MOVE RESIDENCE

LORANE, Nov. 21.—(Special)—The Frank Rulon family is moving to the house recently vacated by the Albert Guggisberg family who moved to Siletz.

HAL SCHUMACHER has good reason to be all smiles as he recuperates in a Memphis hospital, where a "house body" was removed from his pitching arm. The operation, similar to that performed on his teammate, Carl Hubbell, is expected to permit the New York Giants' star right-hander to hurl without pain next spring. Surgeon Chandler and Wes Ferrelle of the Yankees are other major league pitchers who have had arm trouble corrected since the close of the season.

AS 15,000 horrified midge-race fans watched, the car driven by Fred Friday in a recent race in Los Angeles took fire when a gas line broke and turned him into the flaming human comet pictured above. His face wreathed in fire, as seen in the photo, Friday pluckily raised his hand to warn off the other drivers, then steered into the infield, came to a stop, unfastened his safety belt and leaped out—his clothes ablaze. He was taken to a hospital, suffering from severe burns. At right, another car is seen swerving to avoid Friday's machine.
