Starr-Walkley

CRESWELL, May 20. — (Special) — A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon at four o'clock at the Condon chapel for the first Congregational church in Eugene when Miss Lena Walkley became the bride of Edwin Starr of Bellfountain. Lighted candelabra and bowls of pink and white roses formed the background for the service which was performed by Rev. Williston Wirt. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Clarence Halderson. She also played "I Love You Truly," during the ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of blue and white sharkskin with coat effect and carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart roses and pink and white sweet peas. There were no attendants. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cline Walkley and graduated from the Walker high school with the class of 1932. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Starr of Bellfountain and a member of the graduating class of 1931 of the high school of Bellfountain. Only members of the two families and a few close friends were present. The couple left immediately for a short trip south. They will make their home in Bellfountain.

IT'S A TODAS COSAS ORIGINAL
A TRULY AMERICAN DRESS

Made of buckaroo cotton bandannas—cool, colorful, color-fast, and so precisely tailored that this dress might bear a Paris label, although, actually, it originated in New Mexico. Wear the blouse tucked in for street wear—wear it out for picnics or play. Either way it has headline interest for any woman or miss who likes talk-making clothes. The generously pleated skirt is identical back and front. In red or blue. Sizes 12 to 18.
