elwood Cooke, won another eastern title Sunday, his second of the year. He trounced Frank Bowden, former Columbia player, 6-0, 6-4, 8-4, in the final of the Brooklyn championship.

The Junction City Reds and Eugene Eagles remained far out in front of Big-Six league teams today, following victories Sunday. The Reds scored an easy victory over Creswell, 11 to 2, while the Eagles were walloping Alvadore by a surprising 17-7 count. Noti defeated Marcola, 11 to 9, in the other league game.

Junction City batters fattened their batting averages by collecting 15 hits off two Creswell pitchers while Uttinger held the Fireman, still seeking their first triumph of the season, to eight safeties. Hartman, with a homer and single, had a perfect day at bat. Beard and Borgaard collected three for five.

The Reds scored five in the first inning and then coasted to an easy victory.

Eagle batters also had a field day with 22 hits. At the same time a jittery Alvadore fielding team had nine errors chalked up against them. Peerson gave up only six hits for Eugene.

Schmitz and Holland of Noti and Compton of Marcola were hit freely, but home runs by Campbell and Hale gave Noti the batting edge needed as each team collected 15 safe hits.

Marcola threatened continually and a six-run blast in the fifth and two more in the sixth put the defending champions in the lead until three Noti runners scored in the eighth.

Leal Five Under Par In Laurelwood Victory

Don Leal captured the Laurelwood spring championship golf crown last week by defeating Roy Graham, 3 and 2. Both golfers shot sub-par, Leal a five-under-par 139. Graham was one under for the 36 holes with 143.

Other flight championships went to Lloyd Omlid, Ken Hirons and Martin Shedd.

Beavers Drop Two to Seals

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—(AP)—The Sacramento Solons went on winning ball games Sunday despite labor troubles. A home run by Joe Orengo, the handsome bell ringer, gave Sacramento the first game by a 3 to 2 score, but in the nightcap the glimmering Hollywood Stars suddenly sparkled, pounding out 12 hits, including a homer by Bill Norman, and won easily, 5 to 3.

The second-place San Francisco Seals gained a game on the Senators when they won a pair from the Portland Beavers, 7 to 2 and 2 to 1. Six runs scored in the eighth inning of the first game was plenty to give the Seals the game and in the second LeRoy Herrmann, the Hollywood castoff picked up by the Seals last week, won his first start in a Seals' uniform. He limited the Beavers to seven hits.

Seattle started the week in third place and wound up in seventh. They climaxed a very unpleasant week at Los Angeles by dropping a twin bill to the Angels, 5 to 4 and 1 to 0, to make it seven straight losses.

Sunday was a red letter day for Floyd Olds, veteran Oakland Acorn pitcher. He won his first game of the season when he limited the San Diego Padres to nine scattered hits. The score was 3 to 1. In the nightcap the Padres evened the count when Manuel Salvo, reigning strikeout king of the league, added five more victims to his total to bring it to 81, and win his eleventh game of the year, 6 to 2.

Atherton To Report At Collegiate Meet

SEATTLE, June 13. — (AP) — Former Federal Agent Edwin Atherton, who is conducting a survey of athletic conditions at Pacific Coast conference schools, revealed the report he will make to the conference officials during their two-day spring session, opening here today, will 'contain nothing sensational."

Atherton said his first trip around the conference was merely in the form of a preliminary survey, principally for the purpose of getting acquainted with coaches, athletes and school officials.

He will make his report to the conference survey committee and will then "get down to business" surveying financial aid to athletes and athletes' income during their college days.

Joe Gordon's Homer Gives Yanks 7-6 Victory Over Cleveland

(By The Associated Press)

Babe Ruth, the supreme authority on walloping the ball a mile, remarked the other day that some time the Yankees would all start hitting at once and then they'd just murder the opposition. The Cleveland Indians must be about ready to admit the Babe was right.

The tribe still holds the American league lead, but they wound up their eastern tour by dropping two straight to the Yanks and are only a game and a half ahead as they return home to face the eastern clubs again.

A sign of what may happen when the Yanks get going as a team was seen in their 7-6 victory over the Indians and Bob Feller Sunday before 43,702 customers. The Tribe got off to a four-run lead against Charley Ruffing in the second, but Rufus the Red nullified that himself by belting a homer in the same inning. Then he went on in a duel with Johnny Allen until Johnny was lifted for Feller as the Yanks threatened his one-run lead.

Going into the eighth, Bill Dickey drew a pass and Joe "Flash" Gordon, the rookie second-sacker who has been one of the "hitless" Yanks most of the season, smacked one into the stands for a game-winning home run.

The only western club in the American league to come out ahead was Detroit, which walloped Washington, 18-12, in a "freak" game to sweep the series and finish with a 7-6 record.

In the national league the New York Giants dropped to second place and then regained the lead by splitting a twin bill at St. Louis. The season's biggest crowd at Sportsman's park, 29,141, saw the Giants shil through to an 8-5 victory; then go down 4-1 as Bob Weiland pitched a six-hitter to beat Carl Hubbell.

BUSINESS GIRL—1938 MODEL—Office manager Olive Tucker keeps disarmingly calm despite nerve-nagging phones, buzzers, interviews. "If anyone needs healthy nerves, I do," Miss Tucker smiles, adding: "That's one reason why I smoke Camels regularly. They never get my nerves upset." Later—much later—Miss Tucker skips to the roof-top gym for a quick work-out. A shower—a rub—a Camel—and she's off again! Tired? Miss Tucker's answer: "Camels give my energy a refreshing 'lift.'"

WELKER COCHRAN, who has won many important championships at billiards, voices his choice among cigarettes: "Camels give me real smoking pleasure. Under the strain of a championship match, Camels never make me feel jittery or unsure. 'I'd walk a mile for a Camel!'"

JOE DI MAGGIO, idol of baseball fans, speaks for millions of smokers when he comments on his favorite cigarette: "I'm a steady smoker, and Camels don't irritate my throat. That shows Camels have real mildness all right. Watch the ball players pull out Camels!"

CIGARETTES MAY LOOK ALIKE—BUT WHAT AN APPEALING DIFFERENCE THERE IS IN CAMELS!

As a smoker, you'll be interested to read what Miss Tucker, successful young office manager, said to Miss MacGregor about the difference between Camels and other cigarettes (below).

"I'm very glad you've brought that question up, Helen. I've tried as many kinds of cigarettes as most people have, I guess, and I'm amazed at how different Camels are. Camels are extra-mild—they never bother my throat at all! And Camels taste so good and rich, yet they never leave me with that 'cigaretty' after-taste. Really, in so many ways, Camels agree with me."

OLD MAN BUSINESS licked for another day, Miss Tucker entertains dinner guests—thoughtfully! There are lots of Camel cigarettes around her living room. Miss Tucker observes: "Camels are the favorite with my guests and are delightful for topping off a meal. During and after dining, I smoke Camels 'for digestion's sake.' Camels set me right!"

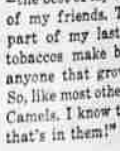
Camels are a matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic

ONE SMOKER TELLS ANOTHER "CAMELS AGREE WITH ME!"

"You bet Camel is our choice in cigarettes"

say these tobacco planters—and they know tobacco because they grow it!



"I know just what tobaccos the cigarette companies buy at the auctions," says Mr. John Durham, well-known planter. "One year after another, I've seen Camel buyers take the finest grades in the market—the best of my own crops and those of my friends. They took the best part of my last crop too. Better tobaccos make better smoking, so anyone that grows tobacco knows. So, like most other planters, I smoke Camels. I know the quality tobacco that's in them!"

"There's quite a difference between fine tobacco and ordinary grades," says Mr. Calvin Wiggins, who has sold tobacco to Camel for 20 years. "From my own experience, a Camel who buys the fine, mild leaves that make the nicest cigarette smoking. Camel bought the real fine baskets of my last crop. I smoke Camels, myself. Most of my ... friends do too. I know, and ... know, Camel uses costlier tobaccos."
