Obituaries

Mrs. W. C. Evans
JUNCTION CITY, May 20—(Special)—Mrs. W. C. Evans, resident of Junction City for many years, died Friday evening at her home. Although she had been seriously ill, her death was not expected at this time. She was born Clara Kriemelmeyer, January 13, 1885, at Cottage, Iowa, and came to Oregon in 1904. She taught school at Elmira for one term and in July, 1905, married William C. Evans at Eugene. That fall, the couple moved to North Dakota, where they lived eight years, returning to Oregon in 1913. They lived on a farm west of Junction City until the fall of 1915, when they moved to their present home. Mrs. Evans was an active member of the Christian church.

Survivors are: Mr. Evans; six children, James, Gordon and Mrs. Edythe Adams, all of North Bend, Mrs. Emma Robinson of Santa Clara, Floyd, in the United States navy with home base in Connecticut, and a son, Marlon, at home; five grandchildren; and five brothers and two sisters in the midwest.
Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. from Miller's chapel, Rev. A. B. Cromwell officiating. Interment will be in the Junction City I. O. O. F. cemetery.
