CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 21—(AP)—Duplicating the action of yesterday's markets, wheat prices today advanced about a cent and then lost all of the gain. December contracts reached 89⅞, their best ber contracts reached 89⅞, their best treated in late profit taking.

Reports of bad yields revealed by early threshing of wheat in northern sections of the Argentine belt attracted attention. Some late selling was associated with the downward trend of securities.

Wheat closed ⅛-⅜ higher than yesterday, Dec. 88⅜-½, May 88⅛-¼, corn unchanged to ⅛ up, Dec. 50¼, May 52 ⅛-⅜, oats ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher.

BOSTON WOOL

BOSTON, Nov. 21—(AP)—(USDA)— Scattered inquiries were being received today in the Boston wool market from top makers and worsted manufacturers but this interest was not being followed up by any large scale buying. The recent improvement in the undertone of the market however, was being maintained and quotations were inclined firmer than last week on several kinds of domestic wools. Twelve months Texas wools were sold at prices ranging mostly 97 cents to $1, scoured basis.

New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—(AP)—Selected stocks breasted mild selling currents in today's market but the list generally drifted downstream.

Efforts to stir up a rally in the first hour met with scant response and early fractional advances were soon erased or replaced by small minus signs in many instances.

Analysts in the financial district apparently were unable to bring out any outstanding reason for the recently chilly speculative sentiment. Mystification still attached to the fact stock quotations have been hovering at about the same level at which they were this time last year while business and industry have far outstripped 1938.

A number of stocks, seemingly buoyed by generous year-end dividends and heartening earnings statements, presented a firm front, but the majority of these did not run away.

Many commission house customers were disposed to keep funds liquid because of the forthcoming holiday. The exchange will be closed Thursday for the new early Thanksgiving day.

Lacking recovery stamina were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft, American Smelting, American Can, Westinghouse, Union Carbide, Johns-Manville, U. S. Gypsum, Standard Oil of N. J.
