CHILDREN'S COUGHS (due to colds)

Don't let distress of chest colds or spasmodic croupy coughs due to colds go untreated! Rub Children's Musterole on child's throat, chest and back at once. This milder form of regular Musterole penetrates the surface skin, warms and stimulates local circulation. Floods the bronchial tubes with its soothing, relieving vapors. Musterole brings such speedy relief because it's MORE than "just a salve." Recommended by many doctors and nurses. Three strengths: Regular, Children's (mild) and Extra Strong, 40¢. Approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau. All druggists.

Willakenzie Grange Plans Visits

WILLAKENZIE, March 21.—(Special)—Willakenzie grange members enjoyed a penny potluck dinner before their regular business session and program last week. During the business session Truman Chase gave a brief summary of the legislature. Friday, March 24, at 8 p. m. was the time announced for the production of "A Family Affair," a play being put on by the Junior Recreation group and coached by Clarence Rutherford. Harry Chase, as spokesman for the Boy Scout committee, announced that Virgil Maharry and Clarence Rutherford had been chosen to be the scout leaders. A meeting of prospective scouts and their parents was held Monday at the Willagillespie school.

Master Joseph Haladay announced that Wednesday night, April 12, had been chosen as the date for the visit to Franklin grange and that the second edition of the "Willakenzie Patron," is in the press. Any member not receiving a copy is to notify either the master or the lecturer.

Mrs. L. T. Wiseman, lecturer, stated that the county festival play would be put on at Long Tom grange on March 22, Santa Clara grange on March 31, and on April 5 at Willakenzie. A group of three plays is put on in the evening for which there is no charge. Refreshments are usually sold.

The next regular meeting of the grange on April 1 will feature the exemplification of the first and second degrees. It is expected that the West Point grange will bring a class of candidates. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hover will furnish the decorations for this meeting. The refreshment committee will be Mr. and Mrs. George Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Griggs.

The program for the evening was in charge of the agricultural committee with Roy Corum as chairman. Carl Rutherford led the group in the singing. The topic for the program was "Local Co-Operatives." W. A. Ayres of the Eugene Oil Cooperative told about this organization and of its benefits to the farmer and stated that the organization, though only five years old, now has 424 members. The Pacific Cooperative Poultry Producers were represented by Director Lewis Clark, who gave some interesting data concerning the organization and business of the Eugene plant. The final speaker was J. D. Hamlin, who represented the oldest "co-op" in the section, the Eugene Fruit Growers. Since its inception in 1907, Mr. Hamlin stated that the cannery has increased its output to nearly double in one day to what they canned in one year in the beginning. With a membership of 2533 persons the output numbered 1,200,000 cases in 1937. During the 31 years of its life the Eugene Fruit Growers has only had two presidents, H. F. McCornack for seven years until his death, and M. H. Harlow for the remaining 24 years.
