

Miss Marjorie Wilhelm, John H. Deasy Will Be Married On Sept. 5

MRS. FULTON H. TRAVIS

Marriage of Mrs. Fulton H. Travis (Mildred Chapman), above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Chapman, was solemnized at a service held in the First Congregational church last Sunday afternoon.

Ceremony to Be Church One In Morning

By MARIAN LOWRY
SEPTEMBER also will be a period of weddings, several already being on the calendar for the fore part of the month. Announcement is made this week-end by Mr. and Mrs. George J. Wilhelm of the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Claire Wilhelm, to John H. Deasy of San Francisco. The ceremony will be solemnized the morning of Monday, September 5, at eleven o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic church. Rev. Francis L. Leipzig will say the nuptial mass and Rev. D. P. Curley will be in the sanctuary. Miss Wilhelm, who has been in Portland, will arrive here about the first of the month.

Oakland Visitors Honored At Affairs

Visitors in the city include Mrs. E. L. Winspear and her daughter, Mrs. Alice Youtsey, of Oakland, Cal. They are guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Hunter. Mrs. Winspear is an aunt of Mrs. Hunter. Honoring their guests, Dr. and Mrs. Hunter entertained a group at a buffet supper, Wednesday evening. On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. C. L. Schwering entertained informally at tea for Mrs. Winspear and Mrs. Youtsey. Miss Mabel A. Wood and Mrs. Nelson F. Macduff assisted.

Mr. & Mrs. Graham Hosts This Evening

Mr. and Mrs. David M. Graham are entertaining at their home this evening, inviting guests to meet Dr. Edward M. Hulme of Stanford university. Dr. Hulme has been teaching at the University of Oregon summer session and was the baccalaureate speaker at this year's commencement program.

Portlanders Honored At Dinner Parties

Honoring Colonel and Mrs. Cleonard McLaughlin of Portland, who are here for the week-end, Major and Mrs. Charles S. Petree entertained at dinner on Friday and Saturday evenings at their home. A group of ten was invited for each evening.

For Visitor

Honoring her guest, Mrs. E. H. Parker of Glendale, Cal., Mrs. Adeline Osburn entertained a group for dinner, Sunday evening, at the Osburn hotel. Guests included friends of Mrs. Parker, those attending being the honor guest, and Mrs. Alberta S. McMurry, Mrs. Adah Ampoker, Mrs. Rose Hollenbeck, Judge and Mrs. E. O. Potter, Mrs. Murray Warner, and Mrs. Osburn.

Tea Given By Two Friday Afternoon

About forty called for the tea given Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ralph G. Bailey, the affair being arranged by Mrs. Alfred L. Lomax, preceding her departure for Honolulu, and by Mrs. Bailey to introduce to interested mothers the new location of the Lomax nursery school at the Bailey home. Assisting at the tea were Mrs. Joseph Jackson, Mrs. J. F. Cramer, Mrs. Viron Moore, Mrs. G. H. Good, Mrs. Grant Crakes, and Mrs. Sidney A. King. Serving were Florence Jackson, Beth Good, Alice Bailey.

C. D. A. Social

The Catholic Daughters of America will not meet this Wednesday, sponsoring an evening card party instead on Wednesday, August 31. The party will be for all of the parish of St. Mary's Catholic church interested and will be in St. Mary's hall. Mrs. Duane Himer is chairman and assisting her will be Mrs. Ralph W. Leighton, Mrs. Iola Miller, Miss Alvine Amort, Mrs. Joe Shipman, Mrs. Louis Schimmel.

Lawn Party

Dorothy Carlson entertained a group of her school friends at a lawn party at her home, Thursday evening, a group of twenty being invited. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. F. G. Carlson and Miss Helen Carlson.

LITTLE GIRLS GROUP WINNERS

THE winners in the little girls group in the recent Romane studio pretty baby contest are pictured here. Left to right, top row: Ann Winifred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thingvall, Eugene, first place; Margaret Mary, daughter of Mrs. George B. Schaefer, Eugene, second place; Billie Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bartle, tied for third place. Lower row, left to right—Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilhelm, Crow stage, tied for third place; Joy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clell Pryor, Eugene, honorable mention; Marsha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Myers, honorable mention; Margie Fay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Campbell, Springfield, honorable mention. (Wiltshire engraving)

Social Notes

HONORING Mrs. Randall Scott, who with Mr. Scott has been visiting here and in Springfield from Phoenix, Arizona. Mrs. Creed V. Brattian entertained a small group at tea, Wednesday afternoon, guests including a group of old school friends of the honor guest. The guests were Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Georg Bjorset of Cottage Grove, Mrs. Lester Hufstader of Mohawk, Mrs. Henry H. Norton, Mrs. Robert H. Lemon, Mrs. Thomas S. Wells, and the hostess.

WEDDING NEXT SUNDAY

A wedding of interest to a large group will be that of Miss Margaret Nebergall and Patrick G. Fury next Sunday afternoon. The service will be at four o'clock in the afternoon at the First Congregational church, Dr. S. Earl Childers of the First Christian church officiating.

Miss Marjorie McNiece of Portland is to be maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Kathryn Woolsey and Mrs. Janet Hall. Robert C. Fury of Spokane is to be best man for his brother and the ushers will be Bud Robertson, Kennerd Clevenger, and Andrew Nurney.

For the music, Hal Young is to sing and Edwin Myrick is to play the organ.

A reception will be held at the Nebergall home following the ceremony at the church.

GOLF DAY WEDNESDAY

The regular women's golf day at the Country club will be held Wednesday morning. There will be a sweepstakes tournament with play continuing in the handicap tournament.

LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. Thomas S. Wells entertained formally at luncheon, Wednesday for Mrs. Stephen Gribble, visitor from St. Louis, Mrs. Harry Keeney, visitor here for a short time on her way home to Independence from Palo Alto, Cal., and Mrs. Gribble's sister, Miss Rosemary Royce, who is west from Wisconsin.

WEDDING TODAY

The marriage of Miss Rosalie Steinmetz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Steinmetz, to Clyde L. Walker of Portland will be solemnized this morning at a ceremony planned for nine o'clock at the Delta Delta Delta sorority, Dr. Norman K. Tully to officiate. Miss Joy Carlisle of Eugene and Don Anderson of Portland are to attend the couple. A breakfast will follow the ceremony.

COMING FOR VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. McConnell of Long Beach, Cal., are to

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 12)

Welfare League Plans First Meeting, Sept. 2

WELFARE League members announce their first meeting of the fall will come Friday, September 2, the organization being one of the first of the women's groups of the city to start the new year.

The board of the League will meet the preceding day, September 1, announces Mrs. Arthur Bushman, president for this year.

Mrs. Richards Is Honored At Parties

Honoring her house guest, Mrs. E. E. Richards (formerly Beth Bailey) of Portland, Mrs. Don Shaffner entertained at a bridge party, Friday evening.

Guests included Mrs. E. E. Richards, Mrs. Francis Mannel, Mrs. Guy J. Oldham, Mrs. George M. Petersen, Mrs. M. C. Mitchell, Mrs. Milton D. Koupa, Mrs. Warren Korstad, Mrs. Marvin Milford, Mrs. Chris Moss, Mrs. A. R. Shaffner, and the hostess. Honors went to Mrs. Mannel and Mrs. Richards.

On Saturday evening, Mrs. Warren Korstad entertained for the visitor.

MOTHERS MEETING

The Phi Sigma Kappa Mothers club is to meet Monday evening with Mrs. Roy E. Morse at seven-thirty o'clock.

Mrs. Hansen Will Arrive For Visit

Mrs. Gladys C. Hansen, former Eugenean who has been in the east and abroad the past year, will arrive here for a visit this week and will be guest of Mrs. J. Laurin Reynolds. Mrs. Hansen will be assistant dean of women at Western State Teachers college, Kalamazoo, Mich., this coming year.

Several affairs are being given for Mrs. Hansen while visiting here. Mrs. Frederic G. Sticks is to entertain a small group at luncheon, Thursday, for the visitor.

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. C. A. Leighty and Mrs. Frank Senn are entertaining at the home of the former for a dessert and bridge party for Mrs. Hansen.

Honoring the visitor, Mrs. Reynolds is to entertain at an informal tea next Saturday afternoon at her home.

Country Club's Social Next Friday

The monthly social for men and women of the Country club will be held next Friday evening. The golf games will start at four-thirty o'clock, followed by a dinner.

The social committee from the women's organization is in charge, including Mrs. Dorothea Ford, Mrs. Emma Drain, Mrs. Irvin F. Schulz, Mrs. Clifford R. Manerud, and Mrs. John Bushman.

Those planning to remain for the dinner are asked to make reservations at the clubhouse.

Power Given Miss Nebergall Next Week

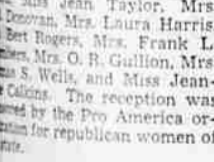

WELCOMING Miss Marjorie Nebergall, who is to be married next Sunday afternoon, at 2 to Patrick G. Fury, Janet Hall and Miss Kathryn Woolsey entertained with a tea party and shower, Thursday evening, the group calling at Nebergall home. Guests included Miss Nebergall, Mrs. Alfred L. Lomax, Mrs. M. C. McCary, Miss Virginia Staff, Mrs. Dean Wentworth, Mrs. Ed Drew of Junction City, Dorothy Dill, Mrs. Gus Johnson of Triangle Lake, Miss Ruth and Miss Shirley Shrenk, Miss Janet Achterman, Miss Mary and Miss Lorraine Hunt, Miss and Mrs. Sally Ray, Miss Marie and Mrs. Kennerd Nebergall, Miss Irma Helickson, and the two hostesses.

To Reception

Women attending the reception given at the home of Seneca and Mrs. Charles L. McNary at Salem, Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Howard R. Taylor, Mrs. E. E. Bean, Mrs. J. L. Hesse, A. E. Torzson, Mrs. Lillian and Miss Jean Taylor, Mrs. Donovan, Mrs. Laura Harris, Bert Rogers, Mrs. Frank L. and Mrs. O. R. Gullion, Mrs. S. Wells, and Miss Jeanne Calkins. The reception was sponsored by the Pro America organization for republican women of Oregon.

Board Meeting

Meeting of the board of Pro America for republican women was called by the chairman, Jeanette Calkins, for the evening Wednesday afternoon at seven o'clock in Washburne room.

MRS. JERRY DEAN CLARK
BRIDE of August 6 was Mrs. Jerry Dean Clark (Mary Ann Hamilton), above, Springfield, Oregon. Photo—Wiltshire engraving.

MRS. JERRY DEAN CLARK
BRIDE of August 6 was Mrs. Jerry Dean Clark (Mary Ann Hamilton), above, Springfield, Oregon. Photo—Wiltshire engraving.

DOES YOUR CORSET Fit?

If it fits—you don't know you have it on. If it doesn't, you are uncomfortable, and your clothes don't look right. You need a change—a change to Charis. In this foundation you will be comfortable because it is adjustable to your figure type. And Charis will give you smart, young lines, good posture—in other words, complete satisfaction. Phone or visit the Charis Figure Stylist, after 4:00 P. M.

CHARIS
MRS. EDITH BOCKES
Roberts' Hair Shop
63 E. Broadway Telephone: 332-W
MRS. M. D. DENNISTON
385 W. Broadway Telephone: 1236-W
Exclusive Distributors for Eugene

$75 and up for these TWO RINGS

... and these are rings such as never before have been available at any price... together they form one of the new "WED-LOK" (interlocking) ensembles that are shown and sold exclusively at this store.

Credit if desired
SKIES Jewelry Store
EUGENE, ORE.
927 Willamette Phone 411

Kaufman Bros.

UPSWEPT!
is the word

for that tiny new hat to crown your newly upswept curls. Ostrich-tipped, veiled or be-ribboned concoctions to tempt you to see our newly remodeled and enlarged millinery department.

HATS from 3.95
and up to $15

Your Dress Coat

RICHLY FURRED
for elegance

FURS are luxurious! Mink, Kolinsky, Sable, Persian Lamb, Beaver, Lynx, Skunk, Krimmer, Wolf, Fox, Squirrel, Lambskin. Used in magnificent collars, applied on sleeves or pockets, forming tuxedo fronts.

STYLES are frankly designed for figure-flattery. New slim princess coats, bloused back types, dolman sleeves, slimming box styles, belted or loose models. Stunning styles for matron or miss!

FABRICS are keyed to elegance! Boucles, diagonal and suede woollens by Julliard and Forstmann. Stroock's fabrics, including their famous Camel Hairs. Imported English Tweeds. Meticulously tailored.

COLORS are important. Grape and wine shades, blues from green-touched Teal Blue to soft Storm Blue, Paris-sponsored Grays. Browns, rusts, greens, beiges, navy, and always—first and last—Black!

AN OUTSTANDING GROUP AT 39.75
OTHERS TO 72.50

A DEPOSIT HOLDS ANY COAT

(ILLUSTRATED ABOVE)
The lavish use of skunk on sleeves and collar, the rich Vintage Wine shade, the slimming box silhouette, the smart boucle woolen, the satin lining... all combine to make this coat in a size 16 a marvelous value at 39.75

(ILLUSTRATED LEFT)
Typical of our models in black and Persian Lamb is this svelte fitted coat with loads of slimming flattery. The lavish use of Persian Lamb is almost unbelievable when you consider the price... 39.75

Kaufman Bros.
USE YOUR BUDGET OR CHARGE ACCOUNT
EUGENE'S FASHION CENTER