

100-Hour Safety Drive Start Postponed to Thursday Noon

E. Clark Bobbett, America's foremost exponent of safety and economy driving, who was recently designated by a quarter of a million school children in 47 states as their selection for "All Time-All American" safety driver, commences his 100-hour safety demonstration through the business and residential sections of Eugene Thursday noon at 12:30 o'clock.

Mr. Bobbett, during his safety drive, compiles a personal observational report on local driving and traffic conditions, as he encounters them. A check on speedy driving in the business section, double parking, bad lights and other hazards, are a few of the features that Mr. Bobbett stresses in his safety report on local conditions.

Leaving nothing to guess work or memory in the compilation of his report, Bobbett dictates his immediate impressions to his secretary as they present themselves during the safety drive. She in turn clicks off his report on a Royal portable touch control typewriter, which after many severe tests has proven most satisfactory.

The safety drive in Eugene, which is Bobbett's 108th in 47 states, which is sponsored by the Silva Chevrolet Company, the Eugene Register-Guard, KORE and other leading Eugene firms, has as its purpose the demonstration of proper driving methods for the citizens of the city and county, and as an additional feature offers proof of the safety and economical claims made by Julio Silva, local Chevrolet distributor, on behalf of the new 1939 Chevrolet car.

During the many demonstration drives in the past, Mrs. Bobbett has acted as her husband's relief at the wheel. Her sudden illness a few days ago resulted in a postponement of the drive start until Thursday noon to allow time for the arrival of a relief driver.

During the 100-hour safety drive Bobbett will pay particular notice to the various congested corners in Eugene, especially those intersections where safety lights are shortly to be installed, in order that a comprehensive report on existing conditions may be turned over to the city officials.

On Monday evening, November 28, a Safety Banquet will be given at the McCrady's Cafe attended by the leading citizens of Eugene. McCrady's has been designated officially as the eating headquarters for Mr. and Mrs. Bobbett before and after the demonstration drive, and will serve the remainder of the staff three times daily.

The Saturday afternoon broadcast conducted by Mr. Bobbett over KORE was the concluding broadcast in the Voice of Safety program, and offered as his guests Miss Stebbin, representing the Women's Christian Temperance Union, who gave some very interesting information relative to those who drive cars while drinking.

Another guest on this final broadcast was J. H. McKinley of the Tromp Insurance Agency who stated that property damage resulting from automobile accidents alone was $830,000,000. Mr. McKinley also discussed the various kinds of insurance needed by the average individual whether driving a car, or merely riding as a passenger.

Tex Corthay, well known newspaper correspondent representing the American Press Association, is now on the ground investigating the Safety drive activities, and is contemplating joining Bobbett's organization in order to take over the publicity activities for Bobbett at the San Francisco and New York world's fairs.

Bobbett will give a safety talk Monday night at 7:30 before the Eugene Youth Council at the City Hall.

Large Crowd Out For Dedication

An overflow crowd attended the dedication of the new church edifice for St. Mary's Episcopal parish, Sunday. In addition to the dedication event, a confirmation service was held, conducted by Rt. Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, D.D., Portland, bishop of the Oregon diocese.

Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, D. D., Pendleton, bishop of the eastern Oregon diocese, also was here for the dedication program and delivered the sermon for the 11 a. m. service. Communion was administered at 8 a. m. by Bishop Dagwell and at that time a new communion service, given by the church as a memorial to the late Mrs. J. D. S. Wade of Eugene, was consecrated.

The work of the church with the university students and the young people was stressed by Bishop Remington in his sermon. The church has a real responsibility in this work. "We can not look to the schools to do the things the churches should do," he commented. A plea was made by the speaker, also, for "a greater manifestation of Christian principles toward our fellow men," as he mentioned the persecution of Jews, Catholics, and Protestants in Europe. He stressed the fact that the great hope to bring the world out of its trouble and despair is "the return to God."

Bishop Dagwell officiated at both the communion and the 11 a. m. services, assisted by Bishop Remington and Rev. H. R. White, rector of the St. Mary's church.

At the dedication service, church officers sat in a special section, including the gardens, T. R. Greenwood and Walter P. Fell; the vestry members, Robert L. Campbell, Dr. Edward E. Gray, G. E. Lehman, Allen T. Osborne, Fred Rice, Herbert Smeed, A. C. Stockstad, and Edward M. Thurston; and the officers of the various women's guilds of the church.

Public open house at the new building was held Sunday afternoon, members of the Women's Guild of the church being in charge.

PLAN ALUMNI EVENT (Special)—The Alumni Association and basketball games will be held Wednesday Nov. 20 at Pleasant Hill high school. The first basketball game will be played at 7:30 p. m.

Piano Business Is Said On Increase

The piano business, again shooting very close to its peak figures for last year, is strong and has the radio and the moving picture to thank for it. That, today, was the statement of Ralph Wilson of the Wilson Music House of Eugene.

"Today you can hear people who twenty years ago might have thought music meant the village dance shouter sawing away on his fiddle discuss the relative merits of Stokowski and Benny Goodman, Toscanini and Guy Lombardo, and dot it intelligently. They've heard them over the air this year.

"Furthermore, this has awakened in them a desire to have their own children play a musical instrument," he continued. "A recent survey shows that more children are today studying piano than at any time in recent history. "With all of this, a definite piano shortage is in prospect for this holiday season, if business runs at all to what we figure it will, since piano factories will be unable to make deliveries much faster than they are doing this month."

Figures released today by the National Piano Manufacturers Association showed that more than 55,000 pianos were sold during the first nine months of this year, with the three biggest months, from point of volume, still ahead. It is believed that close to 100,000 pianos will be made in America and seen them in the movies.

Encouragement was derived from the fact Callahan was exceptionally light throughout. Transfers approximated 500,000 shares.

Treaty Is Drift Toward Free Trade

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Senator Charles McNary, (R-Ore.) today described the new United States trade treaty with Great Britain and Canada as evidence of Secretary of State Hull's "drift toward free trade."

"It's interesting to note that as Secretary of Agriculture Wallace restricts farm produce at home, Secretary Hull lets more and more foreign farm products come into America," he said in an interview.
