MOSCOW, Idaho, Jan. 20.—(Special)—Oregon's fortress of champions held against the onslaught of the Vandals here Friday night. The final score: 38 to 30. A few windows were cracked by the challengers as they threw enough stones in the first half to tie the count five times.

But Oregon led all the way, except at the very beginning. The first half was slow and close. The Webfoots led at the end of the period by four points, 19 to 15. As the game speeded, the Hobson crew pulled away for a 10 point lead at several points. But once, when the Vandals threatened to get rough late in the game, they cut the margin to only four points.

Oregon men missed only three free throws, canning 6 out of 9. Idaho did even better, tallying on 8 of 10 attempts. Webfoots attempted 52 baskets, 16 of them being good. Idaho's 48 attempts found 11 successful ones.

Laddie Gale led the Oregonians for total points with 10. Dick was close with 9. But it was Idaho's Harris who bounded about for 13 to take the evening's honors.

Dick Scores First

The game, played before 3,000 fans, opened slow and was a zig-zag contest throughout the first half. Oregon's Dick scored immediately after the tip, but Barrett cancelled it in only a few seconds. Idaho followed with another to give the Vandans a 4 to 2 lead, the one and only of the game. Anet took only a second to tie it up and Johansen snapped the ball from the opposition for another and put his team in front, 6-4.

Smith acted on Gale's foul but Dick scored the better for a fielder. Harris retaliated, however, to put the score 8 to 7. Harris scored a foul to tie it up with 10 minutes gone in the half. Gale's right hander on Oregon ahead, but it was no use, for Belko tied it again. Gale scored a foul but Belko nullified that, to knot it the fifth time at 11.

Pavalunas Cans Pair

Gale put the Webfoots ahead, finally with two foul shots and a basket. Pavalunas knocked two more through to put the score at 17-11. After several minutes, Belko slammed another one, followed by Wintermute with a closed-in shot. Ramey and Barrett pushed foul shots to leave the score favoring Oregon, 19 to 13, at the end of the half.

Wintermute and Dick found baskets and Gale hit the hoop from the foul line to give Oregon a 21 to 15 advantage. Dick's foul point gave his buddies a 10 point lead with four minutes gone in the second. Dick pounded the maple for another basket and a 27 to 15 score on the boards. Ramey was fouled by Anet and made the toss and Johansen did likewise on an offense by Belko. But the Vandal captain evened it up shortly with a shot given him by Johansen. Smith and Belko earned baskets separated by one by Gale, all within a breath. Harris followed, leaving the score at 30-23.

Six Scoreless Minutes

Six minutes elapsed before another score. Then Harris won a field goal and Barrett a foul to bring Idaho within four points, 30-26. Anet and Gale hit the basket and Harris helped Idaho a bit before Wintermute made the score 36 to 28. With three minutes left, Pavalunas earned another. Harris stopped Oregon's stalling as the game ended with a quickie shot. Final: Oregon 38; Idaho, 30.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 21.—(Special)—Ralph Vaughn of the University of Southern California shattered the Pacific coast conference scoring record held by Hank Luisetti last night when he rang up 36 points and led the Trojans to a 69-36 victory over the University of California at Los Angeles in a southern division basketball game.

Vaughn surpassed the mark of the former Stanford flash by six points when he scored 16 field goals and four free throws—12 points in the first half and 24 in the second—for one of the greatest individual performances witnessed on a far western basketball court.

In scoring their 25th consecutive victory over UCLA, the Trojans also tied the team record of 69 points set by Stanford a year ago. Vaughn, runner-up to Luisetti in southern division standings in 1935, broke up the ball game in the second half when he slapped in nine field goals.

BEARS TOP STANFORD

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Jan. 21.—(Special)—The University of California's skyscraping basketball team increased its lead in the southern division of the Pacific Coast conference last night with a 45-29 victory over Stanford before 3,500 fans here.

Ivor Thomas, California transfer from San Jose State, put the Bears ahead with a field goal after eight minutes of play and California never lost the advantage.

At halftime the score was 21-13 and in the closing minutes of play the six-foot-plus Bear players, coached by Nibs Price, were drawing away from a smaller and California never lost the advantage.

McCreedy scored the first field goal by Mann and DeAutremont and free throws by Richardson and Mann gave Uni high a 6 to 4 lead at the end of the first period. Richardson started off the second quarter with a free throw, but a field goal and a free throw by McPherson tied the score at 7-all. Gatlin dropped in a gift, but a field goal by McCreedy gave the Millers a one-point lead. DeAutremont and Mann sank field goals to put the Tide out ahead, 12 to 9, at the half.

In the second half Uni high seemed to have hits its stride and ran up a 13-point lead before McPherson finally sank a long howitzer from the center of the floor for the Millers. McCreedy then tossed in a field goal and a free throw. Then a field goal by Richardson for the Tide and one for the Millers by McPherson made the score at the end of the third period 25 to 16 for Uni high.

DeAutremont Top Scorer
Chuck DeAutremont took high point honors for the game with eight counters, while Mann of Uni high and McCreedy and McPherson of Springfield all had seven each. McPherson, Miller guard, was ejected from the game near the end of the third period with four personals chalked up against him.

The floor play of McCreedy, Springfield forward, and DeAutremont, Uni high guard, along with the backboard play of Bob Polard, Miller center, were stand-out features of the game.

The Uni high B squad, led by Fox with 8 points, took a 26 to 19 decision from the Miller reserves in a preliminary game.

Summary:
U. C. L. A. (45) SPRINGFIELD (29)
Gatlin 10, Richardson 8, McCreedy 7, Thomas 6, Price 5, Miller 4, DeAutremont 3, Price 2, Wilson 2, Stump 2, Hemmlock 1.

Cottage Grove Trims Junction, 32-11

COTTAGE GROVE, Jan. 21.—(Special)—The Cottage Grove high school basketball team kept pace with University high as leaders of the district 7 league here Friday night by scoring a convincing 32-11 victory over Junction City high.

A crowd of some 300 fans packed the local prep gym to watch the Lions completely outclass the invaders who had lost but two pre-season games until Friday night. The triumph definitely established the Grovers as district title contenders.

Cottage Grove went score-crazy in the opening period and held the Tigers to a single freethrow—by Wilhelm—and posted a 10-1 advantage. The second period was one of the lowest scoring eight minutes of district basketball. Ralph Blake's gift for Cottage Grove was the only score made and the winners held an 11-1 advantage at halftime.

Larsen collected a fielder for Junction City mid-way in the third quarter, but it was the only tally for the Tigers during the period that saw Cottage Grove roll up a 24-3 lead.

A flock of Grove substitutes went into the game in the final frame and Junction managed to garner three more field goals and a pair of freethrows.

In a second-team game that opened Friday's program, Cottage Grove registered a 34-17 triumph over the Junction City second team.

SEATTLE, Jan. 21.—(Special)—Oregon State's scoring deficiencies were evident again here last night when the Beavers, making only one field goal in the last period and no more than five in the first, dropped a northern division coast conference basketball game to Washington, 34-21. Six thousand persons watched.

The Beavers, by dint of a hard defensive stand in the first half, held the Huskies even, 11-11.

Oregon State started furiously, scoring three quick baskets by Mandie and Garbould, and taking a 6-0 lead. Washington called time and talked over the Beaver attack, which it speedily solved, for from then on Oregon State got only two baskets.

The Washingtonians slowly cut away the Beaver lead, with Williamson scoring the Huskies' first five points. With the tally tied the two clubs threw up tight defenses and there was little additional scoring until the half ended.

Oregon State took a momentary second-half lead when Kolberg caged a free throw, but Williamson tied the score again and put Washington ahead by converting three successive foul heaves. That was the signal for the Huskies to go to town, and the purple dribblers began piling up lead as Oregon State faded.

Williamson's nine free throws in 11 attempts aided him to take scoring honors with 11 points. Washington tried 46 field shots and Oregon State 34. The Huskies used a fast, driving style of play, contrasting with O. S. C.'s deliberate style. It was Washington's third conference win and Oregon State's fourth loss.
