CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 6—(AP)—After slumping almost a cent due to selling inspired by receipt of further moisture in the grain belt, wheat prices today recovered much of the loss. The late buying was attributed largely to purchases to cover "short" accounts for over the week-end.

It was the fourth consecutive session of declining prices, with the result that sharp gains scored on Tuesday, the first trading day of 1940, have since been eliminated.

Wheat closed unchanged to ⅛ lower compared with yesterday, May $1.02⅞-⅜, July $1.01⅝-¼, corn unchanged to ⅛ down, May 58⅛, July 59⅝-⅝, oats unchanged to ⅛ lower.

BOSTON WOOL

BOSTON, Jan. 6—(AP)—(USDA)—Graded domestic wools were mostly quiet in Boston during the past week.

While quotations were mostly unchanged, they were largely nominal because of the absence of trading. Spot South African Merino wools received a moderate demand at steady prices. Orders were placed for moderate quantities of Merino wools to be imported from South Africa and also from South America. Graded combing bright fleece wools were quoted at 40 to 43 cents in the grease for fine Delaine, at 40 to 42 cents for half bloods and at 45 to 47 cents for three eighths and quarter bloods.

New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Jan. 6—(AP)—It was a case of "no dice" for most stock market leaders today so far as a real rally was concerned.

With the exception of scattered favorites, the majority of issues was unchanged to a shade lower at the close.

The ticker tape inclined to loaf the greater part of the time, with transfers for the two hours approximating 330,000 shares.

Stocks inclined to lag included U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet, U. S. Rubber, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, Sperry, American Telephone, Phelps Dodge, Union Pacific, Westinghouse, Union Carbide, and Johns-Manville.

Chrysler did better at the last, managing to tack on a modest plus sign. Resistant also were Bethlehem Steel, Anaconda, Eastman Kodak, Loft, Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit, Montgomery Ward, Public Service of N. J., International Paper Preferred and Electric Power & Light Preferred.

U. S. Government securities improved but corporation bonds were a trifle mixed. Commodities were uneven.

Heyden Chemical ran up nearly 3 on a handful of sales in the curb. Fractional gains by American Cyanamid B and Lake Shore were offset by declines in American Gas & Electric and New York Zinc.

Radio Day-By-Day

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD
(Associated Press Radio Editor)
(Pacific Standard Time)

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Broadcasters believe the audience for the New York film critics' annual program, scheduled for Sunday evening, will be considerably larger than usual.

That is because of the one-day controversy and the attention it attracted when one NBC official said Mayor F. H. LaGuardia, [illegible] couldn't appear as the master of ceremonies of entertainment program. Later another higher NBC official overruled this decision.

NBC's press department in advising from the sidelines that the program, for WJZ-NBC at 3:30 p. m., would go on "as originally scheduled"—the records show it never actually was cancelled—said the mayor and Kate Cameron, critics' chairman, would speak from New York and that from Hollywood would come the voices of movie talent. Among them are expected to be Vivian Leigh and James Stewart.

On the Saturday night list: Europe—WABC-CBS 2:45, 3:55; WEAF-NBC 8; WEAF-NBC 8:30 Rep. Martin Dies on un-American Activities. WABC-CBS 1:45 Rep. J. William Ditter on "The National Debt."

Sunday brings: Europe—NBC 5 a. m.; WABC-CBS 6 a. m., 4, 5:55, 8 p. m.; WEAF-NBC 12:30, 8; WJZ-NBC 2:15, 4:15, 7.

WEAF-NBC—1:15 Attorney-General Murphy before conference for Palestine. WJZ-NBC 12:15 Foreign policy talk; 3 discussion on reciprocal trade agreements.

MBS—10 a. m. Rabbi A. H. Silver on conference for Palestine.

Hunt Club Holds Potluck Dinner

Horseback riding and driving fans of Eugene will gather for a field day of fun and competition Sunday at the riding ring at the fairgrounds, when the Eugene Hunt club holds its potluck dinner and "practice" horse show.

Opening the program for the day is a treasure hunt at 11:30 a. m., starting from the southeast corner of the riding ring, where the first "clue" will be given. Other clues will be found on and near the fairgrounds, each of which must be signed or initialed by the contestants as it is reached. Anyone who wishes to enter the treasure hunt is welcome, whether a member of the club or not. The winner will receive the "treasure."

An hour's supervised program of jumping and exhibition riding of several kinds will begin promptly at noon, directed by Wm. McLean. At one o'clock members and guests will sit down in the clubroom to a potluck dinner in front of the fireplace. A 25 cents per person charge, or 50 cents for a family, is being made for the dinner in order to raise a fund for clubroom furnishings, the food being supplied by the diners in the usual potluck way. The charge takes the place of a charge for preparing the tables and serving the dinner, these services being donated by members according to Mrs. S. H. Seashore, chairman of the club's social committee.

At 2 o'clock, an informal "horse show" will begin, including five gaited, three gaited, and harness classes both for adults and children.

Anyone interested is invited to come to the "show" and watch from the spectators' boxes at the east and west ends of the building. There is no charge. The riding building is located just south of the Four-H hall, on the main entrance drive of the fairgrounds.

The following Sunday, Jan. 14, the club's monthly dinner ride will be held with Wm. McLean as leader. This event is open to the public.
