

Junction City Postoffice To Remodel In Try For Second Class Status

Most Requirements Already Satisfied

JUNCTION CITY, July 21.—(Special)—Postmaster I. Howard reports that work on remodeling the present location of the postoffice to comply with requirements of a second class office will begin in the near future. New equipment will be installed and rental boxes added up to 300.

The gross receipts of the office for the last two quarters were $290 over the same quarter of 1938. The receipts of the office entitles Junction City to city delivery but some of the fine points in distinguishing between a "village" and a "city" will hold up this move for some time.

TO GET BUS

JUNCTION CITY, July 21.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Murphy left Wednesday evening via Southern Pacific for Cleveland, Ohio, where they will obtain a school bus that they will drive back and deliver to the Mapleton school district for their use in transportation of pupils. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will visit at Bowbells, N. D., his former home, and may look in on the New York fair.

Coy and Doris Baldwin left Wednesday to spend some time with relatives at Yoncalla and Sutherlin.

Most intense concentration of artillery fire in history occurred during the battle of St. Mihiel, in the World War, when a million artillery shells were fired in four hours.
