

CITY NEWS NOTES

New Job For Cash—
W. H. "Bill" Cash has received word from Washington that he has been appointed field agent for the railroad retirement pension fund, with headquarters in Portland. Mr. Cash is a former student of the University of Oregon and had been ticket salesman at the S. P. depot for several years. He will make his home in Portland but the nature of his work will allow him to keep contact with his many Eugene friends.

Will Certify Seed—
LeRoy Hansen, agronomist at the state college, will be here Friday and will go to different farms with Claire Wilkes, assistant secretary of the Lane County Agricultural Conservation association, to make field inspection of Bent grass for seed certification. Farmers who want inspection must make application at the office of the county agent, it is announced.

Committee to Meet—
The new county committee on school district reorganization will meet at the office of County School Superintendent L. C. Moffitt Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The time will mostly be spent in discussing the provisions of the new law under which the committee was created, Superintendent Moffitt said Thursday.

Eugeneans at Marshfield—
E. J. Gustafson of Eugene, with his wife and small son, has gone to Marshfield to remain for several weeks until the new Coca Cola bottling plant there is in full operation. Mr. Gustafson is production engineer at the concern's Eugene headquarters.

Flowers Contributed—
The new postoffice lobby was brightened Thursday by several large bouquets of gladioli, contributed by Mahlon Sweet, Postmaster F. L. Armitage reported. Vases were donated by Bob Callahan.

Leaves Town—
L. Cogley, taken off the south-bound Southern Pacific train Wednesday and arrested on a drunk and disorderly charge, received a $25 suspended fine in police court Thursday. He left town.

Return from Missouri—
Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cochran have returned from a month's visit in Missouri with Mrs. Cochran's relatives. They returned by way of Yellowstone park.

Ice Cream Social—
Townsend club No. 11 will hold an ice cream social and garden party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Crump, 1342 Eleventh avenue west, Friday night, beginning at 7:30. In case of rain the regular meeting will be held. Everyone has been invited.

Picnic in Portland—
Former residents of Junction City will meet for their annual picnic at Laurelhurst park in Portland Sunday, July 16. A social hour will be on the program in the afternoon. Basket lunch will be served at 1 o'clock.

To Fair—
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foote, Mrs. Donald Shreve and Mrs. Emory D. Lake, left Eugene Thursday morning for a 10-day trip into California to visit the fair at San Francisco. Mr. Foote is superintendent of the buildings at the university.

Fined $25—
Roy Wayne, arrested Wednesday on a drunk and disorderly charge, was fined $25 in police court Thursday. Mrs. Wayne, who was also arrested, received a $25 suspended fine.

Hoosier Picnic Sunday—
The annual Hoosier picnic and basket dinner will be held Sunday, July 16, at the south end of Fourth street directly west of the north end of Mary's river bridge, in Corvallis.
