Scout Troop Begins 10th Year Of Work

CRESWELL, April 21.—(Special)—Creswell troop 28, Boy Scouts, are re-registering for another year, the tenth year of continuous operation. Of the total membership of 17, two are life members, two star scouts, two first class, two second class, and four regulars, seven of them being underfoot, less than six months. L. Zinkler, scout master, who has been with the troop since its organization in March, 1930, reports the past year one of the most successful years of scouting and several more applicants are in. The troop is officered by eight members: Arthur Olson, troop committee chairman, E. A. Schwering, E. Smith and E. W. Hoagland. E. Olson and Mr. Schwering have been connected with the troop for the past eight years. Harold Gwyther, assistant scoutmaster, has also been with the troop since its beginning. Earl Smith and Billy Hoagland are the two assistant scoutmasters, all of them being Eagle Scouts. The troop is sponsored by the Methodist Episcopal church.

Legion Has District Meeting At Oakridge

OAKRIDGE, April 21.—(Special)—Cascade unit and post of the American Legion and auxiliary of the district meeting of the Willamette council this week in the Legion hall. The post and unit members met separately for business meetings and later met together for a social. Mrs. Lydia Horsfall of Marshfield, department vice president, was present, having taken the place of the department president, who could not attend. Mrs. Horsfall gave a talk, touching on the various activities of the auxiliary. She stated that only 100 more members were needed to reach the department membership quota of 5000. Mrs. Vada Wheatstone of Lebanon, past district president, presided at the meeting in the absence of the president. Reports were read from the units of the district. Units represented were Lebanon and Cascade.

Mrs. Charles Croner served as secretary in the absence of the regular secretary. A nominating committee was named and will be asked to have the report ready for the next regular meeting, which will be held in Newport April 29. A round-table discussion of auxiliary work was held and the subject of the feasibility of starting an auxiliary home for older women was discussed. Mrs. Walter Blakely, president of the unit, presented the two honor guests with corsages in behalf of the unit.

Members of the post were invited for refreshments later. The post meeting was presided over by Mr. Swanson of Corvallis and Adjutant Jordan. Short talks were given by a number of the visitors.

City Beautification Contest Started

JUNCTION CITY, April 21.—(Special)—The following proclamation has been issued by Mayor Charles R. Nelson to promote interest in the city beautification program: "Whereas, the appearance of a city is one of the surest indexes of its character and prosperity, and, whereas, well kept, neatly painted homes, yards, and places of business reflect credit upon the community, now, therefore, I Charles R. Nelson, mayor of the city of Junction City, do hereby proclaim April 20 to June 30 as a city beautification period, and I do urge and request that all citizens do all in their power to improve and beautify the appearance of their homes and places of business, both for their own pleasure and for the welfare and appearance of the community."

The contest is now officially under way with five lawn divisions competing: First division, lawn up to one year old; second division, from one year to 10 years old; third division, lawns over 10 years old; fourth division, shrubbery and landscaping; fifth division, rock gardens. There are three prizes in each division, $3, $2, and $1. Several prizes are being offered by business firms. This contest is open to all Junction City citizens.
