

Churches Announce Easter Events

CRESWELL, March 21.—(Special)—The Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church and the orchestra will give a special Easter program during the church school hour from 10 to 11 Sunday. Mrs. Harriet Ingram, director of the orchestra, has announced several numbers by the orchestra. Members of the various classes will give musical numbers and readings. An Easter offering will be taken for mission work.

Admission of new members and the baptism services will be included at the 11 o'clock service. The pastor, Rev. Floyd E. Dorris will speak on "The First Easter," and the choir will give three anthems. The choir will present an hour of song at a vesper service at 5:30 p. m. The cantata is under the direction of Miss Nieta Zinkler. The Christian Endeavor will hold a candlelight service and installation of new officers at the regular hour of 6:30. Music and a special lesson will be a part of the program. The primary department of the SCREEN ACTRESS SONJA HENIE is shown with Dan Topping, to whom she has been reported engaged, after they arrived in Honolulu for a brief stay. Sonja denied that she planned to marry Topping, but they were reported to have been constant companions during the trip over.

Sunday school of the First Methodist church will have the flower decorating of the cross during the Sunday school hour Easter morning. There will also be special music by the orchestra under the direction of Mrs. H. N. Traxler. Rev. Edwin Geraham, native of India, will be guest speaker at the morning service. Mrs. C. L. Camp, the pastor, will preside at baptismal services and the admission of members. The choir will sing "Hallelujah! Christ Is Risen" from Handel's Hallelujah chorus. At the 7:30 service both choir and orchestra will supply special music with Bible responses by the pastor.
