

Don Budge Signed For $50,000, Rumor

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 21.—A claim Don Budge, world's No. 1 amateur tennis player, has been signed as a professional for several weeks on a one-year contract calling for a $50,000 a year guarantee was made here last night by Dave Freed, secretary of the Inter-Mountain Tennis association.

Freed, prominent mountain states netter, declared Budge had put his name on the dotted line of a contract offered by Jack Harris, youthful Chicago promoter. Freed debunked reports from Chicago and Oakland that Harris has offered the red-headed Oaklander $75,000 a year but that Budge was holding out for $100,000.

Freed termed "a publicity stunt" the "disagreement" now reportedly current between Harris and Budge over the Davis Cup star's first year salary.

Granges Plan Exhibit At National Meet

As chairman of the Lane County Pomona grange agricultural committee, O. S. Fletcher, county agricultural agent, is calling a meeting of representatives of all subordinate granges in the county, to be held in the Four-H club building at the county fairgrounds at 2 p. m. Monday, October 24, to make plans for a county agricultural exhibit at the meeting of the national grange in Portland November 14-19.

The suggestion has been made that where there is more than one county having a similar agricultural activity it might be advisable to consolidate the exhibits. Morton Tompkins, chairman of the agricultural committee of the state grange, writes Mr. Fletcher that a committee has been named to handle the exhibits.

It's these dainty SNOW FLAKES that sharpen our appetites

WITH COCKTAILS, APPETIZERS, SOUPS, CHEESE, SALADS, SNACKS

SNOW FLAKES differ from ordinary crackers as vine-fresh tomatoes differ from those several days old. And Snow Flakes' many little "extras" make the difference.

FOR expert bakers make Snow Flakes with extra shortening for extra flakiness, just enough salt for extra savor, and rush them to you extra fast, triple-sealed, fresh from the oven.

FLAKINESS means everything in a cracker. Snow Flakes are flakier, daintier, tastier, and crisper.

For economy, get the two-pound "family" size.
