Walterville News

WALTERTVILLE, Feb. 21.—(Special)—Feb. 27 is the last day on which a discount will be given this year on farmer line bills covering service at the central exchange according to notices received by the different line secretaries from C. M. Broderson, manager in Eugene. Failure of the individuals on the lines to pay their central service will result in suspension of central service for the entire line according to the manager. On the 20 and 23 lines the central service has been paid regularly each year and the letter to the secretary is just a reminder of the close of the discount rate. Several are listed at present as not having yet paid their switch fees. This should be taken care of before Feb. 27.
The local Boy Scout troop met this week at the Walterville school house, the regular meeting place. The past two meeting nights they met at the different homes as practice was going on for the P.-T. A. play.
The cast from the local P.-T. A. play will present the play Saturday evening, Feb. 24, at Vida at the gymnasium, with the McKenzie River grange at Vida sponsoring the evening's entertainment. The cast is practicing this week.
