

Annual School Elections Are Reported From County Communities

Sunday School Holds Anniversary Program

DEERHORN, June 21.—(Special)—The Deerhorn Sunday school recently celebrated its first anniversary, having been organized a year ago in the Thienes park, where out-door meetings were held all summer. The meetings will be continued in the school building this summer as during the past months. Officers were elected for the coming year, including Mrs. L. S. Brown, superintendent; Miss Marveta Holmes, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Gale Walker, secretary; Miss Ina Deadmond, treasurer; Carl Thienes, librarian; Mrs. Jean Barreau and Miss Margaret King, pianists; Mrs. Gale Walker, assistant pianist; Stanley and Phillip Mallory, teachers of the Sunday school, are at present teaching daily vacation Bible school at Fairview, under J. J. Ray, A. S. S. U. missionary.

A daily vacation Bible school will be held at the Deerhorn school house under the direction of Miss Della Beattie, independent children's Bible class teacher of Portland. Miss Beattie will take the older group and Mrs. L. S. Brown, the younger children, including pre-school, first, second and third grades. Each teacher will have assistants. Miss Beattie has held children's classes, five a week, for 15 years, since coming from the active mission field in Utah. She trained in Chicago. The date for the beginning of the school will be announced later.

A fund has been started for song books for the local Sunday school. The organization is now using graded work for the juniors, and intermediates and will get quarterlies for the beginners, primaries and adults this month. Much of the lesson material up to now has been donated.

Missionary work of the local school has included relief for the Jews, each month; contributions to the Japanese mission at Shinshu, Japan, where Miss Grace Farnham is in charge, and a contribution to the missionary work in the Ozark mountains in a needy section.

The Sunday school begins at 10 o'clock each Sunday.
