

Eddie Roberts Beats Carter In Title Tilt

The tension was so great that once Roberts pushed Carter in the face several times until the challenger let fly with a right forearm that terminated any further shady actions.

The boys went round and round in the first fall with little advantage until Carter clamped on an unbreakable standing cradle split to win the initial fall after 15 minutes.

It looked like a straight-fall victory for Carter as he opened the second canto with a series of rafter-shaking headlock slams that bounced the champ off the mat like a 175-pound rubber ball. On his back after one of the slams, Roberts drove both feet into Carter's chin and then pressed his rival for the second fall—in 33 seconds of lightning action.

Carter held the advantage during most of the final fall, securing a painful armbar he maneuvered into a hammerlock, then a jack-knife and again nearly winning with another cradle split. But Roberts managed to evade each hold and won in 14 minutes with exactly the same attack he used for the second fall.

It was rumored that Roberts had signed for a second title defense next week—against Bulldog Jackson, most recent ex-champion.

Dean, Clingman Impressive

Dean, the handsome barrel-chested boy from New Orleans, used everything in the books to beat Hill. He took the first fall in 15 minutes with a backbreaker on the ring ropes and a slam. The second fall required 12 minutes, Dean winning with a Boston crab. Despite his defeat, Hill performed well, but was unable to stand up under the brutal punishment handed out by the dopey one.

The Clingman-Small match was one of the roughest of the season. Clingman, looking like a wisp of a lad beside the 200-plus poundage of Small, gave the villain a thorough going over before taking the opening fall in 19 minutes with a jack-knife. Otis twice refused the verdict on a foul when Small broke holds by kneeling Clingman in the groin. Not only did Small knee his rival, but also resorted to eye-gouging and an effective strangle hold.

Repeated foul tactics caused Referee Owen to award the second fall and match to Clingman after six minutes. But before the end Otis got in a few good licks when Small tangled his arms between the top two ring ropes and Clingman peppered him with drop kicks. The Babe came out of that with blood in his eye and virtually liquidated both Clingman and Owen with a two-fisted attack that eventually cost him the match.

Local Softballers Lose To Corvallis

Two Eugene softball teams travelled to Corvallis Thursday night and took a twin defeat. Hewitt's Service Station of the American League was defeated by the Corvallis Whitesides by a count of 7-4 and Army and Navy of the National league took an 8-4 drubbing from the Arboratum CCC, second place club in the Corvallis league.

In the Hewitt's game, the Corvallis softballers jumped to an early lead with a three-run outburst in the third inning, and followed up with two more in the fourth. Hewitt's made the game close in the fifth with a four run barrage of their own. Muller got on an error, Max Simmons walked and Mark Dunn smacked a long homer. Arboratum CCC also had a big inning when they beat Army and Navy, putting together three hits and two errors for a five to two lead which they never relinquished. Howard Robertson hit a homer for the losers.

Speaking of big fish—one of the nicest catches of the season was put on display at Lightning's Thursday evening when Everett Hall of Eugene brought in 10 Redsides for his weight limit. They were all nice fish, but one weighed three and another two pounds. Really nice fish, brother.

Bill Jones Beats Rubenstein's 13-3

A makeshift Rubenstein's softball team lost a loosely-played game to the powerful McMinnville Elks Thursday night by a count of 13 to 3 before a large and greatly disappointed crowd.

The Rubes faced their former ace hurler Bill Jones, who did some fancy pitching for the Elks, and Bill's ex-mates were unable to collect more than three hits, two of them by Smokey Whitfield. Jones had little trouble in handcuffing the "Soft Sitters" except in the first inning when a walk, two errors and a single by Whitfield produced three runs. He hurled shut-out ball and gave only two hits in the last six innings as he set down eight sluggers via the strikeout route.

The McMinnville team had two big innings, the first and the fourth, in which they tallied five runs apiece.

Albany Scores 8-2 Win Over Hills Creek drive through short for a single and McClain slashed out the first of three hits, a double into centerfield. Grant took third. The Hills Creek board of strategy decided to walk the dangerous Oravec, filling the bases and setting up a possible force play, but Joe Leptich was dangerous too. Leptich picked on a high pitch and smacked it through the infield for a single that scored both Grant and McClain.

Oravec took third on McClain's knock, and then scored as he and Leptich engineered a double steal. Bun Kelsay struck out Kentzkow, but gave a walk to Moye. Then Leptich and Moye pulled another double steal, a cutoff play by the Hillbillies failing to function properly. Neal Sater followed up with a single scoring Leptich and Moye with the fourth and fifth runs. Elliott, ninth man to bat in the extended session, struck out.

Billies Score Again It was now 7-1 and Elliot seemed unbeatable. He was clipping the corners unmercifully and when the 'Billies did connect their efforts were infield outs. Only in the eighth, when the second and last Hills run scored, did Elliott allow more than a single hit. Carney singled sharply with one out, took second as the ball rolled through Oravec, and scored as Johnny Dunn gleaned his second hit, a dribbled down the third base line that Shoots couldn't handle.

After Albany picked up the last run on hits by McClain and Leptich, an error by Homer Parks in the first of the ninth, the Hillbillies made a bold effort to rally in the last of the finish inning. Cloninger drew a walk to start the frame and Homer Parks beat out an infield single. Later Cloninger caught the Albany battery napping and stole third. But it didn't phase Mr. Elliott. He whiffed Grover Kelsay, caused Pinch-Hitter "Fuzz" Mauney to ground into a force play that nipped Homer Parks at second, and retired Pinch Hitter Szediak on a ground ball to shortstop.

Albany will meet Silverton Saturday night. If Silverton wins, the Gold Sox are champions. If Albany wins, there'll be another game Sunday.

Recipes of the Week

MRS. M. JOHNSON
Apricot Jam

- 18 cups of sliced apricots.
- Blanched kernels of apricot seeds.
- 3 medium sized oranges.
- 3 medium sized lemons.
- 12 cups sugar.
- 1 bottle of liquid fruit pectin.

Cook apricots without peeling them until soft and then put through coarse sieve to remove peellings. You can do this first but the peellings add a high flavor. Put pulp back in with the kernels sliced thin, the grated rind of the lemons and oranges and their juice, and the sugar. Cook until thick from heat and add pectin, stirring and skimming for 10 minutes. Pour into hot glasses or jars and paraffin or seal once. This will make jam without the addition of pectin. Pectin gives a firmer product.
