Stock Market Apathetic To European News

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Sept. 21—(AP)—Wall street found the stock market's sensitivity to European news dulled a bit today and reports the Czech government had accepted the British-French proposals excited only a short lived buying flurry.

However, relief at what appeared to have been a narrow escape from an immediate large scale war in Europe, still found expression in a leaning toward the buying side. Near the finish most stocks retained gains of fractions to around a point after yielding part of their winnings in a noisy forenpon flourish of buying touched off by financial ticker flashes that the Czechs had capitulated.

Considering the breadth of the recovery, which had restored about half the losses during recent war frightened selling, many traders hastened to take advantgae of the early bulge to cash paper profits.

Czecho bonds broke widely on prospect the little republic's economic resources would be curtailed appreciably after partition of its territory but other foreign and domestic issues held their ground with stocks.

THE president, his lady, the doctor, and hundreds of townspeople waited anxiously in Rochester, Minn., as Jimmy Roosevelt came through the critical hours following an operation at Mayo Brothers clinic for removal of a gastric ulcer. Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt clearly show the strain of the ordeal in their pictures. Shown with them is Dr. Howard K. Gray, who operated on their eldest son. Lower photo shows crowds outside the hospital.

COMING to the McDonald theatre Friday for a five-day run is "Love Comes to Andy Hardy," starring Mickey Rooney, the lucky young man shown above surrounded by a bevy of beauties.
