Students Find Covers On Christmas Tree

SPRINGFIELD, Dec. 21.—(Special)—Students of the Springfield high school were given a unique Christmas surprise this past week on the school Christmas tree.

Miss May Hewes, librarian, hung book covers on the tree from the volumes included in the student library. Each cover had some student's name written on it. The covers were changed each day, to be replaced by different ones.

The students picked off their covers, and then took the volume from the library to read. According to report, the idea proved very popular.

Approximately $300 of new books have been purchased for the high school library this year.
