Asia Plan Nearer as Hiranuma Appears Before Parliament Body

SEOUL, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Premier Hiro Hiranuma warned today that Japan awaits persistent enemies of Japan.

"For those who fail to understand to the end and hereafter in the opposition to me," he cried in a speech before parliament, "we have no alternative than to exterminate them."

The premier emphasized the necessity for pan-Asianism and measures for strengthening national resources and national unity would be instituted as arms held need.

"The creation of a strong armament as possible."

"This constitutes our most essential objective," he said, adding that "time control measures would be placed on a permanent basis."

Press Parley Side-Glances

Arthur L. Crookham, who's been with the Oregon Journal for 13 years, visited the Oregon campus for the first time for the conference.

In his most interesting talk Friday afternoon, Crookham stated: "Portland readers are a good deal more interested in a good dog fight on Yamhill street than a train wreck in New Jersey." He didn't mention the possibility of men from Mars landing again!

Invents Means Of Saving Auto Tires

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Watchmaker William J. Parkinson grew weary of wearing out tires against curbstones while parking his car.

This week he received a patent on a parking "Pathfinder" for cars which he claims will reduce tire and fender repair bills.

The "Pathfinder" will light a tiny red light on the dash as soon as his car approaches within three or four inches of another car, a curb, or obstruction of any kind. A curved rod fastened to the bumper has a coil spring nearly as sensitive as an insect's antennae. When it touches any object, it closes an electrical contact and lights the red dashboard lamp.

Hitler's Purge Of Bank Goes Forward

Nazis Require All Men Over 17 to Remain Fit For Military Service

By MELVIN K. WHITELEATHER
BERLIN, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Reichsfuehrer Hitler continued today his eradication of the conservative influence of Dr. Hjalmar Schacht from the reichsbank and at the same time moved to increase Germany's armed strength with a decree that every able-bodied man over 17 must keep fit for military service.

The fuehrer removed from the bank's directorate two trustees of Schacht, ousted yesterday from the presidency. Friedrich W. Dreyse was succeeded as vice-president by Rudolph Brinkmann, right-hand man of Schacht's successor as president, Economics Minister Walther Funk.

Both Dreyse, the board's oldest member, and Ernst Huebel, the other director removed, joined Schacht in opposing unrestricted spending and financing by piling up huge short term debts. Their ousting left little doubt that the shelving of Schacht resulted from sharp differences of opinion with ambitions of Nazi leaders.

Schacht May Face Charge

There were indications that Schacht, around whose head the storm broke yesterday, might be charged with continuing negotiations with George Rublee, American director of the inter-governmental committee on refugees, concerning emigration of German Jews.

Brinkmann, whom Hitler named director of the reichsbank and Funk immediately made vice-president, was one of Schacht's four closest collaborators but parted company with him when Funk was appointed economics minister in Schacht's stead in 1937.

Salem Quiet As Solons Leave Town

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Salem was quiet today, with many Oregon legislators out of town and few committees in session. Both houses adjourned before noon yesterday, but there were prospects of fireworks Monday when two vital bills are scheduled to be debated.

On the Monday afternoon calendar is Governor Charles A. Sprague's disputed bill amending the state unemployment compensation law so that it will conform with national statutes.

The senate committee on revision of laws reported it out "do pass," after minor revisions. Organized labor, whose leaders continue certification of the Oregon unemployment law can only be gained through repeal of the anti-picketing law, is expected to oppose the Sprague bill.

Barcelona's Fall Predicted In Week

HENDAYE, French-Spanish Frontier, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Dispatches from nationalist Spain said today that the next seven days might prove decisive in the insurgent drive on Barcelona. Dispatches which passed through the hands of loyalist censors, admitted grave losses to government troops and intimated pointedly that preparations were being made to evacuate Barcelona.

Gen. Francisco Franco, the insurgent chieftain, in a report sent from his advanced headquarters, said that the campaign was approaching its climax.

Nationalist authorities announced that the Count of Montseny had been named president of the Barcelona provincial council and that a town council for Barcelona would be announced today.

The loyalists lost yesterday 53 villages and the key route of Iguadala and Vendrell. The insurgents overwhelmed the entire province of Tarragona. Loyalists admitted that the nationalists were only 30 miles from the capital by air line—45 by highway.

Fish Delivered On Columbia Fewer

ASTORIA, Ore., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Fish received at stations on both sides of the Columbia river in 1938 were about 6,800,000 pounds less than the total for 1937, state fish commission figures, released last night, indicated.

The total 1937 receipts came to 10,005,700 pounds of which 555,000 pounds were ocean-caught. The 1938 catch including only that through the summer reached 9,856,743 pounds of which 247,970 were ocean-caught. The fall catch was expected to raise this figure between three and four million, bringing the annual total to about 12,800,000.

Total food-fish receipts in the Columbia during 1938 was 13,003,518 pounds, exclusive of tuna, a severe drop from the 1937 figure.

Rescuers Rush To Aid Of Sinking Craft

Ship Bobs On Ocean Off Maryland Shore As Flight Halted

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The British flying boat Cavalier carrying eight passengers and a crew of five, came down at sea today off the Maryland coast and was reported in its final radio message to be sinking.

The flying boat which left Port Washington, Long Island, at 10:38 a. m. for the five and one-half hour flight to Bermuda, sent an S. O. S. at 1:13 p. m. from a position approximately 150 miles east of Ocean City, Md.—not quite half the way to its destination.

Rescue agencies were mobilized immediately. Two coast guard airplanes took off from Floyd Bennett field. Three coast guard cutters, the Champlain, the Icarus and the Mendota, on patrol duty off the coast were ordered to the scene.

Storm at Sea

Seas at the scene where the Cavalier came down were reported rough by the New York coast guard.

Two steamers, the tanker Esso Baytown and the City of Rayville, turned from their courses and started for the Cavalier. They were reported to be the closest ships. The City of Rayville was reported only a short distance away.

Two Canadian destroyers were reported to have left Bermuda in an effort to reach the Cavalier.

Radio reports to the coast guard in Washington said the Cavalier

Picketing Of Iron For Japan Continues

LONG BEACH, Calif., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Chinese picketing of ships loading scrap iron for Japan continued today, with longshoremen declaring they had stopped work on the ships for their personal safety.

"The men were called off the job because of the increasing danger of injury from the rapidly growing picket line," said Ernest Brown, president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union.

"We are not concerned if the materials are considered contraband of war. That is a matter for the government to decide."

Francis J. McGowan, president of the waterfront employers' association of southern California, charged "this particular case is but one of many similar cases where commerce has been tied up in the port by refusal of longshoremen to work, all too frequently through cases and issues entirely outside the scope of employer-employee relations."

Administration Chiefs Start Relief Fight

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Administration leaders began an uphill fight today to override a senate appropriation sub-committee's decision to support the $725,000,000 deficiency relief appropriation approved by the house, which represented a cut of $150,000,000 in the amount asked by President Roosevelt.

Behind-the-scenes maneuvering began as the full committee met to act on the sub-committee's recommendations.

The sub-committee wrapped its proposals in compromise language designed to prohibit wholesale relief roll reductions during February and March. It opened the way for the president to demand an additional appropriation in the event of an "emergency," and required elimination of "chiselers" from the rolls.

Sub-Committee Chairman Alva B. Adams, D. Colo., predicted that the full committee would approve the revised bill "by a narrow vote," but that "the committee probably will get the wily beat out of it on the floor of the senate as the appropriations committee usually does when it makes an honest effort to economize."
