SPORTS PARADE

By HENRY McLEMORE

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—One of California's celebrated "mists" pelted down in torrents on the clubhouse roof.

Outside, the fairways and greens ran rivers, and the caddies huddled beneath their shelter like wet birds.

Inside the members of our foursome pulled up chairs and began to lie about the scores we would have had if it hadn't started "misting."

The locker room boy turned on the electric phonograph and Bing Crosby's sweet and throaty voice filled the room.

"Shut off that crooner!," the man next to me said. "I'm so tired of hearing that guy sing I could yell."

"Okay, Mister Crosby," the locker room boy said, "I'll shut it off if you say so. But I think you sing mighty pretty."

The music stopped, and Bing settled back with a sigh.

"Now we can talk in peace," he said.

With the opening of Santa Anita little more than a week off the talk drifted from golf to horse racing, and Crosby, as a man whose silks will show there, was asked about his stable.

* * *

"Which stable?," he asked. "I've three now."

Bing said this more in a spirit of resignation than of boasting.

"One stable is the Binglin," he said. "That's the one I own with Charley Howard's son, Lin, and which sounds like the name of a Chinese laundry.

"Then there's the Boblee stable, which my wife owns with another Howard boy, Bob. They haven't even got a horse apiece. There is only one horse in the stable.

"Then there is the Crosby stable. That's the one with the blue and gold silks. I got those colors from the theme song I used to sing."

Here Bing settled back and sang a few bars of "When the Blue of the Night Meets the Gold of the Day—"

Johnny Weismueller, who was to have been my partner at golf, interrupted with:

"Shut off that crooner! I'm so tired of hearing that guy sing I could yell!"

"Nuts to you, Tarzan," Bing said. "Go climb a tree."

As a matter of fact, Crosby has no reason to speak with a resigned voice when he talks of his stables. His horses have shown a profit for each of the four years he has been in the game, and if Seabiscuit decides to do his winter running in Florida, the Binglin's stable's South American horse, Ligaroti, will be favorite in the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap in March. Ligaroti is the horse that won $30,000 last year and was nosed out by the Biscuit in the sensational match race at Bing's Del Mar track.

* * *

Crosby owes his racing luck to South America. With Lin Howard, who learned the country in his search for polo ponies, he was the first to tap the great horse breeding sector. Tremendously wealthy, the Argentine sportsmen buy the best of the English dams and stallions. Two things make their farms a sweet source for American buyers. In the first place, the rate of exchange is 1 to 4, which means that an American quarter is worth four times its weight in the Argentine. In the second place, there are but two days of racing a week around Buenos Aires, and the Argentine owners soon become surfeited with good horses. The first South American horse to come to this country was brought by Bing and Howard. His name was Sabueso, and he won five of his first seven races, and still holds the mile record at Tanforan. Crosby just received a new shipment of South American runners, and Charley Howard just got Sorteado, the champion 3-year-old of the Argentine. Sorteado won all the Argentine stakes, yet cost only $35,000.

The rain stopped, the locker room emptied in a rush for the first and tenth tees.

Our foresome was last to leave, and as we quitted the doorway we heard Crosby's voice floating out from the Victrola.

Grantland Rice spoke up.

"Shut off that crooner . . ."

Sarpola Leads With 20 Points

Slim Wintermute Hurt But Not Seriously

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 21.—(AP)—The University of Oregon's rangy, fast-breaking basketball machine buried Miami university of Oxford, O., under a 74-to-38 score at Convention hall here last night.

The driving westerners grabbed an early lead and never were in danger of losing it. The count was 28 to 17 for the Webfoots at halftime.

Ted Sarpola, clever forward, pushed in seven field goals and six foul shots to pace Oregon with 20 points. The touted Laddie Gale played only briefly, but found his tenure in the tilt long enough to account for 11 points.

NO FRACTURE

CLEVELAND, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Urgel (Slim) Wintermute, Oregon basketball center, did not suffer a fractured ankle, as was first feared, in the Miami university game here Tuesday night.

X-ray treatments Wednesday morning revealed no break. The big fellow was released but may be out of action for several games.

Dick Scores 12

Big John Dick, reserve center, was sandwiched between Sarpola and Gale in the Webfoot point-collecting column, with 12. Dick played a good share of the contest, after replacing Urgel (Slim) Wintermute, who left with an injury.

Wintermute, who stands six feet, eight inches, became the Oregonian's first touring casualty when he turned his ankle. He was taken to the hospital here for X-rays. Attendants believed there was no fracture.

Oregon's journey standing is now two wins and one loss. Howard Hobson's team was nosed out, 38 to 36, by City college of New York but evened its percentage with a 54-to-44 win over St. Joseph's

Wednesday night the Webfoots draw a rest and Thursday they meet Canisius college, a strong hoop power, in Buffalo. By virtue of Tuesday night's victory Oregon will be favored over the Buffalo team.

Friday night the westerners meet Wayne university at Detroit. Then they will quarter in Chicago until December 26, when they meet Bradley Tech, one of the midwest's toughest teams, at Peoria.

Oakridge Rallies for Victory Over Mohawk in Feature Tiff

Oakridge high's Warriors remained undefeated in American division Lane county B league basketball play by edging out Mohawk, 36 to 31, in the feature of Tuesday night's program.

Virg Kingsley's team trailed much of the way and had to rally in the final minutes to avoid an upset at the hands of the fighting Indians. Long shots by Gale Varrelman pulled the Warriors out of the ruck.

Lorane maintained its undefeated status in the National division with a 21-to-18 victory over Walker. Most of the Lorane regulars have been vaccinated this week and the Lorane-Coburg game slated for Wednesday has been postponed.

Thurston high's valiant Pansies remained well up in the National running by pulling out a 35-to-33 win over Blue River, on the strength of a long shot by Delano Fox which tied the count at the fourth quarter gun and a bucket by Johnny Wicks in an overtime period.

THURSTON 35, BLUE RIVER 33

THURSTON, Dec. 21—(Special)—A one-handed shot from the keyhole by Johnny Wicks in a sudden death overtime gave Thurston's Pansies a hard-earned 35-to-33 triumph over Blue River in a red-hot National division Lane county B league basketball game here last night.

The struggle was a thriller throughout. It was 28 to 21 for Blue River at the end of the third quarter, but in the final period the Pansies, led by little Delano Fox, put on a stirring drive which brought them from behind to tie in the very last second of regular play.

Little Fox's long shot was in the air as the final gun sounded, and it swished through to knot the count at 33.

Fox scored nine of his 16 points in that last quarter. Drury led Blue River's surprising offense with 12 counters.

It was 8 to 8 at the close of the first quarter and 17 to 14 for Thurston at the half. The third period was all Blue River, however, with the Bats outscoring Coach Pengra's crew, 14 to 4. The final session was a different matter.

The Blue River Girls trounced Thurston's feminine contingent, 41 to 22. Forward Lau scored 32 of the winners' points.

Tide Rolls Over Creswell, 54-14

Gatlin, DeAutremont Lead Uni High Barrage

University high's fast-breaking basketball brigade rolled over inexperienced Creswell, 54 to 14, in a practice tussle at McArthur court last night.

Ray Hendrickson used 13 Tide hoopmen in the walkaway, and 10 of the kids scored points. Subs played a large share of the game, but the first string combination of Tex Gatlin, Bud Goddard, Ray Richardson, Delton Mann and Charley DeAutremont worked together long enough to demonstrate that the east side school will again be tough to beat.

Gatlin, a tall, lanky prep school edition of Laddie Gale, led the latest crop of hoopmen in the scoring line, pouring home half a dozen field goals and three foul tosses for 15 points. Charley DeAutremont's smooth, scrappy floor play was another feature.

Mann Gets Eight

Delton Mann was second in the point collecting department with eight. Ray Richardson had seven and DeAutremont and Jay Lyons five each.

Bill Harcomb's Creswell crew must have shown improvement over its play against Oakridge, which ran up a 75-to-14 count on the Bulldogs. The Creswell kids battled at both baskets but were completely outclassed.

The first quarter was slow stuff, with Creswell guarding furiously and the Golden Tiders appearing a bit too anxious to start the merry-go-round. A field goal and free throw by Richardson and a lay-in bucket by Mann gave Uni high a 5-to-0 edge, but Kuni's rebound shot and Gwyther's lay-in of Wheeler's pass brought Creswell within two points, 6-to-4, at the close of period No. 1.

Gatlin Opens Up

The Bulldogs cut the margin to a point as Wheeler opened the second quarter's scoring with a free throw, but soon blond young Mr. Gatlin, a junior who not long ago made his home down Texas way, began finding the range.

Tex hit two free throws and then potted a pass from Lyons. At the four-minute mark in the quarter he caged two successive one-handers from keyhole territory, in regular Laddie Gale fashion.

The Golden Tide rode ahead, 16-to-7, on Gatlin's splurge, and it was 22 to 9 by the half. Just before the end of the second period Coach Hendrickson shoved in a reserve five and little Ace Plath immediately dribbled the length of the floor to push in a pretty one-hander.

Mann, Goddard, Gatlin, DeAutremont, Gatlin again, and Mann again hit the hemp in staccato order as the second half opened and the count was 34 to 9 in a comparative jiffy. Most of the Uni high baskets came on fast pass plays, with DeAutremont doing a lion's share of the feeding.

Reserves Take Floor

It was 38 to 11 by the close of the third quarter, and reserves played nearly all of the final session for University high. The regulars were in long enough for Gatlin to can his sixth field goal, however. Howard Stump came through with a pair of lay-ins and Adkinson and Jensen also broke into the scoring column for the subs.

The University high midgets trimmed Woodrow Wilson junior high, 36 to 25, in a preliminary. Wilson was ahead, 21 to 18, at the half, but couldn't keep up the pace. Taylor's seven points were high for the midgets and for the game. Carter and Haynes had five each for Wilson.

OAKRIDGE 36, MOHAWK 31.

MARCOLA, Dec. 21.—(Special)—A fighting Mohawk high school basketball team exceeded hopes of fondest admirers here last night as it led mighty Oakridge through most of a torrid American division county B league tilt and lost by only five points, 36 to 31.

The Colasuonno's Indians held a 28-to-24 edge with five minutes to play in the final quarter, and it looked as if the undefeated Oakridge quint might be toppled by the thus far unvictorious home team.

But the upset was not to be. Gale Varrelman, dead-eye Oakridge guard, was the reason. Varrelman opened up at that point, with five minutes to go and the Warriors trailing by four points, and his long shot barrage pulled Virge Kingsley's smooth crew to the fore.

Stanley on Bench

Oakridge was weakened by absence of Gordon Stanley from its lineup Stanley was out with a twisted ankle.

It was 10 to 10 at the close of a fast first quarter and Oakridge had its first lead of the evening, 14 to 13, at the half. The count was 24 to 22 for Mohawk at the end of the third period.

Little Jim Smith, veteran guard, was the big gun in Mohawk's offense. He scored 13 points. Center John Hatton, who ran up nine points, and Brother Cecil Smith, whose floor play was sparkling, were other main cogs in the Indian machine.

Varrelman's late howitzer outburst made him Oakridge's leading point collector, with 11. Duane Ellefson had nine and Bleile, subbing for Stanley, and Oral Rodgers each checked in with six.

Oakridge Girls Win

Fouls were 10 on Mohawk and nine on the Warriors. Nobody was banished on personals.

The Oakridge girls exacted a measure of revenge for the beating they took in the county tournament finale last season as they clipped the Mohawk lassies, 26 to 16. Miss Fisher scored 11 points, Miss Walker nine and Miss Richter six for the winners. Alice Cook had eight for Mohawk and Forward Eastham had six and Forward McDonald two to complete the Indian scoring.

TECH SQUAD ARRIVES

Trojans Plan Quick-Kicking Strategy to Offset Tipton

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The brilliant punting of Eric (The Red) Tipton of Duke will be met—and the Trojans hope offset—by the quick-kicking strategy of Southern California when the two elevens clash in the Rose Bowl.

Tipton's kicking fame is well known to the men of Troy, but maybe the staunch Dukes of North Carolina will find it matched by those bounding boots sent downfield by the Trojan quarterbacks when the downs and the formations apparently call for an orthodox running play off tackle.

Notre Dame learned of one of Coach Howard Jones' favorite maneuvers last December 3. Time and again Mickey Anderson or Oliver Day set the Irish deep in their own backyard by these lightning-like thrusts, which ranged from 38 to nearly 60 yards.

Duke, with Tipton doing almost all the kicking, has an enviable season's average of 40.3 yards, but it doesn't begin to tell of the 60, 70 and more yards on individual punts by the Duke star, nor of how the powerful Tipton foot helped topple mighty Pitt.

In another answer to the Duke punting, however, Southern California has several better than ordinary safety men.

Roseburg Tops Millers, 45-28

ROSEBURG, Dec. 21—(Special)—Roseburg high school's tall sophomore basketeers were aided mightily by a small senior, Virgil Sanders, as they shellacked Springfield, 45 to 28, here Tuesday night.

Sanders ran up 11 points to lead the parade for Coach Jim Watts' crew, which by the victory made it two straight over Springfield. Finley followed with 10 points.

High scorer for the game was Springfield's Dean Van Lydegraf, who posted a dozen counters.

Roseburg took off to a fast start and was on top, at the quarter, 13 to 1, and at the half 24 to 8.

Galloping Gaels Lead Throughout; 32-21 Win

PLEASANT HILL, Dec. 21—(Special)—St.Mary's high school of Eugene led all the way as it posted a 32-to-21 victory over Pleasant Hill high in a basketball scuffle here last night.

Al Kuppenbender, with 10 points, and Eddie Schaefers, with eight, paced the galloping Gaels. Father Tony Gerace's crew was without the services of Freddie Heitzman, a regular guard, who turned up ill.

Neil Jones and Eugene Kelly tallied eight points each for Pleasant Hill's cause, but these two and Forward T. Staley were the Hillbillies' only scoring threats, while six players hit the hemp for the Gaels.

It was a fast, well-played game. St. Mary's was on top at the end of the first quarter, 6 to 4.

The second period was also nip and tuck and it was 14 to 11 for St. Mary's at the intermission. Gael strenth told in the third session, which ended 26 to 13 for the A league outfit.

Tom Loughran Suspended; Boxer Weighted Self Down

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—Tommy Loughran, the real-life "Kid Gallahad" of boxing, was suspended today for 60 days in New York state as an aftermath of one of the goofiest incidents in ring history; the case of the clouter who had lead weights in his boxing trunks.

Loughran, a paragon of pugilistic purity and former light heavyweight champion, was suspended along with Mat Raymond, Tommy's ultra-ambitious "heavyweight" fighter.

Raymond, who triumphed over a much heavier man Friday night, took the blame for the whole affair. He admitted before commissioners Phelan, Brown and Wear that he had inserted lead fish sinkers in his boxing trunks just befbre Friday's weighing-in. The trick was discovered because officials insisted that he remove the trunks. He weighed only 164.

The three lads from Quakertown assured three commissioners that young Raymond, a graduate of Duke university, actually was a heavyweight before he came to New York for Friday's fight.
