CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 21 —(AP)— Wheat prices closed with small net gains today but corn slumped about a cent to new six year lows.

The recovery movement in wheat which was in evidence in other leading world markets, reflected to some extent purchasing of commercial and speculative interests attracted by the low prices established yesterday. Strength in securities also was a factor but most attention in the wheat trade was centered on the government export subsidy program. Federal officials denied rumors this would be discontinued and indicated sales might be on a larger scale soon. The government was reported offering wheat to exporters on a flat price indicating a substantial subsidy.

Wheat closed ¼-⅜ higher than yesterday, July 64-64⅛, Sept. 64⅜-½, corn ¼-½ down, July 39¼-39, Sept. 40⅝-¾, oats ½-1 cent lower.

BOSTON WOOL

BOSTON, July 21—(AP)—(USDA)—A good volume of business was being transacted today on the Boston wool market at strong prices. Fine territory wools in original bags were bringing around 68 cents scoured basis for good French combing lengths and 65 to 66 cents, scoured basis, for average to short French combing length. Twelve months Texas wools in original bags were bringing mostly 67 to 70 cents, scoured basis with prices tending to the high side of the range. Some houses were refusing bids of 33 cents, in the grease, for graded combing, quarter-blood bright fleece wools.

New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, July 21—(AP)—With both foreign and domestic news exhibiting a more hopeful tone marketwise, leading stocks today rounded out recoveries of 1 to more than 3 points.

The list jogged at comfortably higher levels until around mid-day. Then, following advices from Berlin officialdom decried war talk and indicated a peaceful settlement of the Danzig question was expected, a burst of buying hit the ticker tape with such force the recording machinery fell behind floor dealings for a while. Steels, motors, rails, aircrafts and specialties were in the lead. There was an assortment of new year's highs.

Despite frequent quiet intervals, transfers for the five hours approximated 1,300,000 shares.

The market refused to falter when President Roosevelt at his press conference contended recent shelving of neutrality legislation would hurt business. Wall street opinion, generally, was to the contrary.

International securities at London developed strength and the Tokyo exchange was buoyant on reports chances had improved for an adjustment of the British-Japanese far eastern controversy.

Heavy purchasing in New York's textile markets was seen as a bullish omen as activities in the field have often called the turn on industrial swings ahead of other barometers.

Among shares hitting new 1939 tops were Loft, Colgate, Du Pont, Brooklyn Union Gas and Transcontinental & Western Air.

Others prominent on the move included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, American Telephone, Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Union Pacific, Western Union, Consolidated Edison, U. S. Rubber, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Westinghouse, Johns-Manville, Canada Dry, Standard Oil of N. J., Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, Anaconda and Kennecott.

Bonds shot up with stocks. Most commodities did better.

Numerous Ways Of Building Studied

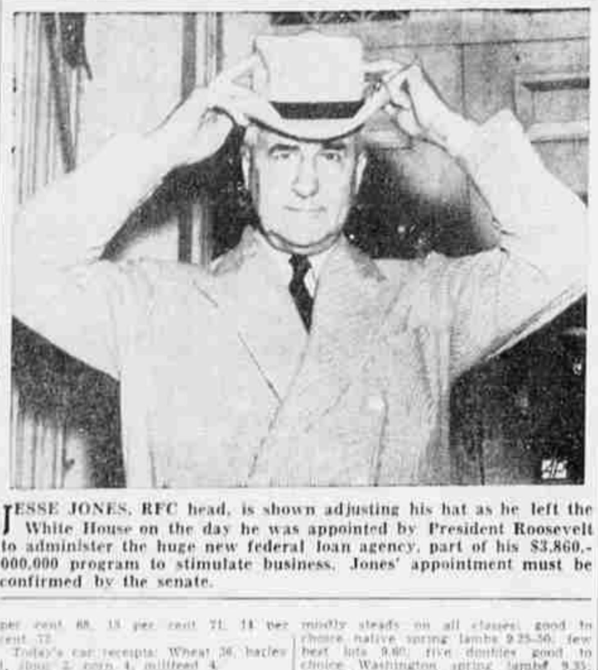
The Federal Housing Administration has no hard and fast rules that govern the methods of construction and building materials that can be used in erecting houses to be offered as security for insured mortgages, according to Howard P. Vermilya, director of the technical division of the FHA.

In general, the following customary methods of construction are acceptable when good materials and workmanship are applied: Wood frame with wood siding or shingles; wood frame with masonry veneer; wood frame with stucco; masonry or masonry block; and reinforced concrete.

Among the New Zealand Maoris, a village maiden performs the task of seeing that no human shadow defiles the food of the tohunga priest or doctor, by passing over it.

Josephine's picture always was worn by Napoleon over his heart. Once, when the glass over it was broken, he paled and cried that she either was unfaithful or ill.

LOVE . . dove . . fish . . wish—In a mood for rhymes, Mitchell Parish works on lyrics for a new song and waits for nibbles in Grossinger lake, N. Y. Parish, who's from Shreveport, wrote the lyrics for "Deep Purple" and "Stardust."



JESSE JONES, RFC head, is shown adjusting his hat as he left the White House on the day he was appointed by President Roosevelt to administer the huge new federal loan agency, part of his $3,860,000,000 program to stimulate business. Jones' appointment must be confirmed by the senate.
