Federals Hit Loughran Correspondence Course In Body Building

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Tommy Loughran, former lightweight champion, ran afoul of the law today in his claims for a correspondence course to create paragons of strength.

The federal trade commission issued a complaint against Loughran, who once fought Primo Carnera for the heavyweight championship, charging that he had misrepresented the course in advertising.

St. Mary's Plays Tillamook Tonight

Father Tony Gerace's St. Mary's Gaels take on tough upstate competition tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the St. Mary's gym in the form of the Tillamook Cheesemakers.

The Gaels have waltzed through all local B league competition in high scoring style and loom as an outstanding contender for district seven championship.

The Cheesemakers will probably give the Gaels plenty of competition. The game is rated as a toss-up.

Spokane Round Table Club Names Herring Top 1939 Sportsman

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The Round Table club of Spokane, has named Don Herring, plucky Princeton university football player, as its "outstanding sportsman of the year."

Marvin "Bud" Ward of Spokane, National Amateur golf king and club secretary announced the selection of Herring here. The husky tackle underwent a leg amputation following a football injury this fall.

Nationally known sports authorities participated in the poll which named Herring for the honor and cited him as having contributed most to amateur athletics in 1939.

Vancouver Lions Dump Seattle Hawks, 7-4

(Associated Press)
The Vancouver Lions widened their Pacific Coast Hockey league lead Wednesday night by defeating the Seattle Seahawks for the fifth consecutive time 7-4 on the Seattle ice.

The hard-driving Lions overcame a 4-1 lead the Hawks rolled up early in the second period and ran away from the defenders in the last six minutes of the final period.

The winning marker was scored by Lude Palm in 14:34 of the final frame. Twice Vancouver players intercepted the puck from determined Hawk advances in the last two and a half minutes of play and scored unassisted.

The Lions now four points in front of the Portland Buckaroos go to Portland tonight to meet the Bucs.
