Another stimulating factor was word that the subsidy on export flour from the Pacific coast to the Philippines had been raised 10 cents a barrel. In contrast with wheat corn values lagged.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were unchanged to ⅜ higher compared with yesterday's finish, May 66⅛-½, July 66-66⅛, corn ⅛-¾ down, May 52¼-⅛, July 52⅞ and oats unchanged to ⅛ up.

New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Dec. 21—(AP)—A tail spin in aviation shares gave the stock market uneasy moments today and prices mostly headed a little lower.

Some aircraft shares at one time were off more than 2 points but they recovered a bit with the list generally in late dealings.

Lacking more adequate explanation for the liquidation, some brokers ascribed the drop in aviations to profit-taking following recent speculation for the rise on prospects a big air defense program would be presented to the new congress.

In bonds and commodities the year-end drift continued and narrow changes were the rule.

Transactions in stocks approximated 1,100,000 shares.

Mrs. Roosevelt Asserts Rights Of Chief's Family to Own Lives

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt vigorously asserted today the right of a president's wife and children to live their own private lives.

Discussing at her press conference her own acceptance of a place on an insurance company's board of directors, Mrs. Roosevelt put the question up to the people of the United States.

Do they want the children of a president to be the type who do not want to earn their own living? she asked.

And does the nation want a president's wife to give up all of the interests she had built up?

Mrs. Roosevelt said she often had wondered whether the people of the country realized a president's family must go on with their normal lives while he is in the White House.

Her argument ran as follows:

The people elect a man as president. They don't give any of the others in the family a job. Sometimes, especially in the case of young people, a president is in the white house long enough for a complete restriction on their individual lives. And they only have a limited period to build those lives.

Mrs. Roosevelt pointed out such a policy in her own case would have meant giving up a great many interests and changing her whole relation to her family.

If the people of the nation insisted on restrictions on the activities of a president's wife, she added, the time might come when a woman would say she would not go to the White House.

Mrs. Roosevelt stressed the fact no member of the White House family, nor any person in the government, should ever use his or her position to ask for special favors.

She told her press conference she would accept a directorship in Roosevelt and Sargent, Boston insurance firm founded by her son, James, merely to act as James' representative. Before agreeing to do so, she said, she asked if any financial obligation would be incurred, or if any real knowledge of the business was necessary. Informed it was not, she agreed to serve in James' place and to vote his stock as he suggests.
