

Faculty People To Attend Sessions

Faculty members of the University of Oregon will take prominent roles in a number of national meetings during April, it was announced here today.

Frederick Cuthbert, associate professor of landscape architecture, will lead a field trip for advanced landscape architecture students to Seattle, Longview, Olympia, Tacoma, and other cities between April 27 and May 2.

The American College Public Association has asked George Godfrey, head of the university news bureau, to speak before the annual convention in Des Moines, Iowa, in mid-April. Mr. Godfrey will leave Portland about April 10, in the company of Palm-Holt, publisher of The Oregonian, who is also one of the principal speakers.

Dr. J. R. Jewell, Dr. H. B. Wood, Dr. F. B. Macomber, Professor F. L. Stetson, and Miss Ida Pope of the school of education will be in Spokane April 3-5 for the convention of the Inland Empire Teachers' association.

Miss Janet Woodruff, associate professor of physical education, will take part in the Northwest Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation meeting to be held in Seattle 11-13. Miss Woodruff is on the association's executive board.

As chairman of the college section, Dean Ralph W. Leighton of the school of physical education will participate in the Northwest Conference on High School and College Hygiene, to be held in Spokane April 4.

Miss Maude Kerns, associate professor of art, will take part in the Pacific Art association's annual meetings to be held at Pasadena, Cal. April 1-3. Miss Kerns is one of the five directors of the association.

College Students Guests Of Honor

EUGENE, March 21.—(Special)—The lower hall of the lodge hall was the scene of a pleasant evening recently when Mrs. Edith Selas, Mrs. Catherine Fenley, and Mrs. Agnes Hudson gave a party for the young folks who are coming from college for spring vacation.

The evening was spent in playing games and dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Madison and George Selas played for the square dances and Ross Hutchinson called them. Late in the evening refreshments were served.

There were present Miss Virginia Gates, Miss Geraldine Fenley, Miss Ovethea Hudson, Miss Edith Selas, Miss Lenore Selas, Philip Beckley, Warren Dick, Sidney Gates, Miss Marie Selas, Miss Mable George, Gale Madison, Grant Madison, George

Nazis Claim French Divided

BERLIN, March 21.—(AP)—The resignation of the French cabinet of Premier Daladier interests the German government merely as a symptom of evident disunion within France, authorized sources stated today.

"It connotes a sort of 'Gottterdammerung' (twilight of the Gods) among the French people," one authorized commentator said. "The French people are beginning to realize that their war inciters maneuvered the nation into a situation to which it isn't equal and to which the government also is proven not equal."

A number of Elkon people went to Roseburg recently to visit the new Fullerton school to get ideas for the grade school to be built at Elkon this summer. Mrs. Stella Quine, county school superintendent, and Mr. Chamberlin, contractor of the Fullerton school, showed the party the building.

Among the people who visited the building were Warren Billick, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Madison, C. C. Jensen, Walter Duff, Ed Grubb, Miss Helen Fox, Mrs. Hugh Scott, Mrs. George Binder, Paul Masters, Mrs. Edith Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. James Gates.

The second annual banquet of the Elkon high school association will be held 8 o'clock, April 20, in the gymnasium of the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hugas moved to Eugene over the weekend. Mr. Hugas has work on the Fern Ridge dam. August DeGnath moved the Hugas family.

Pre-Easter services will be held at the Church of Christ this week. There will be meetings every evening with Adrian Fraley as speaker.

Mrs. Bell Hershman, of San Francisco is visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Smith, of Kellogg.

Word was received here of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Werner, of Puyallup, Washington. The grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haines arrived March 12. The child was named Dwayne Edmond.

Shedd Items

SHEDD, March 21.—(Special)—Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Mary Lesley at Albany. Mrs. Lesley made her home in this neighborhood for some time while keeping house for W. W. Poland.

O. C. Elliott of Lebanon was in Shedd recently calling at the home of his sister, Mrs. George Gardner.

Farmers are busily engaged with their spring plowing. Some land is already ready for seeding. The ground is drying very fast.

The annual congregational meeting of the United Presbyterian church will be held at the church on Wednesday, March 27. A potluck dinner will be served at the noon hour, followed by the business meeting. Officers will be elected and reports of the different departments will be given.

Missionary Group
The United Presbyterian Missionary society met last week at the home of Mrs. C. E. Barton. A covered dish dinner was served, after which the regular meeting was held. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Herbert McDonald; vice president, Mrs. R. W. Brown; secretary, Mrs. Frank Pimm; treasurer, Mrs. George Maxwell. The identity of the flower sisters was revealed and gifts were exchanged by them. Society members present were Mrs. G. W. Rohrbough, Mrs. Anna Wilson, Mrs. Mary McCormick, Miss Tempa Brock, Mrs. Emma Gregory, Mrs. John Duncan, Mrs. Dick Duncan, Mrs. Willard Brown, Mrs. R. W. Brown, Mrs. Dora Dawson, Miss Lizzie Barton, and Mrs. C. E. Barton. Guests included Rev. G. W. Rohrbough, and son, Clayton, Miss Wills McConnell, Mrs. Mary Brown, Miss Meda Brown, C. E. Barton, and Harold Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Farwell are the parents of twin sons. The twins are the second and third boys in the family. They were born on March 12 in Eugene and weighed five and six pounds.

Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Bradley of Portland visited Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bates recently.

Cause Of DuPont Blast Sought In Louisiana

BATON ROUGE, La., March 21.—(AP) Officials today sought an explanation of an explosion at the Ethyl-Du Pont gasoline blending plant which killed three persons, injured others and rocked the state capitol building.

The dead were Clifton Couey, 21, of New Orleans, Justin Hughes, 31, of Dallas, Tex., and Henry Kinberger, 23, of Plaquemine, La. Officials estimated damage to the plant at $100,000.

Bad Air, Slate Falls Hamper Mine Rescuers

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., March 21.—(AP)—Hampered by foul air and new falls of slate in the explosion-shattered Willow Grove coal mine, rescue workers predicted today that recovery of the 52 men officially reported still entombed would not be completed for several days. Eleven bodies were removed yesterday, bringing to 19 the number found since Saturday.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting by nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, head aches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
