Recipe Ideas

By NEA SERVICE

SEVERAL readers write for more Swedish recipes. Here are a few pretty smooth aswers, though they are on the saucy side.

Plain Vanilla Sauce
One-half teaspoon vanilla extract, 1 cup milk, 1 cup cream, 1 1/2 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 tablespoon flour, 3 egg yolks.
Bring milk to boil with cream and sugar added. Add flour mixed with a little cold milk. Boil for exactly two minutes. Remove from fire, add yolks and beat briskly. Return to very low fire and continue to beat until sauce thickens. Do not allow it to boil again. Remove from fire and continue to beat until sauce is cold. Then add vanilla, mix. Chill.
That comes from Hans Kegik, chef at the Swedish Pavilion at the New York world's fair. He says Americans can't seem to get enough of the Swedish fruit compotes served with this smooth sauce. He suggests these other sauces for smorgasbord, or cold buffet.

Cream Dressing
(For fish and vegetable aspies)
One cup cream, 2 egg yolks, 1 teaspoon mustard, 1 1/2 teaspoons vinegar, 1 1/2 teaspoons sugar, pinch white pepper.
Whip cream to froth, stir in egg yolks, one at a time, add vinegar, seasoning and beat until smooth. Chill.

Mustard Sauce
Here's something for your Sunday night buffet to serve with cold hard-cooked eggs cut in half.
Two tablespoons butter, 3 tablespoons flour, 2 1/2 teaspoons dry mustard, 2 cups fish stock, salt and sugar to taste, 1/2 tablespoon very cold butter.
Heat butter, add flour and mustard. Stir over heat for 2 minutes. Add fish stock gradually, stirring, and cook for 8 minutes. Season.
Add well-beaten egg yolk, if desired, for extra richness. Stir in cold butter.
Serve in separate bowl with boiled white fish, salmon, or hard-cooked eggs.
