Sid Milligan Scores 75 in PNA Golf Mee

THE Sultan of Swat is back in baseball—as the Proffessor of Swat, base-running and other diamond didoes for the Brooklyn Dodgers. Once the highest priced player, he is now reported to be the highest priced coach, with a salary of $15,000. In the photo above, he is shown at right, being helped into his new Dodger uniform by Burleigh Grimes, Brooklyn manager, as he prepared to coach his first game, a double-header with the Chicago Cubs.

Don Moe Leads With Sub-Par 69

Texas Girl Paces Women With 75

PORTLAND, Ore., June 21.—(U.P.)—The Pacific Northwest Golf association men's tournament entered its second 18-hole qualifying round and women started their first round of match play today after opening rounds yesterday that established Donald K. Moe of Portland and Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., as the leaders.

Moe, a former Walker Cup player who has yet to win his first northwest crown, toured the Waverley Country Club course yesterday in a brilliant 69, three under par, to lead 120 entries. Miss Jameson shot a 75 at the Portland Golf club to tie the course record and lead the field by three strokes.

Other Eugene Golfers

Harry Givan of Seattle, seeking his third title in as many years, was second to Moe with a 70. Dr. O. F. Willing, Oregon state champion, carded an even par 72. At 73 was Dr. Cliff Baker of Portland, while Jack Westland, Seattle, and Malcolm MacNaughton, San Francisco, were tied at 74.

Bracketed at 75 were Charles Hunter, Tacoma; Sidney Milligan, Eugene, and George Will, Portland. Three scored 76's—Roy Wiggins, Ed Labbe, and Don Thompson, all of Portland. Eleven others finished under 80—Richard Werschkul, Eugene; Rudie Wilhelm, Portland; and Leland Clark, Medford, 77; Fred Lyman, Forrest Watson, and Sidney Allen, all of Seattle, 78; Bob Lee, Seattle; Clifton Smith, Eugene; Dale Belford, Portland, Alan Taylor, Victoria, B. C., and Harold Salvador, Portland, 79.

Marian McDougall Fifth

Patsey McKenna of Portland was closest to Miss Jameson with a 78, even women's par. Marian McDougall, Portland's defending champion, tied for fifth place with 85. Mrs. B. E. Eva, Oregon state champion, finished in 80 strokes for third medalist honors. Barbara Winn of Seattle was fourth at 83. Muriel Veatch of Portland, Mrs. Mary Mozel Wagner of La Grande, and Mrs. Mac Wilkins of Portland were bunched at 87.

Gordon Leads Yank Victory

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

In the normal course of events, Lou Fette of Boston would have had a victory Monday instead of watching the Bees go down to a 13-inning 3-1 defeat by Cincinnati.

The Reds were officially moved ahead of Chicago's Cubs when league president Ford Frick altered his original ruling on the protested game against St. Louis May 14. Instead of letting the game stand as a Cardinal victory until it is replayed in August, Frick decided to call it a tie game for record purposes and thus Cincinnati moved a few points ahead of Chicago in the percentages.

The Reds remained there when Ival Goodman's triple off Johnny Lanning, Fette's successor, broke up the game. The Cubs, meantime, were knocking off the Brooklyn Dodgers 5-1 behind Bill Lee's seven-hit flinging to keep pace. The only other game yesterday returned the New York Yankees to second in the American league.

The Yankees beat the St. Louis Browns 8-4 with a 13-hit attack featured by a five-run burst in the sixth in which Gehrig, Joe Gordon and Chandler contributed home runs.

Meanies Mad; Public Workout Scheduled

Jack Lipscomb and Sailor Morgan, two of the most hated meanies ever to appear here, were on the outs Tuesday. Lipscomb accepted a semi-final match here Thursday night at the armory against Pete Sherman after he had stated he would refuse to appear on the card if Moran was not awarded a title engagement against George Wagner.

Moran was offered the match with Sherman, but claimed he would take a vacation at one of Oregon's beaches if he wasn't given top billing.

In the meantime, George Becker, who meets Wagner for the coast belt in Thursday's headliner, was frantically trying to dry out to the 168-pound limit before Thursday at 2 p. m. The light-heavyweight champion of the Atlantic seaboard weighed in at 171 Tuesday morning. Wagner was reported to be three-quarters of a pound above the limit which will keep him in top shape for his title defense.

The champion and the challenger will appear in public workouts at the armory Wednesday afternoon. Wagner will go through his paces at 2 p. m. and Becker is scheduled to open his final training about 3 p. m. Local fans are invited to attend the showing.

Mrs. Bushman Upset In Tourney

Mrs. McCool Enters Finals With 4-3 Win

The medalist and defending championship jinx, with the aid of good stroking on the part of Mrs. Shelby McCool, finally caught up with Mrs. John Bushman.

The medalist and current titlist of the women's club championship at the Eugene Country club fell before Mrs. McCool's cool, deliberate game yesterday in one of the semi-final matches. Mrs. McCool defeated Mrs. Bushman, who had tied the course record with a par-shattering 78 in her qualifying round, by a 4-and-3 margin.

By virtue of her triumph Mrs. McCool will tangle with Mrs. Al Stien in the finals Wednesday. Mrs. Stien advanced into the championship match by taking a comparatively easy 6-and-4 decision over Mrs. David B. Evans.

CANADIAN PACIFIC EXPRESS TRAVELLERS CHEQUES GOOD THE WORLD OVER

HIGH CLIMBER

By DICK STRITE

The 8-to-5 and even better odds now prevailing that Joe Louis will still be king of the world heavyweights Thursday morning at breakfast time is apparently based almost solely on the fact that no dethroned heavyweight pugilist has ever regained the richest prize in the fight kingdom.

But there are plenty of things that point to a Max Schmeling victory—plenty besides the fact that Jim O'Connell, with probably the most enviable record as a losing wagerman in the state, picks Louis to win. The German tagged the negro youngster some two years ago with a 12th-round knockout to stop his sensational career. The so-called Brown Bomber has had two years to recover, two years to improve and two years to work out a defense and an attack for his inevitable return match with the man who won the title by a 2-1 vote of the New York commission way back in 1930.

* * *

As Harry Grayson, NEA sports editor points out, Schmeling may have the Indian sign on the Detroit champion in spite of his 32 years as compared to Louis' 24. There have been many great fighters who have been beaten before they entered the ring by men of lesser ability and records—it's the old Indian sign.

* * *

And, as Grayson tells, Jack Blackburn, Louis' scar-faced trainer was one of these men. Blackburn, who never weighed more than 140 pounds, beat Philadelphia Jack O'Brien and many more good heavyweights, but Joe Gans, then a lightweight, beat him in three different meetings.

The fact that most of the experts, not ex-fighters, but the scribes, pick Louis to win should be good enough indication that Schmeling should win. There hasn't been a favorite come home in so long that it's a wonder all the book makers aren't selling shoe strings and dark glasses outside the Yankee stadium Wednesday night.

That 20th Century Jacobs looks for the first Million Dollar gate since the Dempsey-Tunney brawls, in these recession days, indicates the tremendous interest in the fight. And it isn't all in Harlem, either, because it is rumored that the up-town New Yorkers are betting as heavily on Schmeling as they are on their hero. Maybe the negro is like the elephant.

But a clinching argument for a Schmeling victory is the statement made by Jack Dempsey in a by-line story in Sunday's Oregon Journal "This Week" magazine. The first 12 words of his yarn are: "Max Schmeling will knock out Joe Louis in a short, fast fight."

Gilmer Keasey of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. "Pop" Prouty of Portland will be three of the big "shots" to compete on the University range . . . Walt Achiu, popular Chinese grappler, will return to Eugene late in July . . . . "Sneeze" will return here as a world's champion, having annexed the official N.B.A. world junior light-heavyweight title in a recent tournament held in Dayton, Ohio . . . It looks like the Hills Creek Hillbillies have bolstered their infield lineup for the second-half State league fight with the addition of Jack Gordon. But with Harry Cloninger moving out to manager the Eugene Drakes, leaves the Lane county club without a first-rate catcher . . . . Grover Kelsay does a right smart job, but he isn't a catcher.

Eugene's big league softball, the American and National night circuits, played initial games under the new fairgrounds lights Monday night before some 500 first-nighters who sat in the dark for nearly an hour before defective lighting was repaired.

After the brilliant flood spots were turned on the fans watched four jittery teams play opening games in the two circuits with Rubenstein's, defending champions, taking the measure of a jittery Fenn's nine, twilight titlists, 11 to 0. Bonson's Sheet Metal Works defeated the Elks club, 14 to 5, in the nightcap. And the final game wasn't completed until after midnight.

Both games were well played in the early innings, but the long wait had a telling effect on the teams in closing innings of each contest.

Unfavorable breaks caused the Fenn team to fall apart in the final two innings when the Rubes scored nine of their runs. It was Fenn's first defeat of the season. Ed Wellnitz with three blows, including a homer, paced the winners' 12-hit attack off the previously invincible Verne Adams. Mansell collected two of Fenn's four hits off Bill Jones who struck out 16.

The Elks club sailed higher than a kite in the second inning of the finale, giving Bonson's eight runs on two hits in the second frame. Hill, Elks shortstop, and Carrol, Bonson's first baseman, led the hitting with two blows apiece.

Games will be played every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday nights under the fairgrounds lights for the next eight weeks.
