Called Back to Service
Lieutenant Frank Hart, who retired two years ago from submarine service in the United States navy, has been called back to duty by the bureau of navigation. He left Wednesday for Portsmouth, N. H. Mrs. Hart and their daughter, Frances, have left for San Francisco, and will go to Portsmouth on a navy transport by way of the Panama canal. The Harts have made their home at McKenzie Bridge.

Bridge Soon Open
Repairs on the Ferry street bridge will be completed by the middle of next week, county officials said Friday, and traffic which is held up between 8 in the morning and 4:30 in the afternoon each day will be resumed. County Engineer Morse said that at 4:30 Thursday afternoon a line of cars four or five blocks long was waiting for the barriers to be taken down.

Degree Conferred
The E. A. degree was conferred on one candidate at the meeting of McKenzie River lodge, No. 195, A. F. and A. M., Thursday evening. A special automotive Master Mason degree will be conferred in November. Announcement was made of an old-fashioned costume and rally dance to be held Oct. 21. Mr. and Mrs. Merton Folts and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Short are in charge.

Ground Works Well
Farmers in the Thurston neighborhood are all busy with their fall plowing, the recent rains having softened the ground so that it works well, according to Walter W. Edmiston, of that section, who was in Eugene Friday.

Drunks Fined
Claude Atkins, Portland, was fined $25 for drunkenness in police court. Twelve and a half day sentences in the county jail were meted out to Arthur Grunewald, Tillamook, and Frank McBride, transient. Mr. McBride's sentence was suspended on condition that he leave town.

Veterans at Grove
A delegation of members of the camp and auxiliary of the local Spanish-American war veterans will go to Cottage Grove Friday evening for a potluck dinner and meeting. The occasion is the visit of the department commander, S. B. Vessey.

Alliance to Meet
The Workers' Alliance will hold a potluck dinner in Hall A of the Labor Temple Friday evening after the business meeting.

held a study period and basket ball was practiced.

Mrs. Harriet Harper of the Waltherville grade school and Mrs. Guy Hills of the Cedar Flat school have both left for Corvallis to attend the tri-county teachers institute. Children both in the grade school and the high school will enjoy a four day week-end while the institute is being held.

Hunt Club Samples Another Farm Dinner

Horseback riders will be interested in the Eugene Hunt club's first fall dinner ride Sunday. Miss Georgia Dale is leader. The group will leave the fairgrounds at 10 a. m., returning early in the afternoon. A small charge will be made for the dinner, this being the only expense to those having their own mounts. The public is welcome, everyone wishing to attend to register at the riding academy, phone 2603 or at Dr. W. H. Dale's office, 43, before noon, Saturday.
