SEE "AMERICAN"
A COLONIAL CRYSTAL
FOR CONTEMPORARY TASTE

Long ago, a craftsman produced in glass, the unique, geometric pattern pictured above. It became a favorite design; reflecting the rich and warm hospitality of early New England life.

Recreated by Fostoria, "American" is again a national trend. Modern handicrafting makes it less expensive than the original heirlooms. Nevertheless, modern "American" holds all of its ancestral fascination.

Antique, in conception, "American" is a perfect companion for homes which are in the modern trend toward colonial simplicity. Or for any setting of cozy comfort and warm hospitality.

"American" excels not only in beauty, but in durability, too... a rugged crystal for years of daily service... an extraordinarily inexpensive open stock pattern in a selection of 175 separate pieces. Now on display on our ..... floor.
