

Program Of Rodent Control In Lane For 1940 Given

The program for rodent control in Lane county during 1940 has been outlined by the Lane County Agricultural council. The program, announced at the office of O. S. Fletcher, county agricultural agent, follows:

- Ground Squirrels
1. Carry on intensive campaign against gray digger ground squirrels in all parts of the county.
 2. Ask farm organizations to nominate one rodent control supervisor for each school district covered by the organizations to be appointed by the county court, with the understanding that the county agent shall select supervisors in school districts not covered by any farm organization, provided farmers in such districts are sufficiently interested to organize a local committee.
 3. Publish notice to poison ground squirrels on March 14, 21, and 28 and set Monday, April 1, as poisoning day.
 4. Complete poisoning squirrels on neglected land by June 15 and urge all individuals doing own poisoning to complete the work by that date.
- Pocket Gophers and Moles
1. Conduct two demonstrations on methods of poisoning Williams-Lette Valley gophers and trapping moles.
 2. Conduct four demonstrations on methods of controlling moles and small species of gophers.

- Rats
1. Assist farmers on rat control problems by disseminating information on various control measures. Promote interest by showing rat control films at grange and other meetings. Recommend poisoning rats with powdered red squill and gassing with calcium cyanide dust. Disseminate information on cost of supporting rats.
 2. Conduct four demonstrations on methods of poisoning and gassing rats.

- Jack Rabbits
1. Disseminate information on the control of jack rabbits and conduct demonstrations on methods of poisoning same when necessary.
- Rodent Control Contests
1. Encourage a county-wide and community contests among 4-H club members and other children on the control of rodents. Urge granges to sponsor such contests.

- Predatory Animals
1. Cooperate with hunter in predatory animal control work.

- Western Lane Club Leaders Will Meet
- A meeting of western Lane county Four-H club leaders for the election of officers and adoption of a program for the coming year will be held at the Florence grade school building at 7:30 p. m., March 21. Mrs. Mary Neely of Mapleton, temporary chairman, is calling the meeting.
