

St. Olaf Choir Program Near

January 30 Appearance Awaited On Campus

America's greatest collegiate singing organization, the St. Olaf Choir of Northfield, Minn., will appear here at McArthur court on Tuesday evening, January 30, as the fourth feature of the associated students' 1939-40 "Greater Artist" series.

The sixty-voice A Capella choir, under the direction of Dr. Melius Christiansen, will leave its campus this week end for a month's tour of the midwest and Pacific coast. This will be its first appearance in Eugene.

Membership in the choir at St. Olaf college is a great, if not greater honor than a position on the leading athletic teams at most American schools. Students are attracted from all sections of the nation to try for places on the choir.

Herman Devries, writing in the Chicago American last year, declared that "The St. Olaf choir may change its vestments and personnel from time to time, but it ever remains 'The Great Mixed Choir' of the decade. The virtues of the St. Olafians are too well known to dwell upon anew—they stand unrivaled in a field where choral bodies are legion."

Tickets for the Eugene appearance of the choir will be placed on sale Monday at the associated student ticket office in McArthur court.

A.F. of L. To Welcome C.I.O. Delegates Here

The Culinary Alliance, A. F. of L. restaurant employees' union, announced Saturday that it would extend fraternal greetings to the state C. I. O. convention, to be held in Eugene February 10 and 11, through the convention's official program.

"We have always found that the C. I. O. respects and supports our shop-cards," Gertrude Kay, Alliance business agent, said. "This local has never favored the split in labor's ranks, and on several occasions we have let the officialdom of both A. F. of L., and C. I. O. know that we would like to see labor re-united."

Last January the Eugene Culinary Alliance participated in a "labor unity chain letter," in which each local wrote ten letters urging the A. F. of L., and C. I. O., to get together. Miss Kay said the Alliance's greeting to the C. I. O. convention carried with it the hope that there would soon be only one united labor movement in the United States.

Springfield Chamber To Hear Talks on Outlook For 1940

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 20.—(Special)—With the theme, "Springfield Looks Into 1940," members of the Springfield chamber of commerce will meet Monday for a 6:30 dinner at the Methodist church, Mayor W. H. Pollard will give the address of welcome. Representatives from the Rosboro lumber company, the Springfield Plywood corporation, the Booth-Kelly lumber company will attend. Mr. Sipes of Albany will represent the Mountain States Power company.

Harold Santee, superintendent of Springfield schools, will discuss the increased enrollment; Harry Stewart, postmaster, will discuss the increased volume of business in the postoffice; and Chester Aldrich, city recorder, will speak on the work of the city government in the past year. Phil Bartholomew, president of the chamber, will preside. The dinner is being served by a committee from the church choir.

Methodist Women To Meet Tuesday

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 20.—(Special)—Circle 3 of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold a 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon Tuesday at the church. Mrs. Ethel Carson, Miss Anna McKellips and Mrs. R. L. Drury are in charge of general arrangements, and Mrs. Robert Culbertson and Mrs. Van Wynyard are in charge of entertainment. Each member is to bring a covered dish and a hot drink in a thermos bottle.

New Semester Begins At High School

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 20.—(Special)—Springfield high school students will begin their second semester's work Monday. One new course, college algebra, taught by Miss Mary Hewes, will be offered this term. In order to take the course, students must have completed the course in algebra 3. About 420 students are enrolled this year.

CLUB TO HOLD DANCE

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 20.—(Special)—A "Sadie Hawkins" dance will be given by members of the high school dance club Friday evening. Members will wear "hill-billy" costumes. Misses Belle Robbins and Bernice Eversole are in charge of arrangements.

WCTU TO MEET

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 20.—(Special)—The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Franklin Day at 635 E street, Tuesday at 2 p. m.

'BROWNIES' MEET

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 20.—(Special)—Projects for 1940 were begun at the regular weekly meeting of the senior Brownie pack this week. The girls are collecting material for nursery toys which they plan to construct and turn over to the Dornbecker hospital in Portland. They are also working on scrapbooks. Mrs. Jim MacMannan is leader of the club and Mrs. C. R. Pifer, assistant.

New Hymns to Be Featured In Service

A special musical service will be held in the First Christian church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, inaugurating 750 new hymn books which arrived the past week. These "Service Hymnals" are published by the Hope Publishing company. Plates have been arranged in the front of the books to be inscribed in memoriam to members of the church who have died.

The service for Sunday evening, as arranged by Hal Young, choir director, follows: Song service, old-time and new hymns; duet, "Lord, Remember Me," by Monestel, to be sung by Robert Carmichael and Mr. Young; violin solo, "Cavatina," by Raff, to be played by Jeanette Gordon, student of Rex Underwood at the university; solo, "Apostle Paul," the ninth in a series of 12 solos being done by Mr. Young on Jesus and the Twelve Apostles; choir anthem, "Gloria En Excelsis," Mozart; sermon, by Dr. S. Earl Childers, church pastor; response by the choir. The choir of 60 voices will appear in robes. Elwyn Myrick is the organist for the church and is playing the organ music for the service.

Winter Horse Show Scheduled

February 2, 3 Date Set By Hunt Clubbers

Eugene is to have a winter horse show, February 2 and 3, in the new $25,000 riding hall and exhibit building at the fairgrounds. The horse show, sponsored by the Eugene Hunt club, will be in the nature of a dedication of the building.

There are numbered seats for more than 400 spectators at the ends of the 90x200 foot tan bark arena. The seats will be used for the first time in this event. The show, according to William T. McLean, manager, will start at 8 o'clock in the evening and running about an hour and a half each evening, Friday and Saturday, February 2 and 3. A total of 16 classes will be presented, eight each evening. Special emphasis is being placed on children's classes. This year the non-judged junior horse show will be held as a separate event, and the junior have combined with the rest of the Hunt club to make this special dedication a better show. Classes are as follows:

Three gaited class, open to all except five gaited horses; fine harness class, horses to be shown to a four wheel vehicle; musical chairs game, open to children only; costume class, all riders to be dressed in costume; five gaited class, open to all riders; five gaited class for children only; three gaited class, to be judged by the audience's applause; roadsters to bike, horses to be shown to a two wheel vehicle; jumping, open to children only; children's mounts, open to children only; potato race, open to children only; five gaited combination class, horse to be shown first to a four wheel vehicle, then unharnessed in the ring and shown under saddle; walk-trot pairs, judged 50% on teamwork and appointments; three gaited combination class, horses to be shown under harness and also under saddle; five gaited class to be judged by the audience; balloon fight game.

There are no entry fees, and any citizen of Oregon, whether a member of any Hunt club or not, is welcome to enter his or her horses. Post entries will not be accepted and entry blanks must be received by the manager by noon, January 30, so that all names may appear on the programs. Following is an entry blank which should be filled in a separate blank or facsimile for each horse, and mailed or given to William T. McLean, 1910 Williamette st., Eugene.

Classes entered -----
Name of horse -----
Name of owner -----
Name of rider -----
or driver -----

It is specifically agreed that the management assumes no responsibility for accidents to contestants or their property and each participant by act of entry or participation waives all claims against the management for injury to them or their property.

Radio Artists to Give Program at Church

Of interest to the many Eugeneans who enjoy the "Haven of Rest" radio program will be the appearance of Paul Meyers, "First Mate Bob" of the group, at the First Baptist church Thursday at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Meyers and his wife will speak at the special meeting at the church that evening. The public is invited.

The Minute Men quartet of the First Baptist church, John Harms, Estley Schick, Gordon Frazer and Rollin Calkin, will sing. Their numbers will be "My Jesus, I Love Thee," by McKinney; "Let the Lower Light Be Burning," by Bliss; "My Anchor Holds," Townes; "More Love to Thee," Doane; "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me," Gould; and "Remember Me, Almighty One," Kinkel.

Professor Comish Pays Because Coincidence Plays Trick On Him

It was only circumstantial evidence, but it convicted an innocent man.

N. H. Comish, professor of business administration at the University of Oregon, received notice from the city of Eugene that he had committed an overtime parking offense. He didn't think he was guilty but paid the fine anyway.

Search into records revealed this story: The ticket was issued to a Chevrolet bearing license number, 6-566. Notice was sent to Professor Comish whose license number was 6-566, but he had a Dodge.

The rub was that the guilty 6-566 was a 1939 number. The professor's number was from 1940 plates.

Police Judge Cal Bryan said the council would take action Monday to return the dollar fine. The real overtime parker was Ole F. Christensen, Rt. 4, Eugene.

Piano, Harp Recital Will Be Tuesday

Two faculty members of the University of Oregon school of music, Doris Helen Calkins, harpist, and Aurora Potter Underwood, pianist, will offer Eugene audiences an opportunity to hear some unusual arrangements of harp-piano selections when they play in recital at 8:15 p. m. Tuesday, January 23, in the music auditorium. The public is invited.

Known for their solo work in a number of Pacific coast cities, both Mrs. Underwood and Mrs. Calkins have large followings among Eugene residents. The former is also known as the wife of Rex Underwood, director of the university symphony orchestra. Mrs. Calkins has studied with Atti, renowned harpist of the San Francisco symphony.

Two preludes by Tournier, Ravel's "Introduction and Allegro," Chabrier's "Habanera," Saint-Saens' "Melancholy Beethoven" and Bach-Maier's "Sicilienne" will be played by the two. Mrs. Calkins' solo selections will include "Andante" and "Spanish Dance" by Tedeschi, "Arabesque No. 2" by Debussy, "Marguerite at the Spinning Wheel" by Zabel, and Atti's arrangement of the harp solo from Donizetti's "Lucia di Lammermoor."

Piano numbers offered by Mrs. Underwood will be Strauss-Schulz-Evler's "By the Beautiful Blue Danube," Debussy's "La Puerta del Vino," Scriabine's fifth etude, and Casella's "Toccata."

Miss Luvaas to Play On Campus Today

Miss Helen Luvaas, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Luvaas, will return to the platform in the music auditorium Sunday afternoon at 3:30 with a program of piano compositions which should be especially interesting to Eugene recital-goers. Anyone interested may attend.

Miss Luvaas has had several years of training under Jane Thacher, professor of piano in the University of Oregon music school, but part of her natural musical talent may be attributed to the fact that she is the niece of a composer, Morton Luvaas of the faculty of Allegheny college.

Eugene Represented At Oregon City Meet

Policies and programs for 1940 will be discussed by the executive board of the League of Oregon cities at a meeting in Portland Sunday. It was reported here Saturday by William O. Hall, acting executive secretary.

A number of matters affecting municipalities, including the effect of federal taxation of city bonds, the relationship between utility managers and the league, and the development of additional revenues for cities, will be discussed. J. W. McArthur, superintendent of the local municipal utilities, and secretary-treasurer of the league, will also attend the meeting.

Church To Build New Structure

Congregationalists Tell of Program

The construction of a building to be used for young people's meetings will be one of the main projects of the First Congregational church this year, it was announced at the annual meeting, held the past week. The building will be situated at the back of the lot just west of the church, on Thirteenth avenue east, and will be about 30 by 40 feet. It will contain several small rooms for group meetings, and one large room for social affairs. George Spicer is the chairman of the committee in charge. Work on the building will begin this spring.

Among the events of the evening was the burning of the mortgage, which leaves the church debt-free.

Will M. Kidwell, chairman of the every member canvass, reported on the canvass. Reports were made by representatives of the Women's League, Plymouth club, Pilgrim Fellowship, Scout groups, the trustees, the Sunday school, and by Rev. Williston Wirt, pastor.

Among those elected to office were trustees, Frank A. Tripp, L. L. Edmunds, M. H. Douglass, A. B. Stillman, re-elected; music committee, Mrs. Harry G. Talbot and Mrs. C. A. E. Whitton, re-elected, and Mrs. Howard Hall and Mrs. A. L. Lomas, new members; house and grounds, Wilbur Dutton, new member.

New committees and their members are brotherhood, M. H. Douglass, C. R. Clark, A. F. Holmer, Warren D. Smith, Wayne L. Morse, Robert D. Horn, William G. East, John Thomason; young people's committee, Mrs. E. E. De Cou, Will M. Kidwell, Dr. Carl Kossack, Earl Holmer, Keith Clark, Prof. John L. Casteel; ushering, John Heinz and Peter Hoyard; publicity, Margaret Ray, Jean Crites; 1941 budget, Wilbur Dutton and Will M. Kidwell; dramatics, Mrs. Kenneth Moore, Mrs. Frank Loomis, Jr., Eunice Elliott, James Smith, H. P. Backus; literature, Helen Staples, Mrs. J. H. Bond, Mrs. W. C. Warren.

The meeting was preceded by a dinner. Maynard Nelson sang a solo.
