A few small transactions have been closed on country-packed mixed grade lots of three-eighths and quarter blood bright fleece wools at around 26 to 28 cents, in the grease, to be delivered east in May.

New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, March 21—(AP)—European war fears lessened somewhat in world markets today and securities regained a portion of their recent declines. Transfers approximated 700,000 shares.

Traders in New York took their cut from a buying move that got under way earlier at London, Paris and Amsterdam and leading issues were pushed up 1 to 3 points.

Sterling and the French franc were unchanged near mid-afternoon, the former at $4.68¼ and the latter at 2.64 13/16.

American Telephone, among stocks, jumped more than 3 at the best, and improvement was shown by U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, Consolidated Edison, Anaconda, Westinghouse, Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, U. S. Gypsum, Philip Morris, Santa Fe, Chesapeake & Ohio and Standard Oil of N. J.

U. S. Governments and rail loans pointed the way for a rising jaunt in the bond department.

Mussolini Is Quiet, All Europe Buzzes

By MILTON BRONNER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

ROME, March 20—Andre Maurois, French Academician, once wrote a book which made a hit with the English—"The Silences of Colonel Bramble." But right now it is the strange silences of Duce Benito Mussolini which are intriguing the people of Europe.

It was announced that, at the conclusion of a meeting of the Fascist Grand Council in Rome, the Duce would make an important speech. His silence was 24 carat gold.

Later, at two or three other functions, the report was widespread that the Duce would deliver a speech which would make Europe sit up and take notice. Nothing happened.

British Press Hopes

This oratorical self-denial, this swallowing of words unuttered, has given rise to a lot of wishful thinking in a certain part of the weekly London press. They write as if the Duce and Hitler were almost on the outs. They talk about the Duce being in a fury.

The hint is that Hitler is not keen about Mussolini's demands upon France for Djibouti, the seaport of French Somaliland in East Africa, and for the French protectorate of Tunis in North Africa.

One very immediate cause for Mussolini's unwillingness to disturb the world in the last days of February and first days of March has been the death of Pope Pius XI, necessitating the election of a new head of the Roman Catholic Church. The Duce is a keen barometer when it comes to the feelings of the Italian people. He knows the overwhelming majority are loyal and faithful to the Church. So he also knew, with the Church in mourning, that it would be a very bad time to start upsetting Europe with the fear of a posible war.

Whatever joint pressure Mussolini and Hitler may have concerted to bring upon France and Britain, there is pretty apt to be a respite until the end of March.

By that time Pope Pius XII will have taken full hold of his great office and will probably have presided at some great religious ceremonies. A British mission to discuss ways and means of avoiding a clash for markets between Germany and Britain will also have about completed its visit to Germany.

However, March 26, which marks the 20th anniversary of Fascism, will give Il Duce another opportunity to break his silence.

U. S. Provides An Obstacle

Within the past few weeks a new element has also entered to disturb the calculations of the dictators—Roosevelt and Congress.

The proposed sale of large numbers of airplanes to France and England, the huge defense bill already passed by an overwhelming majority by the House of Representatives, the growing press criticism of the belligerent attitude of the totalitarian states—all these things have been weighed in Berlin and Rome.

The developments in America may not finally stop the plans of the dictators. But they have already slowed up the time-table.

OBJECTION

EUGENE—(To the Editor)—Your paper just informed us that Mr. Kennedy went to Rome to represent us at the coronation of Pipe Pius XII.

I feel that this action is a violation of the fundamental principle of the separation of church and state.

I believe that as many as possible of us should write to the president, to our congressman, J. R. Mott, to Senators Holman and McNary, protesting this action. We should do it now, before we have an ambassador from the Vatican at Washington, and ours at the Vatican. Sincerely,

MARTIN P. SIMON.

MORE WORK, LESS WAR

PORTLAND, March 21.—(AP)—Supply more jobs and there will be less war talk, counseled Robert C. Graham, vice president of the Graham-Paige Motor corporation, Detroit, here yesterday.
