50-Year Women To Be Honored

By MARIAN LOWRY
PLANS and committee chairmen for the annual meeting and breakfast of the State Association of University Women for Saturday, June 3, were announced this week by Mrs. Alberta S. McMurphy, president.

This event, a tradition for many years in connection with the University of Oregon commencement, will be held at the Osburn hotel at eight-thirty o'clock in the morning on that date.

Reservations for the affair should be made direct to the hotel, telephone 891.

Fifty Year Women

Honor guests for the breakfast will be the two fifty-year class women, Mrs. Charles A. Hardy of Eugene and Mrs. Ada Sharples Young of Seattle; Mrs. Frederick M. Hunter and Mrs. Donald M. Erb.

Officers of the association include: Mrs. McMurphy, president; Mrs. Frederic G. Stickels, first vice-president; Miss Eileen Hickson of Portland, second vice-president; Mrs. Walter Banks, Eugene, secretary; Mrs. J. O. Holt, Eugene, treasurer.

Committees announced for the meeting include:

Nominating—Miss Frances Elizabeth Baker, Miss Mozelle Hair, Mrs. Raymond Hendrickson.

Breakfast—Mrs. Gordon B. Fish. Mothers and daughters attendance—Miss Martha Goodrich.

Table decorations—Mrs. J. O. Holt, Mrs. O. F. Stafford, Mrs. Frank Loomis.

Alumnae and seniors attendance—Miss Alberta Roberts.

Publicity—Mrs. Robert M. Fischer, Jr.

Corsages—Mrs. C. A. E. Whitton.

Missing from the schedule this year will be the annual flower and fern procession, a traditional event with the women since 1899. In meeting, Friday evening, the association executive group postponed the event one year in protest to the crowded commencement weekend calendar arranged on the campus this year.

Installation Held

Installation was held for President, Mrs. Robert M. Fischer, Jr.; first vice-president, Mrs. Russell D. Evans; second vice-president, Miss Irene Ritchie; Mrs. Fanny Marlatte, secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Roman, treasurer; Mrs. W. H. Hodes, Mrs. Della Borin, Mrs. Harry Veach, board members.

A jeweled past president's pin was presented Mrs. Turnipseed.

The tables were unusually beautifully decorated with large bouquets of white and pale pink peonies, burning pastel colored candles being set in among the blooms, while the main centerpiece was a combination of snapdragons and lupin in rose, orchid, and similar shades. At the conclusion of the banquet a large bouquet from each of the men's service clubs in the city, Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions, and Active, was presented the new Zonta president.

Guests attending the meeting included: Dr. Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Hazel Cook, Miss Lillian McDonald (president), Miss Helen Yockey, Miss Mabel Savage, Mrs. Edna Hunt, all from Salem; Miss Mary C. Campbell, secretary of the Portland club, and from Eugene, Mrs. Elisha Large, Mrs. Clifford L. Constance, Mrs. Harold B. Crosland, Miss Beryl Deford, Mrs. Gladys Donhart, Miss Robin Jones, Mrs. Ernestine Ellis, Miss Polly French, Miss Hazel Fishwood and Miss Margaret Hemenway, who was one of the charter members.

Mrs. W. C. Clubb, Mrs. Hazel Rader, and Mrs. W. H. Hodes were in charge of arrangements for the banquet. Mme. Rose McGrew was chairman for the program. Miss Gladys Chase, Mrs. Collins, and Mrs. Fanny Marlatte acted as a greeting committee. Mrs. Lillian Eldridge and Miss Ritchie assisted with tickets.

The next meeting of the club will be a luncheon gathering on Friday, June 2.
