

CITY NEWS NOTES

WHAT'S DOING
Friday
12 noon—Weekly chamber of commerce public relations luncheon, Osburn hotel.

Reunion Held
The annual Gilpin reunion was held Sunday, July 17 at Silver Falls. About 45 were present. A business meeting was held which the following were present: Honorary president, Sammie B. Gilpin; president, W. F. B. Gilpin; vice president, S. S. Parson; secretary, Frances Meyers; treasurer, Mable Krahmer. The next meeting will be held on Sunday in June in the Washington park in Portland.

Not So Good
Fishing on the McKenzie river has not been so good as of late, according to I. L. Evans of Diego, Cal., who is staying at Stearns camp at the power dam. He said the water in the river is milky, due to melting of snow ice in the mountains. Mr. Evans is accompanied by Al Jordan and Gail Fechner, also of Diego.

Register
Thirty-five women have registered in Lane county for the Lane county homemakers' camp at Lake Clewax Aug. 2 to 7, according to Miss Lois Lutz, county demonstration agent. Miss Lutz will have charge of the Linn county camp at Long Bow near Cascadia July 21 to 25. There is also a large registration for this camp.

Returns
C. A. Horton has returned to Eugene from Silverton where he spent ten days auditing the books of the Valley Farmers' Co-operative association. He has been working on the audit of the Lane county school district books for several weeks past.

Vacation
Miss Irene Ritchie, executive secretary of the Lane county chapter of the Red Cross, has left for two weeks' vacation with her mother in Idaho.

Books
Representative of Gaylord

Bros. of Stockton, Cal. will give two book mending demonstrations at the university library on Thursday, July 21, one at 9:30 a. m. and the other at 2 p. m. These will be given in the staff room in the basement of the library. All interested are invited.

Home Ransacked
Walter P. Fell, 910 Washington, reports his home broken into Tuesday night, entrance having been gained by removing a screen from an open window. First checkup found nothing stolen.

On Trail of Tail Light
Police Thursday were on the lookout for a tail light with license attached stolen from a car belonging to George M. Neal, 2011 Alder street, Wednesday night. The stop light was also stolen, records show.

At Baptist Church
Dr. and Mrs. Walter Werelius, missionaries in Assam who are now on furlough, will speak at the midweek services at the First Baptist church Thursday evening at 7:30. Dr. Werelius and his wife, who is a nurse, are in charge of a hospital and leper colony in Assam.

Rev. John Berger Here
Rev. John Berger, who has Catholic missions at Wilsonville and Sherman, is here to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Berger. They have been on the McKenzie for a few days on an outing.

Goes Back to Coos Lake
Jess Darling, manager of Darling's resort on Siltcoos lake, left for that place Thursday after a trip to Portland. "I am mighty glad I am going back to the lake where it is always cool," he said. He reported temperatures over 100 in Salem and Portland Wednesday.

Thistle Order Made
The county court has made an order directing the thistle control officer to go upon the premises of Melba C. Boutin in section 12, township 17, south of range 2 west, and destroy thistles on the place.

Dr. Orcutt Here
Dr. A. N. Orcutt of Veneta was a Eugene visitor Thursday.

Fred Smigley in City
Fred Smigley of Crow transacted business at the courthouse in Eugene Thursday.

Plan For Picnic
The Eugene Society for the Hard of Hearing will hold a picnic supper at Skinner Butte park, Sunday.

The potluck supper will be served at 6 p. m. Members are asked to take their own table service. Members with cars are asked to get in touch with those without transportation. All members, their families, and friends are invited.

License Issued
A marriage license for Garrett D. Purkerson and Evelyn K. Stenler, both of Eugene, was issued Thursday in Seattle.

Club to Meet
Townsend club No. 11 is to meet Friday at 8 p. m. at the W. B. Worden home, 1174 Jackson street.
